In his Rootsweb posting dated September 3, 1999, Robert L. Jackson posted the following obituary for Alexander Wright dated on December 23, 1913, from The Bloomfield News, Bloomfield, Indiana :

"This community was greatly shocked last Wednesday evening by the announcement of the death of Alex Wright. He had been in declining health for the past year, but was able to perform his daily labors and on the day of his death apparently was feeling better. Therefore his death was unexpected. He retired that night after his day's labor without showing any evidence that he was feeling worse than usual, and in a short time his wife was alarmed by his struggles, and before some of his children who live near them, could be summoned and reach the home, his life was extinct.

Uncle Alex, as he was familiarly known, was born in Ohio, July 8, 1838. When about ten years of age his mother died and he was raised without the the love and care of a mother. He had three brothers and two sisters and twelve half brothers and sisters. He moved with his father to Indiana in 1849, and has spent the most of his life at his present home.

He was married to Lucinda Hardesty, November 17, 1859. Eleven children were born to this union, five boys and six girls. They were surrounded by the disadvantages and hardships incident to pioneer life, but looking for the bright side of life they shared each other's toils and privations with pleasure in establishing and maintaining a home for their children. His children survive him and have all grown to manhood and woman hood, and they can say in his behalf, "Father spent his life for us." He was an honest and hardworking man, and was esteemed by all who knew him. He was jovial and always in a good humor and young as well as old enjoyed being in his presence. He was a man of strong convictions and had the courage to stand up for the rights as he saw it. He was unselfish and generous in his nature and disposition. His life has been one worthy of emulation and we trust that his children and friends may emulate his virtues. May the choicest blessing of Him who knows our sorrows and who is acquainted with our grief rest upon his companion and children, and may they lean upon Him who has promised to be a husband to the widow and a father to the fatherless, making Him their guide until they are again reunited in His presence in an unbroken family to spend all eternity of unalloyed bliss, where death and parting are unknown."

In his Rootsweb Posting dated September 26, 1999, Robert L. Jackson posted the following obituary for Alcinda (Hardesty) Wright dated on March 18, 1926, in The Bloomfield News, Bloomfield, Indiana:

"The Bloomfield News, Bloomfield, Greene County, Indiana, Thursday, March 18, 1926, Volume L, Number 19, Page 6, Column 4, "DEATH'S HARVEST, WRIGHT." [Transcribed from Bloomfield-Eastern Greene County Public Library's IHS Microfilm Records.]

Alcinda (Hardesty) Wright was born November 22, 1843. Died at her home near Dresden, March 9, 1926, aged eighty-two years, three months and eighteen days. She was united in marriage to Alexander Wright November 17, 1859, who preceded her in death December 10, 1913. To this union eleven children were born, namely: Richard, Jonas, Charles, Lloyd, Homer, Mrs. Ellen Shanks, Mrs. Melissa Roberts, Mrs. Martha Rose, Mrs. Rosa Burnett, Mrs. Rebecca Crabbe and Mrs. Amy Roberts. Surrounded by the disadvantages incident to pioneer life they toiled day after day for fifty-four years to establish and maintain a home for their children. She loved her home and no one was more faithful in discharging her duties as a wife and mother than she. She united with the Christian Church at Dresden early in life under the pastorate of Isaiah (Daddy) Fields.

She remained a Christian until death. As a neighbor she was kind and good. Was always willing to lend a helping hand in time of need. Her last admonition to her children was to live a Christian and meet her in the great beyond. She prayed good will and Jesus blessings to all. She spent almost her entire life where she died, moving there with her husband at the age of sixteen. She is survived by her eleven children, fifty-two grand children, and two great great grand children, and a host of other relatives and friends.

She was laid to rest by the side of her husband at Ashcraft Chapel March 11, 1926. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Shannon Baker."

As set forth above, Findagrave.com listed the joint gravestones of Alcinda Wright and Alex Wright in Ashcraft Chapel Cemetery, Bloomfield, Greene County, Indiana.

In his booklet Four Lloyd Wrights Of Coshocton County, Ohio, revised February 8, 1995, Howard L. Bowers stated as follows:

"Lloyd Wright No. 4

This Lloyd Wright . . . married (1) Elizabeth Clarke on 13 March 1834 in Coshocton County. Their children were: Mary (1835-1846), William (?-1848), Willis (?-1837), infant (1836), Alexander (1838-1913), Samuel (1840-1925) and Martha (1842-1925). Elizabeth died in 1842 and is buried in Varner Cemetery, Licking County (next to Coshocton County to the southwest) beside their son William. Lloyd married (2) Nancy Meek(s) about 1843 possibly in Licking County. Their children were: Mariah (1844), Elizabeth (1845-1875), Richard (1847-1919), David (1848-?), Louisa Jane (1850-?), Eliza (1852-?), Daniel (1854-1871), Harriet (1855-?), Mahala (1856-1927), Sarah Margaret (1860-?) and Adam (1864-?). . . ."

In his email dated September 20, 2003, and his Rootsweb.com posting dated July 16, 2005, Jerry Jacobs stated that Alexander Wright was a son of Lloyd Wright and Elizabeth (Clarke) Wright, was born on July 8, 1838, in Coshocton County, Ohio, married Alcinda Hardesty on November 17, 1859, in Greene County, Indiana, and died on December 11, 1913, in Greene County, Indiana.

In his Rootsweb posting dated September 3, 1999, Robert L. Jackson posted the following obituary for Samuel Wright from The Bloomfield News dated May 14, 1925:

"Death's Harvest. Wright.

Samuel Wright was born in Coshocton County, Ohio, May 12, 1840, and died May 8, 1925, at the present home near Robison, lacking, therefore at the time of his death, just four days of being eighty-five years.

At the age of ten his father removed to Indiana and settled on Dry Brance, near the present home.

On January 23, 1862, he was married to Rebecca Parham, who still survives. To this union eight children were born, two of whom died in infancy. The surviving children are, namely: Allen, near Owensburg; Sarah Roberts, of Indianapolis; Martha Kirk, of Koleen; Albert, of Robison; Lewis, of Koleen, and Lucy Price, of Sullivan, Illinois.

He also leaves one sister, Martha McBride, and three half-sisters, namely: Mariah Hill, Margaret Page and Mahala Hill. Twenty-two grandchildren and sixteen great-grandchildren survive, besides a host of relatives and friends.

He united with the Christian Church in 1867 and lived a consistent Christian life. Many hours were spent in reading the Bible, as he was unable to attend church regularly. A short time before his death he sang a beautiful old psalm, the words of which were "I'm happy now, I know I'll be, and all the friends in heaven I'll see;

I'm happy and the Lord will continue with me."

What comforting words to leave those bereaved!

Uncle Sam, as he was called by friends and neighbors, was a man of no bad habits. No oath was even known to pass his lips. He toiled from early to late that his family might be well cared for and the only regret of his old age was he could no longer work. He taught his children to live clean upright lives. To his boys he said, "Be honest above all things." To his girls, "Be virtuous even as your mother was virtuous."

Sixty-three years he and his good wife lived together on the old homestead, in perfect peace and harmony. They were never parted any longer than two weeks at one time, during this long period of years.

Thus we have the passing of a good man, a devoted husband and loving father. We are comforted when we know the God in whom he firmly believed, doeth all things well.

The funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Ashcraft Chapel, conducted by Rev. Quince Ferguson. Interment in Ashcraft Chapel Cemetery."

In his Rootsweb Posting dated March 1, 2005, Robert Lilburn Jackson posted the following obituary of Rebecca (Parham) Wright dated August 16, 1934, in The Bloomfield News, Bloomfield, Indiana:

"THE BLOOMFIELD NEWS, Bloomfield, Greene County, Indiana, Thursday, August 16, 1934, Volume LVIII, Number 42, Page 6, Columns 2 & 3, "DEATH'S HARVEST, WRIGHT" [Transcribed March 1, 2005 by RLJ from microfilm of the original newspaper on file in the Bloomfield-Eastern Greene County Public Library.]

Rebecca WRIGHT, daughter of Allen and Lucy PARHAM, was born in Monroe County, {Indiana,} May 16, 1843, and died at Sullivan, {Moultrie County}, Illinois, August 9, 1934, being ninety-one years, two months and twenty-three days old. Of a family of fourteen, she was the last to go.

On January 23, 1862, she was married to Samuel WRIGHT, who died May 8, 1925. To this union eight children were born, two dying in childhood and one, Mrs. Sarah ROBERTS, in 1929. The surviving children are, namely: Mrs. Lucy PRICE, of Sullivan, Illinois; Allen, of Owensburg; Albert, of Robison, and Mrs. Martha KIRK, and Lewis WRIGHT, of Kolen. She leaves also twenty-two grandchildren and forty-two great-grandchildren besides a number of other relatives and friends. In addition to rearing her own family, she mothered several orphan children at different intervals and reared a granddaughter, Mrs. Elsie GEORGE, to womanhood. She united with the Christian Church at an early age, and her entire life will attest to her belief in Christian principles. Her life was truly one worth emulating.

Sixty-three years she and her good husband traveled together life's pathway, sharing joys and sorrows alike. Their home was enriched with the deepest experience and glorified with their steadfast love. Trials and triumphs, births and deaths were all a part of the experiences, yet through it all they moved in one harmonious accord. When Death came and claimed the companion of over half a century, life was never the same, yet she bore it all with a patience born of an inner guidance.

As the feebleness of age came on, she was obliged to make her home with a daughter, Mrs. Lucy PRICE, at whose home she died. Although crippled in body, her mind was ever alert and she took the keenest interest in all those she was unable to no longer visit. Relatives can but eulogize the daughter and family who so tenderly and faithfully cared for her in her last days.

Christ has made of death a starlit path between the companionships of yesterday and the reunions of tomorrow, so she has gone smiling into the Great Beyond "looking upon the silence as release looking upon the darkness as a dream" looking upon the great unknown as rest.

Funeral services were conducted at Ashcraft Chapel Saturday, August 11, by Rev. Quince FERGUSON, of Kirby.

The family wish to thank all that helped in any way during the last illness and death of our mother; especially the singers and those that gave the floral offerings.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira PRICE and Family,
Mr. and Mrs. Lewis WRIGHT and Family,
Mr. and Mrs. Homer KIRK,
Allen WRIGHT,
Albert WRIGHT."

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Rebecca Wright dated August 17, 1934, in the Sullivan Progress, Sullivan, Illinois:

"Rebecca Wright Left Sixty-Nine Descendants

Mrs. Rebecca Wright who died last week at the home of Mrs. Ira Price, her daughter in this city, left 69 living descendants. At the time of death she was 91 years, 2 months and 23 days of age.

She was the mother of eight children. Three preceded her in death. The survivors are Mrs. Lucy Price of this city; Allen Wright of Owensburg, Ind; Albert and Lewis Wright and Mrs. Martha Kirk of Koleen, Indiana.

She leaves 22 grandchildren and 42 great grandchildren. One great great grandchild was born in the family circle, but died in infancy.

Mrs. Wright's remains were laid to rest Saturday in the Ashcraft Chapel cemetery in Indiana, beside the grave of her husband who passed away May 8, 1925 at the age of 84."

As set forth above, Findagrave.com listed the joint gravestone of Rebecca Wright and Samuel Wright in Ashcraft Chapel Cemetery, Bloomfield, Greene County, Indiana.

In his booklet Four Lloyd Wrights Of Coshocton County, Ohio, revised February 8, 1995, Howard L. Bowers stated as follows:

This Lloyd Wright . . . married (1) Elizabeth Clarke on 13 March 1834 in Coshocton County. Their children were: Mary (1835-1846), William (?-1848), Willis (?-1837), infant (1836), Alexander (1838-1913), Samuel (1840-1925) and Martha (1842-1925). Elizabeth died in 1842 and is buried in Varner Cemetery, Licking County (next to Coshocton County to the southwest) beside their son William. Lloyd married (2) Nancy Meek(s) about 1843 possibly in Licking County. Their children were: Mariah (1844), Elizabeth (1845-1875), Richard (1847-1919), David (1848-?), Louisa Jane (1850-?), Eliza (1852-?), Daniel (1854-1871), Harriet (1855-?), Mahala (1856-1927), Sarah Margaret (1860-?) and Adam (1864-?). . . ."

In his email dated September 20, 2003, and his Rootsweb.com posting dated July 16, 2005, Jerry Jacobs stated that Samuel Wright was a son of Lloyd Wright and Elizabeth (Clarke) Wright, was born on May 12, 1840, in Coshocton County, Ohio, married Rebecca Parham on January 23, 1862, in Greene County, Indiana, and died on May 8, 1925, in Robinson, Greene County, Indiana.

"Obituary

Susan Elmaria Brannon was born in Kolen, Green County, Indiana, May 16, 1848. Died April 11, 1923. Age 74 years, 10 months and 25 days.

She came from Indiana to Osage City 38 years ago and for a number of years has made her home with her daughter Mrs. Charlotte Soxman, 302 South 4th street, Osage City, Kansas, where she resided at the time of her death.

Early in life she confessed her faith in God.

In 1868 she was united in marriage to David Wright who preceded her in death Feb. 19, 1915. To them were born nine children, four boys and five girls. Martha Tyson, Sam Wright, Margaret Tyson, and Charlotte Soxman of the home address. Alice Danthit of Fletcher, Okla., Jim Wright of Admire, Kas., and Ves Wright of Terra Haute, Indiana. Two preceded her in death, Claude who died in infancy and Rose Crable who died in March 1913. Other than the above she leaves thirty-four grandchildren and twenty-nine great grandchildren to mourn her going.

She was a kind, loving mother and loved by all who knew her.

The funeral services were conducted Saturday afternoon by Rev. T. A. Nichols at the home of Mrs. Charlotte Soxman. Interment in the Osage City cemetery."

Findagrave.com listed the following obituary for Nelson Reed, undated and no newspaper listed:

"From a newspaper:

Nelson Reed was born in Ohio, February 3, 1851. Died at his residence in Robison, November 13, 1914.

He was of a family of seven children—five boys and two girls—four of whom are living.

He was married to Louisa Jane Wright October 16, 1873. This was a happy union and unto them were born nine children. They, together with the wife, survive. For twenty-four years they toiled together, sharing each others joys and sorrows and hardships incident to pioneer life, striving to make a home for themselves and family. Then his devoted wife was stricken with rheumatism, and has since been almost a helpless invalid. But during all these years of her affliction he was a dutiful husband, doing everything in his power to relieve her suffering and to make her comfortable in her affliction.

He had been in declining health for several months, but during the last two or three weeks his strength failed rapidly. He retained consciousness to the end. He often expressed his readiness to go but regretted to leave his family.

He was happily converted and united with the M. E. church at Ashcraft Chapel in February 1907, and as long as he was able to attend church services it as a pleasure to him to testify to the love of Jesus and appealed to the sinners to accept Christ. He would always express his regret of not enlisting in the cause of the Master earlier in life, pleading with the people to do so while young. And "He who spoke peace to his soul" failed him not when nearing the Jordan of Death, for he was enabled to testify, "I am not afraid to die," but again expressing his regret in having to leave his children and an invalid wife.

The funeral was conducted at his late home by Rev. Quince Ferguson. Afterwards followed by a large concourse of sympathizing friends and relatives his remains were laid to rest in the Ashcraft Cemetery.

May the choicest blessings of Him who know our sorrows and who is acquainted with our grief rest upon the bereft loved ones, and may they lean upon Him who has promised to be husband to the widow and a father to the fatherless, making Him their guide until they are again unified in an unbroken family where sickness and death are unknown."

The listing by the informant David Hill of his father Benjamin Hill as widowed suggests that Benjamin Hill and Mahala (Wright) Hill may have been separated or divorced at the time of Benjamin's death. As set forth below, the obituary of Benjamin Hill listed Mahala as his widow. The result is this may have simply been a recording error and further research will be required to confirm or deny this suggestion.

Findagrave.com listed the following obituary for Benjamin Hill, undated and no newspaper identified:

"From a newspaper:

Benjamin Louis Hill was born in Pennsylvania May 10, 1852; died July 15, 1925, aged seventy-three years, two months and 5 days.

He was the son of David and Symantha Hill. He came to Indiana with his parents when he was a small boy and had lived near Koleen every since.

He was married to Mahala Wright in 1877. To this union were born five children--two boys and three girls. They are David Hill, of BloomfieLd; Lloyd Hill of Bedford; Bertha Hunter, Switz City, and Bertie Clark and Sarah Burgess of Koleen. Beside these he leaves a wife and twenty-two grandchildren and five great-grandchildren and a host of relatives and friends to mourn his departure."

"Obituary

William Wright.

William Wright died at the home of his daughter in Rocky Fork yesterday afternoon. He was born in Licking county in 1844, and had spent all his life in Licking county. The deceased was a Civil war veteran, and had a host of friends in the county. He died after a stroke of paralysis which he suffered last Wednesday.

He leaves to mourn their loss, 3 sons and three daughters - S. C. Wright of Reform, P. O. Wright of Wilkins Corner, Alva Wright of Reform, Mrs. S. T. Coon of Rocky Fork, Mrs. B. Z. Hupp of Hanover, and Mrs. T. J. Parmenter of Barnesville.

Newark Advocate - Mon, July 15, 1918"

The 1920 Census for Licking County, Ohio, listed Elizabeth M. Shannon in the Purley D. Wright household on January 5, 1920, her relationship as mother, her age as 55 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1865, and her marital status as widowed. The obituary of Purley O. Wright dated on June 9, 1967, in The Newark Advocate, Newark, Ohio, listed his parents as William and Margaret Sherman Wright and his birth on October 24, 1880, in Licking County, Ohio. The result is that the informant or the census taker mistakenly listed Margaret Elizabeth (Sherman) Wright in the 1920 Census as Elizabeth M. Shannon and incorrectly listed her age.

The 1930 Census for Newark, Licking County, Ohio, listed Margaret Wright in the Maud Permenter household on April 26, 1930, her relationship as mother, her age as 88 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1842, and her marital status as widowed.

The Wright Family Tree, compiled by KJiler1 and available from Ancestry.com, listed the following news article dated February 23, 1887, from The Newark Advocate, Newark, Ohio, regarding the indictment of Margaret Wilson and William Davis for adultery:

"Sensational Indictments.

The arrests having been made of those persons indicted by the Grand Jury, who were not in custody at the time of our publication of the report, we are now enabled to print the remaining indictments presented.

Wm. Davis for fornication and Mrs Margaret Wilson for adultery.

Davis and Mrs. Wilson are reported to have been living together as man and wife for some time and have had children as the fruit of their illicit relations They were arrested in Eden township by Detective Joe Griffith"

The Wright Family Tree, compiled by KJiler1, also listed the following news article dated March 10, 1887, from The Newark Advocate, Newark, Ohio, regarding the indictment of punishment of Margaret Wilson for adultery:

"She Got Mercy.

An Adulteress Receives a Light Sentence on Account of Her Small Children.

Mrs. Margaret Wilson some time ago left her husband and since then has been living in a state of adultery with one Davis. The Grand Jury indicted the guilty pair, and they hearing of their examination before that body, skipped the country. Davis has not yet been captured, but the woman, not an attractive siren at all, was brought before the court to-day with Davis' small child at her breast. She is also the mother of another child, aged three years, by Davis. She pleaded not guilty when first brought up but to-day changed her pleas to one of "guilty." The clemency of the court was invoked, and owing to the babe at her breast, the guilty woman, who with her paramour, so shocked the sensibilities of a decent country community, received the slightest sentence allowed by the law. Judge Irvine warned her to mend her ways, and told her that the light sentence was given her on account of her child.

She will pay $10 and costs and be confined in the county jail for five days."

The listings of Margaret Wilson as having left her husband and living in adultery with William Davis indicates that her first husband John Wilson was still living in 1887.

The Wright Family Tree, compiled by KJiler1, also listed the following news article dated April 12, 1887, from The Newark Advocate, Newark, Ohio, regarding the capture of Bill Davis for fornication:

"Captured.

Bill Davis, a Grand Jury Indictee, in Custody.

Deputy Sheriffs Crilly and Horton Do Some Night-Owl Detective Work with Good Success.

Bill Davis, indicted by the Grand Jury at the last term of Common Pleas Court for living in a state of fornication with Margaret Wilson, was last night captured by Deputy Sheriffs Crilly and Horton at his home in Eden township.

Mrs. Wilson, it will be remembered, was indicted by the Grand Jury for adultery and Davis for fornication. The pair had been living together illegally for some time to the scandal of the community in which they resided. The Grand Jury closed its session on Saturday, February 19, and on Sunday, the 20th, the guilty pair were by some means informed of their indictment.

When the officers went to arrest them they were gone.

Mrs. Wilson was captured at Frazeysburg, brought to trial and given a sentence in jail.

Davis, up to the present time had successfully eluded the officers sent to arrest him.

Three times deputies called at his home, but Davis was gone on each occasion.

His friends had given him timely warning.

The people of Eden township censured the officers for their inability to get the man, but showed no great disposition to aid them.

Yesterday the deputies, Messrs. Crilly and Horton, left the city late in the evening, and going by a round-about way, came to the Davis place at midnight.

Davis was in, and in person answered Sheriff Crilly's knock.

He had talked frequently of shooting the officers sent to arrest him, but when he saw Deputy Crilly, he trembled like a leaf. He was arrested and chained to Deputy Horton and peaceably brought to jail in this city.

Davis and Mrs. Wilson had two children born to them, and it was on their account that her jail sentence was so light.

The capture of Davis was a good piece of work by the officers and fully demonstrates their efficiency and courage.

Davis was this afternoon taken before the Probate Court and admitted to bail by Judge Allen. James Davis and Charles Donaldson went his security."

The death record of a John Wilson was dated on February 9, 1889, in Licking County, Ohio:

The Wright Family Tree, compiled by KJiler1 and available from Ancestry.com, listed the following news article dated August 5, 1889, from The Newark Advocate, Newark, Ohio, regarding the divorce of Samuel Davis and Clara Davis:

"Suit For Divorce,
After Twenty-Seven Years of Married Life,
On the Grounds of Habitual Drunkenness, Extreme Cruelty and Adultery.

Mrs. Clara Davis has commenced suit in the Common Pleas court against her husband, Samuel Davis, for divorce. The plaintiff makes the usual allegations of residence and says she has been a faithful wife to the defendant. She further says that she was married to the defendant on or about the 14th day of June, 1862, in this county. Now, after twenty-seven years of married life the plaintiff asks that the union may be dissolved.

The plaintiff alleges as her first cause of action that the said defendant for more than three years last past has been guilty of habitual drunkenness. The plaintiff also alleges that during nearly all the time of their said marriage, the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty toward the plaintiff, in that he would beat her and drive her out of the house and compel her to remain out all night, and often without cause call her hard and reproachful names, and these acts of cruelty were of frequent occurrence, the times and dates thereof the plaintiff is unable to state, because she never kept any account thereof.

Plaintiff also alleges that on the 12th day of November, 1888, the defendant wholly abandoned plaintiff, and has ever since wholly refused to contribute anything to the support of plaintiff and her family, and has ever since that time been living an adulterous life with one Belle Hudspeth, a married woman of said county. That during the married life of plaintiff and defendant, there were born to them six children, three of whom are still minors and live with plaintiff, to-wit: Cora May Davis, aged 17 years, Hattie Davis, aged 14 years and Grace Davis, aged 7 years, and that are dependent upon plaintiff for their support.

That the defendant is now, as plaintiff is informed and believes, owner of an interest in a threshing machine, and is now earning wages and profits at work with the same at the rate of $1.25 per day. That he has no other property to the knowledge of plaintiff.

Plaintiff therefore prays the court that she may be divorced from the said defendant, that she may be decreed the custody of the said children, and that she may have such alimony decreed to her as the court may deem reasonable, and that pending this action the defendant may be compelled to pay her such alimony as the court may direct. Swartz and Allen, attorneys for plaintiff."

As set forth below, Samuel Davis was the third husband of Margaret Ellen (Wright) (Wilson) (Davis) Davis.

On June 22, 1893, at Licking County, Ohio, Application Book 4/265, Margaret E. Davis filed her Application For Letters Of Administration for the estate of William Davis and listed his death on June 8, 1893:

"Application For Letters Of Administration

The Wright Family Tree, compiled by KJiler1 and available from Ancestry.com, listed the following news article dated July 3, 1895, from The Newark Advocate, Newark, Ohio, regarding the divorce of Samuel Davis and Margaret E. Davis:

"Wants A Divorce

From a Husband Who Made it a Practice to Assault and Beat Her.

Margaret E. Davis, through her attorney Clark D. Barrows, has commenced suit in the Common Pleas Court against her husband, Samuel Davis, for divorce. In her petition the plaintiff alleges that she has been for more than the year last past, and is at present, a resident of Licking county, O. That on or about the 24th day of December, 1893, she was married to the defendant, and has ever since conducted herself towards him as a faithful and obedient wife. Plaintiff also alleges that there has been born of said marriage one child, Maggie Davis, aged six months; that upon the 5th day of July, 1893, at the home of plaintiff and defendant in Mary Ann township, Licking county, O., defendant disregarding his marital duties toward plaintiff, committed an assault on the plaintiff and struck, beat, kicked and otherwise ill-treated her; that about the first day of September, 1893, at the home of the plaintiff and defendant, the defendant again assaulted her; as he also did on the 3rd day of November, 1893. She asks for divorce and custody of the child."

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of M. E. Davis in Smith Chapel Cemetery, Newark, Licking County, Ohio, and her death on May 18, 1899:

This record lists the children of Margaret Ellen (Wright) (Wilson) (Davis) Davis following her death in 1899. However, the year of birth of Gertie Davis in 1886 leaves uncertain whether she was the daughter of William Davis, who married Margaret Ellen only in 1888.

The marriage record of William Wilson and Iva B. Divan dated on August 23, 1902, in Coshocton County, Ohio, listed his parents as John Wilson and Ellen Wright and his birth on March 7, 1875, in Muskingum County, Ohio.

The marriage record of Maggie Davis and Thomas Retherford dated on August 14, 1911, in Licking County, Ohio, listed her parents as Samuel Davis and Ella Wright and her birth on December 27, 1893, in St. Louisville, Licking County, Ohio.

The marriage record of Alice Gertrude Davis and Aldo Guy Harris dated on July 5 or 6, 1904, in Licking County, Ohio, listed her parents as William Davis and Ella Wright and her birth on June 24, 1886, in Blandensburg, Knox County, Ohio.

The marriage record of Edward R. Davis and Jane Frost dated on January 9, 1912, in Licking County, Ohio, listed his parents as William Davis and Margaret E. Wright and his birth on January 19, 1882, in Licking County, Ohio.

The death record of William Wilson dated on December 19, 1944, in Newark, Licking County, Ohio, listed his parents as John Wilson and Ellen Wright and his birth on March 7, 1874, in Frazeyburg, Muskingum County, Ohio.

The obituary of Alice G. Toothman dated on June 14, 1968, in The Newark Advocate, Newark, Ohio, listed her parents as William Davis and Ella Wright Davis and her birth on June 24, 1886, in Rocky Fork area, Licking County, Ohio.

In her email dated October 2, 2002, Rachell Lindley enclosed a family summary which stated that Margaret Ellen Wright was a daughter of 1895 John Wright of Licking County, Ohio, and Mary Ann (Cessna) Wright, was born in 1855, married first Samuel Benton Davis, and married second William Wilson and that Margaret Ellen (Wright)

Davis and Samuel Benton Davis had the following child:

1) Maggie (Davis) Rutherford.

(K) Sarah Matilda (Wright) Davis, Her Husband Benton Davis, And Her
Descendants

Sarah Matilda(Wright) Davis was a daughter of 1895 John Wright of Licking County, Ohio, and Mary (Cessna) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1835 Edward⁵, 1895 John⁶)

The 1860 Census for Licking County, Ohio, listed Sarah Wright in the John Wright household on June 30, 1860, and her age as 3 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1857.

The 1870 Census for Licking County, Ohio, listed Sarah Wright in the John Wright household on June 18, 1870, and her age as 13 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1857.

The 1880 Census for Licking County, Ohio, listed Sarah Wright in the John Wright household on June 4, 1880, her relationship as daughter, and her age as 21 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1859.

The 1880 Census for Licking County, Ohio, listed Benton Davis in the Tillbury Davis household on June 14, 1880, his relationship as son, his age as 18 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1862, and his occupation as works on farm.

The marriage record of Sarah Wright and Bent Davis was dated on August 18, 1883, in Licking County, Ohio:

Wright And Eva Catharine (Neldon) (Shrout)
Wright, And His Descendants

1885 Joseph Wright of Greene County, Indiana, was probably a son of 1835 Edward Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Elizabeth (Kay) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1835 Edward⁵)

The 1820 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Edward Wright with four sons aged 0 to 10. The dates of birth of William Wright in 1812, Lloyd Wright in 1814, and John Wright in 1816 set forth above indicate that they were three of those four sons. In addition, one daughter was born in about 1810. These dates of birth indicate a date of birth for this fourth son of between 1816 and 1820.

The 1830 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Edward Wright with two sons aged 15 to 20, two sons aged 10 to 15, two sons aged 5 to 10, and two sons aged 0 to 5.

The 1840 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Elizabeth Wright with one son age 20 to 30, 1 son aged 15 to 20, one son aged 10 to 15, and one son aged 5 to 10.

These three census records taken together indicate a date of birth for this son of between 1816 and 1820.

The marriage license of Joseph Wright and Esther Casteel was dated on March 3, 1846, in Coshocton County, Ohio:

"Marriage License for 1846.

Date	March 3d
Males	Joseph Wright
Females	Esther Casteel
No	1838
Price	.75"

The marriage record of Joseph Wright and Esther Casteel was dated on March 5, 1846, in Coshocton County, Ohio:

"Marriage Record, 1846.

No. 3493 2389
Joseph Wright and Esther Casteel

The State of Ohio, Coshocton county, ss.

I hereby certify, that on the 5th day of March eighteen hundred and 46 I joined together in marriage Joseph Wright and Esther Casteel

Charles Wright J.P."

The Charles Wright who performed the marriage was probably 1873 Charles Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, the son of 1834 William Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and brother of 1835 Edward Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio. Solemnization of his marriage by a cousin would seem appropriate and is additional circumstantial evidence that this Joseph Wright was a son of 1835 Edward Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio.

Marriages, Coshocton County, Ohio, 1811-1930, by Miriam C. Hunter, also listed the marriage of Joseph Wright and Esther Casteel on March 5, 1846, in Coshocton County, Ohio.

The 1850 Census for Licking County, Ohio, listed Joseph Wright with the following household on August 23, 1850:

Name	Age	Sex	Color	Occupation	Value of Real Estate

This record indicates that Joseph Wright was born in about 1818 and that Esther (Casteel) Wright was born in about 1828. The presence of Alexander Wright, a probable son of 1835 Edward Wright, in this household indicates that this Joseph Wright was also a son of 1835 Edward Wright.

The 1850 Census for Greene County, Indiana, listed Eve K. Neldon in the Frederick Neldon household on September 19, 1850, and her age as 15 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1835. As set forth below, Eva Catharine (Neldon) (Shrout) was the second wife of Joseph Wright.

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Esther Casteel Wright in Fallsburg Cemetery, Fallsburg, Licking County, Ohio, and her death in 1855:

"Esther Casteel Wright

The listing of Joseph Wright's age as 4 is clearly a scrivener's error. The absence of Esther (Casteel) Wright from the household indicates that she had died before August 8, 1860.

Indiana Marriages, 1811-2019, available from FamilySearch.org, listed the marriage of Joseph Wright and E. V. Catharine Shrout on March 12, 1867, in Indiana:

The death record of Jane Mays Bullock dated on October 6, 1945, in Bloomfield, Greene County, Indiana, listed her parents as Joseph Wright and Esther Castile and her birth on February 12, 1851, in Licking County, Ohio.

The death record of George Washington Wright dated on June 13, 1952, in Sullivan, Sullivan County, Indiana, listed his parents as Joseph Wright and Kathryn Neldon and his birth on June 7, 1871, in Indiana.

The death record of Grant Wright dated on July 3 or 9, 1952, in Linton, Greene County, Indiana, listed his parents as Joseph Wright and Martha Unknown and his birth on June 30, 1853, in Indiana.

In his GenForum Posting dated February 13, 2004, Jerry Jacobs stated that Joseph Wright was born in about 1818 in Ohio, married first Esther Casteel on March 5, 1846, in Coshocton County, Ohio, resided in 1850 and 1860 in Licking County, Ohio, married second Eva Catherine (____) Shrout on March 12, 1867, in Greene County, Indiana, resided in 1870 and 1880 in Greene County, Indiana, and died after June 1880, that Eva Catherine (____) (Shrout) Wright was born in about 1834 in Ohio, and that Joseph Wright and Esther (Casteel) Wright had the following children:

- 1) Mary Wright, born in October 1849, in Ohio,
- 2) Eliza Jane (Wright) (Mays) (Martindale) Bullock, born on February 10, 1851, in Ohio, and that Joseph Wright and Eva Catherine (____) (Shrout) Wright had the following children:

- 1) Ulysses G. Wright, born in June 1869 in Indiana, and
- 2) George W. Wright, born in June 1871 in Indiana.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1885 Joseph Wright and Esther (Castell) Wright were the following:

- 1) Mary Ellen (Wright) Meek, born in Oct 1849 or on November 11, 1849, or in about 1850 or 1851 in Fallsburg, Licking County, Ohio, and

2) Eliza Jane (Wright) (Mays) (Martindale) Bullock, born on February 10, 1851, or in about 1852 in Licking County, Ohio, and the children of 1885 Joseph Wright and Eva Catherine (Neldon) (Shrout) Wright were the following:

1) Ulysses Grant Wright, born on June 30, 1868, or in June 1869 or in about 1870 or 1871 in Indiana, and

2) George W. Wright, born on June 7, 1871, or in about 1872 @ Greene County, Indiana.

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for William Henry Meek dated July 13, 1911, in The Andarko Tribune, Andarko, Oklahoma:

"William Henry Meek was born at Tallsburg, Ohio, Sept. 25, 1846, and died July 6, 1911, aged 64 years, 9 months and 11 days. He was married to Mary Wright of Owensburg, Ind., April 12, 1866. To this union were born eight children, seven sons and one daughter, of which five sons survive him, namely: Melvin Meek, Canton, Ill; Joseph Meek, Shenandoah, Iowa; David Meek, Clay Center, Kas; Mitchell and Martin Meek, both of Fort Cobb, Okla. The children were all with their father in his last illness but one son Melvin who was not able to be present. His sister, Mrs. Grant Thornton, his grandson Jesse Meek both of Clay Center, Kas., and his niece, Miss Ethel Mays, of Andarko, Okla., were also present to administer to him in his last hours.

The deceased united with the Christian church in the month of February 1867. He was a Union soldier, being a member of the G. A. R. He came with his family from Indiana to Kansas in 1883 and later came to Oklahoma, making his home at Fort Cobb, where he spent the last years of his life. Among his friends and neighbors he was recognized as an upright, honorable and consiencious man, who was ever ready to lend a helping hand and always in sympathy with those afflicted on in need of a friend.

In this death the wife loses a kind, loving and attentive husband and the sons a loving father. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Tomas at the Highland Church at four o'clock on Thursday afternoon, after which the remains were taken to the Ellis Cemetery for interment.

The family circle is broken - one seat is forsaken,
One bud from the tree of our friendship is shaken,
One heart from among us no longer shall thrill -
With the spirit of gladness, or darken with ill.

A Friend"

Findagrave.com listed the following obituary for John R. Bullock, no date or newspaper listed:

"John R BULLOCK, son of David and Nancy BULLOCK, was born December 24, 1846; died September 14, 1923; aged, seventy-six years, nine months and twenty days. He was born in Greene County, Indiana, near Solsberry, and grew to manhood on the farm, attending the public schools as he grew up. When he was a young man of seventeen, the great Civil War was on and the nation was in a struggle for its life, and he came forward and laid his life upon the alter of his country and helped to save the union. After the war he was married to Maria CAIN, in 1867. To them were born four children, all girls. One died in infancy, and the other three survived. They are Mrs. N. HEDDEN, of Worthington, Mr. L. C. TATE, of Bloomfield; and Mrs. Andrew J. COMBS, also of Worthington. The wife of his youth and mother of the children died February 11, 1911. Later in life he was married to Mrs. Jane MARTINDALE, who survives him.

He leaves a wife, two brothers, Hershell and J. B. BULLOCK, and one sister, Mrs. Ida COLLINS. He also leaves five grandchildren. In his youth he became interested in a Methodist revival but never claimed membership in any church. He was an enthusiastic member of the Masonic Fraternity for many years. He was also an enthusiastic pension attorney and assisted many of his comrades in getting their pensions. In his last year his eyesight failed him, and he died of apoplexy in the hospital where he had gone to take treatment for his eyes.

Funeral services were held in Mr. KIDD'S undertaking chapel in Bloomfield on Saturday, September 15th, at 10:00 a.m. T. A. COX officiating.

The body was then conveyed to Solsberry, and laid to rest in the family burying ground. "Thy father shall rise again."

However, no photograph of the gravestone was provided.

In his GenForum Posting dated February 13, 2004, Jerry Jacobs stated that George W. Wright was a son of Joseph Wright and Eva Catherine (____) (Shrout) Wright, was born in June 1871 in Indiana, and married Francis E. Gee on November 28, 1896, in Greene County, Indiana.

(VIII) _____ Wright

_____ Wright was a daughter of 1835 Edward Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Elizabeth (Kay) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1835 Edward⁵)

The 1820 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Edward Wright with one daughter aged 10 to 16 and one daughter aged 0 to 10, the latter of whose dated of birth has been estimated above in about 1810.

The 1830 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Edward Wright with one daughter aged 20 to 30, who would be the daughter born in about 1810, one daughter aged 10 to 15, and one daughter aged 0 to 5. As will be set forth below, the daughter aged 0 to 5 would be Mary Wright who was born in about 1828. By a process of elimination, this daughter would be born between 1816 and 1820.

(IX) Probably 1902 Lewis Wright Of Andrew
County, Missouri, His Wife Martha (Shunk)
Wright, And His Descendants

1902 Lewis Wright of Andrew County, Missouri, was probably a son of 1835 Edward Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Elizabeth (Kay) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1835 Edward⁵)

The 1820 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Edward Wright with four sons aged 0 to 10. The dates of birth of William Wright in 1812, Lloyd Wright in 1814, and John Wright in 1816 set forth above indicate that they were three of those four sons. In addition, one daughter was born in about 1810. These dates of birth indicate a date of birth for this fourth son between 1816 and 1820.

The 1830 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Edward Wright with two sons aged 15 to 20, two sons aged 10 to 15, two sons aged 5 to 10, and two sons aged 0 to 5.

The 1840 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Elizabeth Wright with one son age 20 to 30, 1 son aged 15 to 20, one son aged 10 to 15, and one son aged 5 to 10.

These three census records taken together indicate a date of birth for this son of about 1820.

The marriage record of Lewis Wright and Martha Shunk has not as yet been found.

Missouri Land Patents, 1831-1969, listed the purchase on July 1, 1850, by Lewis Wright of 80 acres of land in Andrew County, Missouri:

In his email dated February 7, 2008, Michael H. Thorne enclosed a transcription of the diary of Margaret (Harris) Hart which included the following entry dated October 25, 1877:

"these dark rainy days often disappoint us in our present arrangements yet they bring for us future gains we need the fall rains Enoch has gone to visit uncle Ed"

Michael H. Thorne noted that Enoch Wright was a son of Lewis Wright and the reference to Ed Wright identifies Edmund Wright as Enoch's uncle and thus Lewis Wright's brother.

The 1880 Census for Andrew County, Missouri, listed Lewis Wright with the following household on June 10, 1880:

This record indicates that Lewis Wright was born in March 1821 and Martha (Shunk) Wright was born September 1828 and that they were married in about 1846.

Findagrave.com listed the following obituary for Lewis Wright and Martha (Shunk) Wright dated March 28, 1902, from the Savannah Democrat copying from the Fillmore Lever:

"Lewis Wright died at his home south of town, Saturday, at the advanced age of 80 years, 11 months and 16 days. On the following day the old wife also departed to join her husband in the great beyond. Her age was 72 years, 5 months and 21 days.

Lewis Wright was born in Coshocton county, Ohio, March 29, 1821.

Mrs. Wright, who was Miss Martha Shunk, was born in Licking county, Ohio, September 25, 1829.

Funeral services were held at the family residence by Jas. M. Walker, and the remains of husband and wife were laid to rest in one grave in the Fillmore cemetery, Monday, March 17.

A large concourse of sorrowing friends followed the remains to their resting place."

Findagrave.com listed the joint gravestone of Lewis Wright and Martha Wright in the Fillmore Cemetery, Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri, and their respective deaths on March 15 and March 16, 1902:

"Lewis Wright
Died Mar. 15, 1902,
Aged 80 Y. 11 M. 16 D.
Martha
Wife of
Lewis Wright
Died Mar. 16, 1902,
Aged 72 Y. 6 M. 21 D."

This record indicates that Lewis Wright was born on March 30, 1821, and that Martha (Shunk) Wright was born on August 26, 1829.

In his emails dated July 12, 2002, and January 30, 2008, Michael H. Thorne enclosed a family report which stated that Lewis Wright was born on March 29, 1821, in Coshocton County, Ohio, married Martha Shunk in about 1846, died on March 15, 1902, in Andrew County, Missouri, and was buried in Fillmore Cemetery, Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri, that Martha (Shunk) Wright was born on September 25, 1829, in Newark, Licking County, Ohio, died on March 16, 1902, in Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri, and was buried in Fillmore Cemetery, Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri, and that Lewis Wright and Martha (Shunk) Wright had the following children:

- 1) Enoch Wright, born on September 21, 1847, in Ohio,
- 2) Alexander Wright, born on December 1, 1849, in Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri,
- 3) Jane (Wright) Halfhill, born in March 1852 in Andrew County, Missouri,
- 4) Benjamin Wright, born in 1856 in Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri,
- 5) Price L. Wright, born in 1858 in Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri,
- 6) Isaac M. Wright, born on May 23, 1862, in Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri,
- 7) John Lewis Wright, born on May 23, 1862, in Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri,

- 9) Luke Wright, born on February 10, 1864, in Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri,
- 10) Martin Howard Wright, born on April 12, 1866, in Andrew County, Missouri, and
- 11) Mary Emma (Wright) (Barrett) Lovett, born in 1872 in Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1902 Lewis Wright and Martha (Shrunk) Wright were the following:

- 1) Enoch Wright, born on September 21, 1847, or in about 1848 in Ohio,
- 2) Alexander Wright, born on December 1, 1849, in Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri,
- 3) Jane (Wright) Halfhill, born on March 18, 1852, near Fillmore, Andrew

County, Missouri,

4) Benjamin Wright, born on May 8, 1856 or in about 1857 in Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri,

5) Price L. Wright, born in about 1858 in Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri,

6) Isaac McClellen Wright, born on May 23, 1862, in Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri,

7) John Lewis Wright, born on May 23, 1862, or in about 1863 or 1864 in Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri,

8) Sarah Elizabeth (Wright) Hart, born on May 23, 1862, or in about 1863 in Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri,

9) Lucas "Luke" Wright, born on February 10, 1864, or in February 1865 in Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri,

10) Martin Howard Wright, born on April 12, 1866, or in about 1867 in Andrew County, Missouri, and

11) Mary Emma (Wright) (Barrett) Lovett, born in about 1871 or 1872 or in September 1877 in Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri.

(A) 1930 Enoch Wright Of Andrew County, Missouri, His Wife Emily Ann "Emma"
(Hart) Wright, And His Descendants

1930 Enoch Wright of Andrew County, Missouri, was a son of 1902 Lewis Wright of Andrew County, Missouri, and Martha (Shunk) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1835 Edward⁵, 1902 Lewis⁶)

The 1850 Census for Andrew County, Missouri, listed Enoch Wright in the Lewis Wright household on November 30, 1850, and his age as 3 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1847.

The 1860 Census for Andrew County, Missouri, listed Enoch Wright in the Lewis Wright household on June 27, 1860, and his age as 13 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1847.

The marriage record of Enoch Wright and Emily A. Hart was dated on March 13, 1870, in Andrew County, Missouri:

"State of Missouri)

This record indicates that Enoch Wright was born in about 1848 and that Emily Ann (Hart) Wright was born in about 1854. Although the record indicates that they were born in March 1870, it seems clear that the information was placed in the wrong column and that they were married in March 1870.

In his email dated February 7, 2008, Michael H. Thorne enclosed a transcription of the diary of Margaret (Harris) Hart which included the following entry dated October 25, 1877:

"these dark rainy days often disappoint us in our present arrangements yet they bring for us future gains we need the fall rains Enoch has gone to visit uncle Ed"

Michael H. Thorne noted that Enoch Wright was a son of Lewis Wright and the reference to Ed Wright identifies Edmund Wright as Enoch's uncle and thus Lewis Wright's brother.

This record indicates that Enoch Wright was born in about 1848 and that Emily Ann (Hart) Wright was born in about 1855.

Findagrave.com listed the joint gravestone of Emily Wright and Enoch Wright in Fillmore Cemetery, Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri, and her death in 1925:

"Wright

Emily
1854 - 1925

The 1930 Census for Andrew County, Missouri, listed Enoch Wright in the Samuel E. Landers household on April 24, 1930, his relationship as father in law, and his age as 82 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1848.

As set forth above, Findagrave.com listed the joint gravestone of Enoch Wright and Emily Wright in Fillmore Cemetery, Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri, and his death in 1930.

In his emails dated July 12, 2002, and January 30, 2008, Michael H. Thorne enclosed a family report which stated that Enoch Wright was a son of Lewis Wright and Martha (Shunk) Wright, was born on September 21, 1847, in Ohio, married Emily Ann "Emma" Hart on March 13, 1870, in Andrew County, Missouri, died on September 10, 1930, in Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri, and was buried in Fillmore Cemetery, Andrew County, Missouri, that Emily Ann "Emma" (Hart) Wright was born on November 25, 1854, in Andrew County, Missouri, died on January 18, 1925, in Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri, and was buried in Fillmore Cemetery, Andrew County, Missouri, and that Enoch Wright and Emily Ann (Hart) Wright had the following children:

- 1) Emery A. Wright, born on March 25, 1871, in Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri,
- 2) Maggie May Wright, born on December 2, 1872, in Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri,
- 3) Lewis Harrison Wright, born on November 15, 1874, in Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri,
- 4) Perry Elwood Wright, born on November 4, 1877, in Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri,
- 5) James Edgar Wright, born on February 18, 1881, in Missouri,
- 6) Bertha (Wright) Landess, born on July 19, 1883, in Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri,
- 7) Annie Dale B. Wright, born on April 11, 1893, in Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri, and
- 8) Lulu J. (Wright) House, born on May 25, 1898, in Andrew County, Missouri.

(B) Alexander Wright

Alexander Wright was a son of 1902 Lewis Wright of Andrew County, Missouri, and Martha (Shunk) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1835 Edward⁵, 1902 Lewis⁶)

The 1850 Census for Andrew County, Missouri, listed Alexander Wright in the Lewis Wright household on November 30, 1850, and his age as 6/12 and born in Missouri, indicating a date of birth in about December 1849 or May 1850.

The 1860 Census for Andrew County, Missouri, did not list an Alexander Wright in the Lewis Wright household, indicating that he had probably died before June 1, 1860.

Missouri, Death Records, 1834-1910, available from Ancestry.com, listed the interment of an Alexander Wright on January 6, 1851, in Wesleyan Cemetery, St. Louis, Missouri, and his age as 8 days. This record did not list the names of the parents of this Alexander Wright and his indicated age is inconsistent with the 1850 Census record.

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Alexander Wright in Wesleyan Cemetery, St. Louis, Missouri, his death on December 23, 1850, in St. Louis, Missouri, his parents as Lewis Wright and Martha (Shunk) Wright, and his birth on December 1, 1849, but no photograph of the gravestone was provided. The result is that it is unclear how this identification was made and further research will be required to confirm or deny the identification of this Alexander Wright as the son of Lewis Wright and Martha (Shunk) Wright.

In his emails dated July 12, 2002, and January 30, 2008, Michael H. Thorne enclosed a family report which stated that Alexander Wright was a son of Lewis Wright and Martha (Shunk) Wright, was born on December 1, 1849, in Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri, and died before 1860 in Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri.

(C) Jane (Wright) Halfhill, Her Husband

Elmer D. Halfhill, And Her Descendants

Jane (Wright) Halfhill was a daughter of 1902 Lewis Wright of Andrew County, Missouri, and Martha (Shunk) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1835 Edward⁵, 1902 Lewis⁶)

The 1860 Census for Andrew County, Missouri, listed Jane Wright in the Lewis

Wright household on June 27, 1860, and her age as 8 and born in Missouri, indicating a date of birth in about 1852.

The 1870 Census for Andrew County, Missouri, listed Jane Wright in the Lewis Wright household on June 18, 1870, and her age as 18 and born in Missouri, indicating a date of birth in about 1852.

The marriage record of Jane Wright and Elmer Halfhill was dated on February 17, 1887, in Andrew County, Missouri:

"Marriage License.
State Of Missouri, County Of Andrew.

This License Authorizes any Judge, Justice of the Peace, Licensed or Ordained Preacher of the Gospel, or any other person authorized under the Laws of this State, to Solemnize Marriage Between Elmer Halfhill of the County of Andrew and State of Missouri, who is over the age of twenty-one years; and Jane Wright of ____ in the County of Andrew and State of Missouri, who is over the age of eighteen years.

Ages are sworn to by Elmer Halfhill

This record indicates that Jane (Wright) Halfhill was born in about 1852 and that Elmer D. Halfhill was born in about 1854.

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary of Jane (Wright) Halfhill dated on January 26, 1917, in The Democrat, Savannah, Missouri, which listed her death on January 22, 1917:

"Obituary - Wright.

Jane Wright, daughter of Lewis and Martha Wright, was born near Fillmore, Missouri, March 18, 1852. On February 18, 1887, she was married to Elmer D. Halfhill. To this union one daughter was born, Emma, now the wife of Chas. Flint, of Amazonia. At the age of 18 years she obeyed the Gospel of Christ, under the ministry of Elder Wm. Trapp, at Stone church, near her home. She was a faithful and devoted wife, a loving mother and an excellent neighbor. Some ten years ago she was attacked with rheumatism, since which time she has been an invalid, for the last five years almost helpless, suffering constantly, but strange as it may seem, not a murmur was ever heard from her lips. On January 22, with scarcely any warning, death came to relieve her. She is survived by her husband, the one daughter, two granddaughters, Lulu and Alice Flint, six brothers, and two sisters. The brothers are: Luke and Isaac Wright, of Fillmore; John, of Washington; Benjamin, of Kansas; Martin H., of Forest City, Mo., and Enoch, of Colorado. At one o'clock January 23, a number of relatives and friends met at the home 2 miles west of Rosendale when Elder W. A. Chapman, of Rosendale, preached a discourse, and the body was laid to rest in Bennet Lane cemetery."

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Jane Halfhill in Bennett Lane Cemetery, Savannah, Andrew County, Missouri:

Pat_s tree 8_27_19-1, available from Ancestry.com, listed the following obituary for Elmor D. Halfhill dated on November 8, 1928, in the Troy Chief paper:

"Halfhill.

Elmor D. Halfhill son of Thomas and Elizabeth Halfhill departed this life, November 6, 1928.

He was born January 18, 1854 at the time of his death he was 74 years, 9 months and 19 days. He was married to Jane Wright February 17, 1887. To this union one daughter was born Emma, now the wife of Chas. Flint of Troy. He is also survived by a twin brother Elza Halfhill of Graham, Mo.; five grandchildren Lula, Alice, Cora, Iva, Everett Flint; other relatives and host of friends. Death came very unexpected to the family and friends.

He was a member of the Christian church of Rosendale Mo. Funeral services were held at the family home, four miles north of Blair. The body will be layed to rest in the Bennett Lane cemetery in Missouri.

In his email dated January 30, 2008, Michael H. Thorne enclosed the following obituary of Isaac M. Wright, no date or newspaper indicated:

"Savannah, Mo, Feb. 19 - (special) - Isaac M. Wright, an Andrew County farmer, died early this morning at his home, three miles southwest of Fillmore, Mo. Mr. Wright, seventy-six years old, was one of triplets and was the first of the three to die.

His triplet brother and sister are John Wright, Stanaway, Wash., and Mrs. Sarah Hart, Fillmore. The three were born near Fillmore. Mr. Wright is also survived by his wife; two sons, Edward A. and John M. Wright, and a daughter, Mrs. Martha Mink, all of Fillmore; another brother, Luke Wright, Fillmore; another sister, Mrs. May Lovett, Tulsa, Okla., and a grandchild.

The body is at the Terhune mortuary in Savannah. Services will be at the Church of God in Fillmore tomorrow, conducted by the Rev. John Harrington. Burial will be in Fillmore Cemetery."

Findagrave.com listed the joint gravestone of Isaac M. Wright and Pauline Wright in Fillmore Cemetery, Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri:

"Wright
Isaac M.	Pauline
5 23 1862	2 8 1870

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary of Pauline (Yost) Wright dated on March 10, 1950, in the Savannah Reporter and Andrew County Democrat, Savannah, Missouri:

"Mrs. Pauline Wright Dies

Pauline, daughter of John and Verena Yost, was born Feb. 8, 1870, at Wynigen, Switzerland and died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William Mink, south of Doniphan, and Feb. 28, at the age of 80 years and 20 days.

She came with her parents from Switzerland at the age of four years. At an early age she was confirmed into the Reformed Church of Amazonia and in later life was affiliated with the Church of God.

She married Isaac M. Wright in 1894. Mr. Wright preceded her in death in 1939. She leaves to mourn, three children; Mrs. William Mink, Doniphan; Ed Wright and John Wright, Fillmore, and one grandchild. Four brothers and sisters; Mrs. Arnold Arn, Mr. Charles Yost, Mrs. Martha Ueligger, all of Savannah, and Emma Schopfer, LeMay.

Funeral Services were held Saturday at the Fillmore Church of God, Fillmore. Interment was at the Fillmore cemetery.

Clergymen Officiating were Rev. Harold William of Doniphan and Rev. C. W. Baker of Fillmore. Mrs. Mary Durham played for Miss Shirley Durham and Louella Messick.

Pallbearers were six nephews; Lloyd Ueligger, Arnold Ueligger, Fred Ueligger, Earl Arn, Ernest Arn and Walter Arn.

Services were incharge of the Cole Funeral Home of Savannah."

As set forth above, Findagrave.com listed the joint gravestone of Isaac M. Wright and Pauline Wright in Fillmore Cemetery, Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri.

In his emails dated July 12, 2002, and January 30, 2008, Michael H. Thorne enclosed a family report which stated that Isaac M. "Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah Hartt were held Friday afternoon at 2 p.m., at the Fillmore Christian church, conducted by Rev. Frank Runyan of Savannah. burial was in the Fillmore cemetery.

Sarah Elizabeth Wright, daughter of Lewis and Martha Wright, was born May 23, 1862, on a farm five miles south of Fillmore and passed to her reward December 14, 1939. In November, 1881, she was united in marriage to James A. Hartt. to this union were born eight children, two of them passed on in infancy. Those who survive are Amos W., of Fillmore; Mrs. T. E. Thorne, Leonardville, Kas.; Fred E. and Emmet E. of Savannah; also six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Mary Lovett of Tulsa, Okla.; two brothers, John L. Wright, Spanaway, Wash.; Luke Wright of Fillmore. One brother, Isaac, passed away in Washington in February, 1938.

While a young woman, she was converted and became a member of the Fillmore Christian church of which she was a faithful follower.

Her children say of her, 'Our dear mother, as long as health would permit, went about doing good, always thinking of others. We thank our Heavenly Father for having a Christian mother and we know He never gives us greater burdens than He gives us strength to bear. We cannot and will not say that she is dead. She is just away.'"

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Eva Green (Markham) Wright dated on August 18, 1916, in The Democrat, Savannah, Missouri:

"Obituary - Wright

Eva Green Markham was born near Fillmore, March 28th., 1869. She was joined in marriage to Luke Wright, June 19th., 1887. To this union were born six children, Louis, Olin, Rada, Raymond, Minnie and Goldie, all of whom are living.

She obeyed the Gospel of Christ and united with the Christian church at Fillmore, at the age of 17 years, and has been a faithful follower of her Savior ever since. For several years she has been in poor health, and at 1 o'clock p. m., August 10th., 1916, she passed away in death at her home three miles south of Fillmore, aged 47 years, 4 months and 26 days. Besides her husband and children she is survived by her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Markham, of Fillmore, two brothers and two sisters, and a large number of other relatives and friends. She was a devoted wife and fond mother. AT 2 o'clock August 11th., the friends and neighbors gathered at the home and Elder W. A. Chapman, preached a funeral discourse and the body was laid to rest in Fillmore cemetery."

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Martin Howard Wright dated on February 7, 1930, in the Savannah Report and Andrew County Democrat, Savannah, Missouri, and his death on January 24, 1930:

"M. H. Wright Buried At Akron Sunday.

Many friends gathered Sunday at the Presbyterian Church to pay their last respects to M. H. Wright, who passed away last Thursday at the Good Samaritan Sanitarium in Denver. Rev. J. E. Harris gave comforting thoughts to the bereaved family. A quartet composed of Mrs. B. C. Reese, Mrs. J. R. Spicknall, R. A. Elmondson and Otto J. Hoyt sang "Sweet Bye and Bye," "Shall We Gather at the River" and "Asleep in Jesus." The pallbearers were John Resler, T. A. Roach, Roy Liston, F. H. Guida, Chris Yackle and James Whited. Burial was made in the Akron cemetery with Hamer Shaw in charge.

Martin Howard Wright, son of Lewis and Martha Wright, was born in Fillmore, Mo., April 12, 1866, and departed this life January 24, 1930, aged 63 years, 9 months and 12 days.

In 1895 he was united in marriage to Miss Mary Miller and they moved to Oregon, Mo., remaining there until 1917 when they came to Akron, where they resided at the time of his death. To this union were born nine children, three sons, one of whom preceded him in death, Alva of Akron, Dennis of Salt Lake City, Utah, and six daughters, Mrs. Myrtle Auld of Tacoma, Wash., Mrs. Blanche Burrier of North Platte, Neb., Miss Fannie of Denver and the Misses Marie and Edith of Akron.

Mr. Wright united with the Church of God at Fillmore in 1895 and remained a faithful member throughout life. He had been in failing health for the past five years and was taken to the Colorado hospital in Denver November 24. Later he was removed to the Samaritan Sanitarium. His daughter Miss Fannie was with him during his last illness and at the time of his death which came very suddenly Thursday morning at 1:30 o'clock.

Mr. Wright was a kindly, quiet unassuming man, well liked and respected by all who knew him.

Besides his wife and children, Mr. Wright leaves to mourn his death, five grandchildren, Marilyn and Virginia Wright, Edna and James Whitlock and Barbara Mary Burrier; four brothers, Enoch, Luke and Isaac, all of Fillmore; John of Spanaway, Wash., and two sisters, Sarah Hart of Fillmore and Mary Lovett of Oklahoma City, Okla., and many other relatives and a host of friends.

Sincerest sympathy from their many friends is extended the family in their sad bereavement.

Those from out of town who attended the funeral were: Mrs. Blanche Burrier, Miss Fanny, Miss Marie, who is attending college in Hastings, Neb., and Dennis. Owing to illness, Mrs. Auld and Mrs. Whitlock were unable to be present. - Akron (Colo.) News-Reporter."

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary of Susan Wright dated October 21, 1910, in The Andrew County Republican, Savannah, Missouri:

"Obituary - Mrs. Susan Wright.

After an illness of only six days, Mrs. Susan Wright passed away in death, at the home of her son, Daniel Wright, near Rosendale, October 12, 1910. Her maiden name was Schunk.

She was born in Perry county, Ohio August 4th, 1824, and was therefore aged 86 years, 2 months and 8 days.

In the year 1846 she was married to Edmond Wright, whose joys and sorrows she shared until May 5th., 1878, when he passed away in death. There were seven children born to them, two of whom preceded her to the land beyond. One daughter died February 22nd, 1874, at the age of 25 years, another daughter died the same year, at six years of age. The living children are Isaac and Daniel Wright and Mrs. Susan Walker, all of Andrew county. She came with her husband to this county 62 years ago, and has ever since been a resident of the county.

About 37 years ago she became a Christian, under the ministry of the late Elder Wm. Trapp, at the old Stone Church, south of Fillmore, near which place her home was for many years. In this faith she continued until called home.

Besides her two sons and one daughter, she is survived by sixteen grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

At 10 o'clock a. m., Friday, October 14th, a large number of neighbors and friends assembled at the home and after Elder Chapman had preached an appropriate funeral discourse the aged body was taken to Savannah and laid beside that of the companion of her early life."

1878 Edmund Wright of Andrew County, Missouri, has been confirmed through Y-DNA sequencing as a descendant of 1657 Edward Wright of York County. Cameron Wright is a descendant of 1878 Edmund Wright as follows:

- 1) 1878 Edmund Wright,
- 2) 1934 Daniel Wright of Kansas,
- 3) 1971 Charles Jerry Wright of Missouri,
- 4) 2002 Charles Frederick Wright of North Carolina, and
- 5) Cameron Wright.

Cameron has participated in the Wright DNA Project and his Kit is No. 937050. His results are set forth in the Results Page at <https://www.familytreedna.com/public/Wright?iframe=yresults> and those results confirm that he matches other descendants of 1657 Edward Wright as part of Haplogroup R-M269, Group 15.

In his emails dated July 12, 2002, and January 30, 2008, Michael H. Thorne enclosed a family report which stated that Edmund Wright was born on March 3, 1823, in Ohio, married Susan Shunk, died on May 5, 1878, in Savannah, Andrew County, Ohio, and was buried in Savannah Cemetery, Savannah, Andrew County, Missouri, that Susan (Shunk) Wright was born on August 4, 1824, in Perry County, Ohio, and died on October 12, 1910, in Rosendale, Andrew County, Missouri, and that Edmund Wright and Susan (Shunk) Wright had the following children:

- 1) Isaac Wright, born on June 30, 1847, in Ohio,
- 2) Mary Wright, born on January 5, 1850, in Missouri,
- 3) Susan (Wright) Walker, born on June 23, 1855, in Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri,
- 4) Daniel Wright, born in April 1861 in Missouri,
- 5) Theresa or Thursa Wright, born on October 21, 1867, in Andrew County, Missouri, and
- 6) _____ Wright, born in 1868 in Andrew County, Missouri.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1878 Edmund Wright and Susan (Shunk) Wright were the following:

- 1) Isaac V. Wright, born on June 30, 1847, or in about 1848 in Ohio,
- 2) Mary Wright, born in about 1848 or on January 15, 1849, in Missouri,
- 3) Susan (Wright) Walker, born on June 23, 1855, or in about 1856 near Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri,
- 4) Daniel Wright, born on April 24, 1861, or in about 1862 in Missouri,
- 5) Theresa or Thursa Wright, born on October 21, 1867, or on March 30, 1868, in Andrew County, Missouri,

Kenneth Stenning posted at MyFamily.com the following obituary for Isaac Wright, no date or newspaper indicated:

"Isaac Wright, Respected Pioneer Passes Beyon

Isaac Wright, son of Edmund and Susan Wright, was born June 30, 1847, in Ohio, and passed from this world May 15, 1927, at his home in Savannah at the age of 79 years, 10 months and 15 days.

He came with his parents to this country when he was yet an infant. His people first settled about eight miles from Savannah and he lived his entire life in Andrew County. He had lived in Savannah about three years.

On December 1, 1873, he was married to Sarah Margaret Hall. To this happy union seven children were born. The oldest of these children died at the age of two years. Of the remaining there are three daughters and three sons. The daughters are Mrs. Elsie Merritt of Rosendale, Mrs. Ella Genter of Olathe, Kans., and Mrs. Sadia Ordnung of Owensmouth, Calif. The sons are Charles E. and Ray I. of St. Joseph and Willis W. of Savannah. All were present at the funeral with the exception of the daughter whose home is in California. However she was able to be with her father for a visit a short time ago, but was not able to return at this time. In addition to Mrs. Wright and these named children he leaves four grandsons and four granddaughters, also one brother Daniel of Beloit, Kans., and one sister Mrs. Susan Walker of near Rosendale.

Mr. Wright was converted and became a member of the Christian Church under the preaching of Rev. Trapp over sixty years ago when he was eighteen years of age. During all the years that have passed he has remained true to his profession. The steadfastness of his Christian influence is evidenced by the fact that his example helped to lead all of his children into the same church of which he was a member.

During his recent illness which lasted about eleven weeks, he was most patient. The burden of the kingdom was on his heart and mind to such an extent that even when he was not aware of what he was saying, he continued talking of getting up and going to church.

Perhaps no man has lived in our midst in so quiet a way, who was ever more beloved for what he really was than was this kindly respected citizen who has so recently gone on.

The funeral service was conducted from the Christian Church in Savannah on Tuesday afternoon, May 17, by his pastor, Rev. Paul Mitchell, who was assisted by Rev. A. J. Carick. Burial was in the Savannah Cemetery."

Findagrave.com listed the joint gravestone of Isaac Wright and Sarah M. Wright in the Savannah Cemetery, Savannah, Andrew County, Missouri:

This record indicates that Sarah Margaret (Hall) Wright was born in about 1857.

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Sarah Margaret (Hall) Wright dated on February 3, 1933, in the Savannah Reporter and Andrew County Democrat, Savannah, Missouri, and her death on January 25, 1933:

"Beloved Pioneer Mother Passes

Sarah Margaret Hall, daughter of Charles and Permelia Hall, was born on the old Hall homestead, six miles west of Savannah, June 28, 1856, and died at her home in Savannah January 25, 1933, at the age of 76 years, 6 months and 27 days. On December 1, 1873, she was married to Isaac Wright, who preceded her in death six years ago. To this union were born seven children, the first having died in infancy. The surviving children are: Charles E. of Avon Park, Florida; Mrs. L. F. Ordnung of Canoga Park, Calif., and neither could be here; those at her bedside were: Mrs. W. A. Genther of Olathe, Kans., Mrs. C. F. Merritt, Willis W., and Roy I. of Andrew county. She also leaves seven grandchildren, three sisters, one brother, many other relatives and a host of friends. She united with the Christian Church at an early age and lived a faithful Christian life.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Christian Church by her pastor, Rev. W. E. Purdy. Burial was in the Savannah cemetery. A quartet composed of Mrs. O. M. Woodard, Miss Mabel Duncan, Ernest Dray and Frank Harrington, sang and Miss Ina Wachtel played the piano."

As set forth above, Findagrave.com listed the joint gravestone of Sarah M. Wright and Isaac Wright in the Savannah Cemetery, Savannah, Andrew County, Missouri.

In his emails dated July 12, 2002, and January 30, 2008, Michael H. Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Joseph Morton Walker dated on January 12, 1913, in the Savannah Reporter, Savannah, Missouri:

"Civil War Veteran And County Pioneer Dies

Joseph Morton Walker, son of James F. and Katherine Walker, was born in Lee county, Virginia, May 22, 1843, and departed this life, after a few days of illness of pneumonia, January 5, 1923, at his home four and one-half miles northwest of Rosendale, at the age of 79 years, 7 months and 23 days. He came to Andrew county, Missouri, with his parents when he was but a child, and this county has been his home ever since.

For three years he served in the Civil War, being a member of Company B Fourth Missouri Voluntary Cavalry. Later he was appointed and commissioned First Lieutenant of K Company, of the 98th Regiment of Missouri militia, by Governor Thomas C. Fletcher. He was an honored, upright and beloved citizen of this county. To his friends and neighbors he was familiarly known as Uncle Joe.

February 16, 1879, he was married to Susan Wright, and to this union were born four children, all of whom, with their mother, survive, and were at his bedside during his illness. The names of the children are: Orey M., Ernest W., Mrs. Laura Lemmon and Mrs. Ethie Roach. Besides the immediate family he is survived by eight grandchildren, a sister, Mrs. Mary E. Lincoln, of Washington, four brothers, Richard W. Walker, William L. Walker, James M. Walker, of Fillmore and A. F. Walker, of St. Joseph, also by his neighbors and many friends who will mourn his departure. He was one of the best of neighbors and a friend to all who knew him. He will be sadly missed by his family and many friends

Funeral services were conducted from the Fillmore Christian church, Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. The address was delivered by Rev. N. O. Rogers, of Savannah. The body was laid to rest in the Fillmore cemetery."

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary of Susan (Wright) Walker dated on September 6, 1935, in the Savannah Reporter And Andrew County Democrat, Savannah, Missouri:

"Mrs. Susan Walker - Biography

Susan Walker, daughter of Edmond and Susan Wright, was born June 23, 1855, near Fillmore and entered into rest at her home northwest of Rosendale on August 30, 1935, at the age of 80 years, 2 months and 7 days. She had been an invalid since June 3 of last year.

On February 1, 1879, she was united in marriage to Joseph M. Walker and to this union four children were born who mourn her passing. They are Orey of Helena, Ernest of Bolckow, Mrs. Laura Lemmon and Mrs. Ethie Roach of Rosendale. Her husband, who passed away January 5, 1923, and two brothers and two sisters have preceded her in death.

She has lived all her life in that community and the many friends she has made during the years will be grieved by her death. She was a beloved mother, a Mary and Martha both, a good neighbor, and has gone to the reward of the good and faithful.

Funeral services were held at the Fillmore Christian Church by Rev. James L. Van Lear on Sunday, September 1, at 2 o'clock, and burial was in the Fillmore cemetery."

In the year 1846 she was married to Edmond Wright, whose joys and sorrows she shared until May 5th., 1878, when he passed away in death. There were seven children born to them, two of whom preceded her to the land beyond. One daughter died February 22nd, 1874, at the age of 25 years, another daughter died the same year, at six years of age. The living children are Isaac and Daniel Wright and Mrs. Susan Walker, all of Andrew county.

In his emails dated July 12, 2002, and January 30, 2008, Michael H. Thorne enclosed a family report which stated that Theresa Wright was a daughter of Edmund Wright and Susan (Shunk) Wright and was born on October 21, 1867, in Andrew County, Missouri, and died on June 9, 1874, in Andrew County, Missouri.

(XI) Wright, Probably 1880 Daniel Marion
Wright Of Clark County, Illinois, His Wives
Mary (Weekly) Wright And Hannah Berrillar
(Hood) (Stephens) (Kentz) Wright, And His Descendants

Wright, probably 1880 Daniel Marion

Wright of Clark County, Illinois, was a son of 1835 Edward Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Elizabeth (Kay) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1835 Edward⁵)

The 1830 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Edward Wright with two sons aged 15 to 20, two sons aged 10 to 15, two sons aged 5 to 10, and two sons aged 0 to 5

The 1840 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Elizabeth Wright with one son aged 20 to 30, one son aged 15 to 20, one son aged 10 to 15, and one son aged 5 to 10.

These two census records, in conjunction with the other identifications set forth above, indicate a date of birth for this son in about 1825.

This son was probably 1880 Daniel Marion Wright of Clark County, Illinois. No direct documentary evidence has as yet been found identifying Daniel Marion Wright as a son of Edward Wright and Elizabeth (Kay) Wright. However, the following circumstantial evidence indicates that this identification is probable.

First, as set forth below, Daniel Marion Clark was born in about 1825 in Ohio.

Second, he resided in Muskingum County, Ohio, Licking County, Ohio, and Clark County, Illinois, a line of residences similar to other descendants of 1805 William Wright of Fauquier County.

Third, his household in 1850 in Muskingum County, Ohio, included an Elizabeth Wright, who was the widow of 1835 Edward Wright.

Fourth, the 1900 Census for Clark County, Illinois, listed Daniel Marion Clark immediately adjacent to Edward F. Clark, a son of Margaret (Wright) Clark who was a probable daughter of Edward Wright and Elizabeth (Kay) Wright.

Fifth, he named one of his sons Edward Wright.

The remainder of this section will discuss the documentation that has been found for 1880 Daniel Marion Wright.

The marriage record of Berriller Hood and her first husband George Stephens was dated in 1844 in Edgar County, Illinois:

"Name	Berriller Hood
Gender	Female

Fiindagrave.com listed the following obituary for Linos William Norris, no date or newspaper indicated:

"Linos Willlm Norris

Linos William Norris, son of Samuel and Electa Gilbert Norris, was born near Dresden, Coshocton county, Ohio, on March 22, 1846, and passed away at his home near Lebanon, Mo., on Sunday evening, August 28, 1932, aged 86 years, 5 months and 6 days.

When five years of age Mr. Norris came with his parents to Illinois, settling on a farm five miles northwest of Clark Center, here he grew to young manhood receiving his education from the public schools and the Westfield college. In 1866 he was united in marriage with Miss Sarah E. Wright. To this union seven children were born, Wm. F., Mary Ida, Edward M. Emma L. Chas. E. Carrie E. and Noah L. Noah L. and Edward M. died in infancy. Mrs. Carrie Stephens passed away in 1904 and Mrs. Ida Cine on Feb. 10, 1932. Surviving are Wm. F. and Chas. E., of Lebanon, Mo., and Mrs. Emma Claypool, of Chicago; eleven grandchildren, one granddaughter, Miss Ruth Stephens whom hee raised from infancy and who has since resided with him, tenderly caring for him in his old age; 24 great grandchildren; an aged sister, Mrs. Sarah Phillips, of Olney, Ill., and a half-brother, Edgar Norris, of Elnora, Indiana.

Mr. Norris confessed his faith in Jesus and accepted Him as his Savior in early manhood, uniting with the Church of God of the Abrahamic faith, and as a true and faithful follower, devoting all his spare time to the study of God's word.

Most of his life was spent in Clark county, Illinois, until 30 years ago he moved to Independence, Kansas, later moving to Kansas City, and then to Lebanon, Mo., where his aged companion passed away in 1923. He was a kind and faithful father, a charitable neighbor and will be sadly missed for he had many friends and was loved and respected by all who knew him. He was a man of great intellect retaining a brilliant mind through out the four years of paralysis, until on Thursday morning he suffered a second stroke which resulted in his death on Sunday evening following.

The body was brought to the home of his granddaughter, Mrs. Henry Huffman. Funeral services were conducted by Elder F. L. Austin , of Chicago, at the Mt. Pleasant church at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The body was laid to rest in the cemetery nearby to await Christs coming."

Newspapers.com also listed the following obituary for Linos William Norris dated on Friday, September 23, 1932, in The Laclede County Republican, Lebanon, Missouri:

"L. W. Norris

L. W. Norris, a resident of Laclede County for twenty-two years, passed away at his home near Brush Creek, August 28, following a stroke of paralysis on August 25, which affected his right side. The stroke left him in an unconscious condition from which he never rallied. He suffered a paralytic stroke in May, 1928, which affected his left side and since then had been confined to a chair, only being able to walk with the assistance of some one, or take a few steps with the aid of crutch or cane.

Linos William Norris was born in Coshocton County, Ohio, March 22, 1846, the eldest of a family of nine. He, with his parents, moved to Clark County, Illinois, at the age of 5 years, and the greater part of his life was spent there. On July 22, 1866, he was married to Sarah E. Wright, and to them seven children were born, four of whom, two infant sons, and two daughters, Mrs. Ida Cline and Mrs. Carrie Stevens, have preceded their father in death. His wife preceded him in September, 1923. The surviving children are: William F. and Charles E. Norris, of brusck Creek, and Mrs. Emma Claypool, of Chicago, Illinois. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. Sarah Phillips, of Olney, Illinois; a half-brother, Edgar Norris, of Whiting, Indiana, eleven grand-children, and twenty-four gret-grand-children.

Mr. Norris bore his affliction with patience and cheerfulness, saying the four years of his confinement gave him a greater opportunity to read and study his Bible. He was a member of the Church of God of the Abrahamic faith the greater part of his life.

Funeral services were held at Mount Pleasant church, near Martinsville, Illinois, at 3 p. m. August 31, conducted by Rev. F. L. Austin, of Chicago, Illinois. Burial was in the cemetery near the church."

As set forth above, Findagrave.com listed the joint gravestone of Linos William Norris and Sarah W. Norris in Mount Pleasant Cemetery, Martinsville, Clark County, Illinois.

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Alma Estelle Reese Wright dated on Friday, February 14, 1936, in The Dexter Statesman, Dexter, Missouri:

"Alma Estelle Reese

Alma Estelle Reese, daughter of L. M. and Hannah Reese of Marshall, Ill., was born Feb. 22, 1876, departed this life Feb. 5, 1936. In the year 1892 she was married to Lyman Wright of Marshall, Ill. To this union 5 children were born, 3 of whom have preceded her in death, these being Loyd, Hershal and Hannah Wright.

Thirty-two years ago Mr. and Mrs. Wright moved from Marshall, Ill., to Dudley to make their home and have lived there ever since.

She professed faith in Christ and united with the Methodist church at an early age, those who know her have always found her steadfast in her belief. She bore her long sufferings with patience and entrusted herself in the keeping of the Lord - saying bravely, that she was ready to meet the end.

She leaves to mourn her departure her husband, two children, L. D. Wright and Mrs. Cecil Teulker, both of Dudley; three grand children, Loyal E. of St. Louis, Bernice and Lucille Teulker of Dudley; her aged mother, 4 sister and two brothers besides other distant relatives and a host of friends.

Funeral services were conducted at the home Friday, Feb. 7th at 11 a. m., Rev. Wilson of Dexter officiating. Interment was in the Dudley cemetery, Rice-Jamison service."

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Lyman Wright dated on Saturday, February 6, 1954, in the Daily American Republic, poplar Bluff, Missouri, and his death on February 2, 1954:

"Final Rites For Lyman Wright, 84, Held In Dudley

Funeral services for Lyman Wright, 84-year-old retired farmer and livestock dealer, who died at his home in Detroit, Mich., early Tuesday following a two week illness with pneumonia, were held at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon in the Methodist Church at Dudley.

The Rev. Walter A. Smith of Dexter officiated and burial was in the Dudley Cemetery under the direction of the Watkins Funeral Service.

The pallbearers were W. M. Nash, John S. Litzler, Cleve Orr, Bailey Kestner, Jim Devine and George Freel.

A native of Marshall, Ill., where he was born on March 18, 1869, he moved to Dudley with his family at the age of 30 years. He resided in Stoddard county until 1944 when his health failed and he moved to Detroit where he made his home with a son, Ted Wright.

In addition to his son, Ted Wright, he leaves one daughter, Mrs. Cecil Teulker of Turlock, Calif. There are three grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren."

Newspapers.com also listed the following obituary of Lyman Wright dated on Thursday, February 11, 1954, in The Dexter Messenger, Dexter, Missouri:

"Lyman Wright Buried Today

Lyman Wright, son of Ella and Samuel Wright, was born at Marshall, Ill., March 18, 1869 and passed away at the Industrial Hospital in Detroit, Mich., Tuesday, February 2, 1954 at the age of 84 years, ten months and fifteen days.

Mr. Wright spent his childhood days around Marshall and at the age of 30 years, moved to Dudley, Mo., where he was a farmer and livestock dealer for about 40 years, when his health failed and he had to retire.

On March 1, 1893 he was united in marriage to Ella S. Reese of Marshall and to this union five children were born, one daughter, Hannah, died at the age of two years. Herschell died at Dudley at the age of 19 years, Lloyd passed away at the age of 26 years at Dudley. His wife preceded him in death Feb. 5, 1936.

After his health failed, he moved with his son, Ted, to Detroit, Mich., where he made his home since.

Mr. Wright is survived by the following children: Lyman D. Wright of Detroit and Mrs. Cecil Teulkner of Turlock, Calif.; also three grandchildren and seven great grandchildren and many other relatives and a host of friends.

The body was returned to Watkins Funeral Home here and remained until February 5, then taken to the Methodist church in Dudley for services at 2 p.m., with the Rev. Walter A. Smith, pastor of the First Christian church of Dexter, officiating. Interment was in Dudley cemetery.

Pallbearers were W. M. Nash, John Litzler, Cleave Orr, Bailey Kestner, Jim Devine and George Freel.

Watkins Funeral Service."

(XII) Mary Wright

Mary Wright was a daughter of 1835 Edward Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Elizabeth (Kay) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1835 Edward⁵)

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Mary Wright in Broomstick Cemetery, Coshocton County, Ohio:

"Mary Wright

Birth	1828 Coshocton County, Ohio, USA
Death	27 Feb 1847 (aged 18–19) Coshocton County, Ohio, USA
Burial	Broomstick Cemetery Pike Township, Coshocton County, Ohio, USA
Memorial ID	82240513"

However, no photograph of the gravestone was provided.

In his letter dated September 25, 2003, Jerry Jacobs enclosed an excerpt from Coshocton County, Ohio, Cemeteries, Volume VI, Pike Township by the Coshocton County Chapter of the Ohio Genealogical Society, 1988, which listed the following tombstone from Broomstick Cemetery:

"Mary Wright
daughter of Edward & Elizabeth
2/27/1847
19y"

This record indicates that Mary Wright was born in about 1828.

(XIII) Probably 1905 Alexander Wright Of Mills
County, Iowa, His Wife Julia Ann (Painter)
Wright, And His Descendants

1905 Alexander Wright of Mills County, Iowa, was probably a son of 1835 Edward Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Elizabeth (Kay) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1835 Edward⁵)

There is no direct documentary evidence that Alexander Wright was a son of Edward Wright and Elizabeth (Kay) Wright. However, the circumstantial evidence indicates that this identification is probably correct. As set forth above, Edward Wright and Elizabeth (Kay) Wright were born in Virginia and had a son born in about 1830. As set forth below, the parents of Alexander Wright were born in Virginia and Alexander Wright was born on January 13, 1830, in Coshocton County, Ohio. Although there are other Alexander Wrights in this Wright family in Coshocton County, Ohio, no other Alexander Wright was born in 1830. And Alexander Wright named one of his sons Edward Wright. Further research will be required to confirm this probable identification.

The 1830 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Edward Wright with two sons aged 15 to 20, two sons aged 10 to 15, two sons aged 5 to 10, and two sons aged 0 to 5

The 1840 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Elizabeth Wright with one son aged 20 to 30, one son aged 15 to 20, one son aged 10 to 15, and one son aged 5 to 10.

These two census records, in conjunction with the other identifications set forth above, indicate a date of birth for this son in about 1830.

The 1850 Census for Licking County, Ohio, listed Alexander Wright in the Joseph Wright household on August 23, 1850, and his age as 20 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1830.

The marriage record of Alexander Wright and Julia Ann Painter has not as yet been found, but as set forth below, his obituary indicates that it occurred in about 1854.

The 1860 Census for Mills County, Iowa, listed Alexander Wright with the following household on July 6, 1860:

Name	Age	Sex	Color	Occupation	Value of Real Estate

This record indicates that Alexander Wright was born in January 1831 and that Julia Ann (Painter) Wright was born in November 1831.

The obituary of Alexander Wright was dated on April 11, 1905, in the Mills

County Tribune:

“Alexander Wright

Alexander Wright, aged 73 years, died at 11 a.m. Sunday, April 9, 1905, at his home south of Glenwood, of bronchial pneumonia. The funeral was held Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home, conducted by Rev. J. H. Stark, pastor of the Christian church, of which deceased was a member.

Mr. Wright was an old settler in these parts, having lived here for 48 years. For 44 years he has lived on the same place. He was born Jan. 13, 1832, in Coshocton county, Ohio, and was married in 1854 to Julia Ann Painter, who survives him, together with five children, namely, S. M. and Ed Wright, Mrs. Wm. Long, and Mrs. I. O. Linville, Glenwood, and Mrs. D. C. Muffly, Watson, Mo.”

In his email date January 30, 2008, Michael H. Thorne enclosed a family report which included a second obituary for Alexander Wright dated April 13, 1905, from the Glenwood Opinion:

“Alexander Wright, an old settler of Mills county who has lived a rather quiet, retired life but was nevertheless a most estimable citizen, died last Saturday at his home south of Glenwood. He has been suffering for a year or more from bronchial-pneumonia and last Saturday death came to relieve his sufferings. The funeral was held from the home Monday afternoon at two o'clock conducted by Rev. J. H. Stark of the Christian Church, and the interment was made in the Glenwood Cemetery.

The deceased was born in Ohio the 15th of January, 1830, and was 75 years 2 months and 26 days old at the time of his death. He was married to Julian Painter the 26th of November 1850, and to this union seven children have been born, two of whom died in infancy. Four of the remaining children live in the vicinity of Glenwood and were able to be present at the funeral, while a daughter who lives in Missouri was unable to come. The helpmate of this good man survives him. She has been for sometime in delicate health and was unable to leave the home Monday.

While Mr. Wright has lived a quiet retired life he has been counted an influential man because he inspired good in all whom he met. For a third of a century he has been a member of the Christian church, living according to its doctrines and by his good life being a credit to the church. In the home he has been all that he could hope to be and will be missed by all who knew him. Many friends extend sympathy to the loved one in this bereavement.”

In his posting dated December 17, 2004, at the Which Wright Is Right site at MyFamily.com, Jerry Jacobs posted an excerpt from a history of Mills County, Iowa, published in 1985 by the Mills County History Book Committee which stated as follows:

"Alexander And Julia Ann Wright

Alexander was born January 13, 1830 in Ohio. His parents were born in Virginia according to the census of 1880.

Julia Ann Painter was born November 10, 1832 in Ohio and was the daughter of Samuel and Nancy Painter. Samuel B. Painter was born in Pennsylvania in 1808 and died February 8, 1882. Nancy Painter was born in Ohio in 1812 and died October 1, 1882. Samuel and Nancy are buried in the Glenwood, Iowa Cemetery. In the 1870 census Samuel's occupation was listed as a teamster and they were living in Glenwood, Iowa. Julia Ann had a brother Jewell, also listed as a teamster. Jewell had a wife Mary and two sons, Samuel and William.

Alexander and Julie Ann (Painter) Wright were married November 26, 1854. Their occupation was farming and they lived on their own farm south of Glenwood, called the "old Wright farm." The above picture was taken at that place. Alexander had a heat stroke as a young man, so farmed by night.

Seven children born to this union were: Samuel, born August 18, 1856, married Laura Parr and died September 5, 1935; Mary Elizabeth born October 3, 1861, married (1) Daniel C. Muffley and (2) Joseph McCurdy, died May 28, 1944; John William, born January 17, 1864 and died August 27, 1865; Jane Born December 25, 1866, married William Long and died August 28, 1931. Her twin brother died at birth; Edwin born September 23, 1870 married Myrtle Snuffin and died April 7, 1953, and Ella, born January 21, 1874, married Ivory Linville and died January 11, 1966.

Alexander died April 9, 1905, and Julie Ann died February 7, 1906. They are buried in the Glenwood Cemetery. Submitted by Phyllis (Wheeler) Pontow"

In his email dated January 30, 2008, Michael H. Thorne enclosed a family report which stated that Alexander Wright was born on January 15, 1830, in Ohio, married Julia Ann Painter on November 26, 1854, died on April 9, 1905, in Glenwood, Mills County, Iowa, and was buried in Glenwood Cemetery, Glenwood, Andrew County, Missouri, that Julia Ann (Painter) Wright was born on November 10, 1832, in Licking County, Ohio, died on February 7, 1906, in Glenwood, Mills County, Iowa, and was buried in Glenwood Cemetery, Glenwood, Andrew County, Missouri, and that Alexander Wright and Julia Ann (Painter) Wright had the following children:

- 1) Samuel Wright, born on August 18, 1856, in Andrew County, Missouri,
- 2) Mary Elizabeth (Wright) (McCurdy) Muffley, born on October 3, 1861, in Mills County, Iowa,
- 3) John William Wright, born on January 17, 1864, in Mills County, Iowa,

- 4) Jane (Wright) Long, born on December 25, 1866, in Mills County, Iowa,
- 5) _____ Wright, born on December 25, 1866, in Mills County, Iowa,
- 6) Edwin Wright, born on September 23, 1870, in Mills County, Iowa, and
- 7) Ella (Wright) Linville, born on January 21, 1874, in Mills County, Iowa.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1905 Alexander Wright and Julia Ann (Painter) Wright were the following:

- 1) Samuel M. Wright, born on August 18, 1856, or in about 1857 in Fillmore, Andrew County, Missouri,
- 2) Mary Elizabeth (Wright) (Muffley) McCurdy, born on October 3, 1861, or in about 1862 or in October 1863 in Glenwood, Mills County, Iowa,
- 3) John William Wright, born on January 17, 1864, in Mills County, Iowa,
- 4) Sarah Jane "Jennie" (Wright) Long, born in December 1864 or on December 25, 1866, or in about 1867 or 1868 in Mills County, Iowa,
- 5) _____ Wright, born on December 25, 1866, in Mills County, Iowa,
- 6) Edwin or Edward "Ed" Wright, born on September 23, 1870, or in about 1871 in Mills County, Iowa, and
- 7) Ella Ann (Wright) Linville, born in about 1873 or on January 21, 1874, or in about 1875 in Glenwood, Mills County, Iowa.

The listing of Edward Wright as witness and surety indicates that Joseph Wright was probably a son of 1805 William Wright of Fauquier County and a brother of Edward Wright. And as will be set forth below, Joseph Wright was the brother of Patsy Wright who married Joseph Norris and Patsy (Wright) was listed as a daughter of Elizabeth Wright. These records identify Joseph Wright as a son of 1805 William Wright of Fauquier County and Elizabeth (Lloyd) Wright.

The 1804 Personal Property Tax List for Fauquier County, Virginia, listed Joseph Wright with the following household:

dates	Persons Charged with the Tax	Free Tithes	No of Free Tithes	Negroes over 16	Negroes over 12 & under 16

This record indicates that Joseph Wright was born in about 1781 and that Jane (Hartford) Wright was born in about 1793.

The will of Joseph Wright was dated on October 26, 1859, probated on April 26,

1866, at Coshocton County, Virginia, Probate File 571, and provided as follows:

"I Joseph Wright of the County of Coshocton in the State of Ohio, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament, in manner and form following to wit,

Item 1st I direct that my body be decently interred, and my funereal expenses and just debts be fully paid.

Item 2nd I give and devise to my beloved wife Jane Wright in lieu of her dower in my estate all the beds, bedsteads, and bedding, and all the articles of household and kitchen furniture, that may be remaining in my possession or belonging to me, at the time of my decease, and also Five hundred dollars, to be paid out of the balance of my personal property, moneys and credits belonging to me at the time of my decease, and also I devise to her one Horse and a Carriage or Carryall should any or either be in my possession at the time of my decease; to be her property and to be disposed of by her as she deems proper.

Item 3rd. I will and direct that the remainder of my personal estate, (having disposed of my real estate equally amongst my children, both of my former and present wife) be equally divided among my twelve children, or their hiers, so that each child, or if they be dead then their children, receive one equal twelfth part.

I further request that after my decease my children should all meet and set off to my wife what I have bequeathed to her, and divide the remainder among themselves as before named and directed.

I hereby nominate and appoint my sons Willis Wright, Thomas J. Wright and James H. Wright and also Wesley Graves to be the Executors of this my last will and testament

I hereby revoke all former wills by me made

Wife: Jane Wright

Children:

- 1) Willis Wright,
- 2) Thomas J. Wright,
- 3) James H. Wright, and
- 4) Eight other unnamed children.

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Joseph William Wright, Sr., in McGee Cemetery, Coshocton County, Ohio, but the photograph of the gravestone shows a broken and unreadable stone.

Findagrave.com also listed the following for Joseph William Wright, Sr.:
"Joseph William Wright Sr.

Birth	2 Apr 1781 Fauquier County, Virginia, USA
Death	3 Apr 1866 (aged 85) Coshocton County, Ohio, USA
Burial	McGee Cemetery Virginia Township, Coshocton County, Ohio, USA

It is unclear on what source the listing of Joseph Wright with a middle name William was based.

In their email dated March 7, 2008, Karen and Mike Wright stated that the gravestone of Joseph Wright was located in the Croy-McGee Cemetery, Washington

Township, Coshocton County, Ohio:

"Joseph Wright

These last two records indicate that Jane (Hartford) Wright was born on September 13, 1792.

History Of Coshocton County, Ohio: Its Past And Present, 1740-1881, by N. N. Hill, Jr., and published in 1881, stated the following with regard to Joseph Wright of Virginia Township:

"Joseph Wright and Joseph McCoy came together into the township December 24, 1806. Mr. McCoy settled upon the southwest quarter of section twenty-five - where he lived until he died. Joseph Wright was his son-in-law, and had one child, Willis, when he came to the county, who is now a resident of Coshocton. Both were from Virginia. Mr. Wright lived with his father-in-law one year, then moved further up the creek to lot 3, where he lived during the remainder of his life. Probably no one in the township was more prominent than he. He died April 1, 1867, at the age of eighty-seven years."

This record indicates that Joseph Wright was born in about 1780. However, given the probate of Joseph Wright's will in 1866, the date of death of April 1, 1867, must be mistaken and his date of birth, therefore, may have been in 1779 rather than 1780, depending upon whether the age of 87 was known and correctly listed or the birth year was known and the age at death incorrectly computed from the mistaken date of death.

In his article "Some Descendants Of Richard Wright, Gentleman, Of London, England, And Northumberland, Virginia, 1655" in Tyler's Quarterly Magazine, Volume I, page 127, 1919, Charles Arthur Hoppin stated that Joseph Wright was a son of William Wright and Elizabeth (Lloyd) Wright:

". . . (6) - his son William Wright whose will, proved at Warrenton, April 28, 1806 [original will filed in the 1806 bundle in Fauquier count clerk's office], names wife Elizabeth, son William Wright, Jr., and refers to his other children without naming them; but on page 372 of Fauquier will book No. 8 is the entry of the division of the estate showing, to wit: "£974:18:4½ - the sum to be divided between the fourteen children of the said Wm. Wright which will make each legatees part £69-12-8-3/4." Lack of space forbids the present citation of evidence upon these fourteen children, some of whom may be recognized in the following: . . . Joseph, who married Elizabeth McCoy; . . . [These marriage are recorded at Warrenton, Virginia.]

Lloyd & Ruth (Pritchard) Wright & Descendents, by Howard L. Bowers and published in 1995, stated as follows:

"Hill's History of Coshocton County (1881) includes a biographical sketch of Loyd Wright (1819-1886), a farmer, who lived in Virginia Township. He was born in Coshocton County, son of Joseph and Elizabeth McCoy Wright who came to Coshocton County in 1806 from Fauquier County, Virginia with Elizabeth's father, Joseph Washington McCoy, Sr. (My great-great-great-grandfather through his son Joseph Washington McCoy, Jr. and his granddaughter Mary McCoy who was married to my great-grandfather Thornton Darr)"

Joseph Washington McCoy 1766-1840 of Coshocton County, Ohio, His

Descendants and Related Families, by B. Isabel Lockard and published in 2002, stated that Joseph Wright was a son of William Wright and Elizabeth (Lloyd) Wright, was born in 1781 in Fauquier County, Virginia, married first Elizabeth McCoy on December 26, 1803, in Fauquier County, Virginia, and married second Jane Hartford on February 17, 1825, in Muskingum County, Ohio, that his will was probated on April 3, 1866, in W.B. 2/199 in Coshocton County, Ohio, and that he was buried in the Croy/McGee Cemetery, Virginia Township, Coshocton County, Ohio, that Elizabeth (McCoy) Wright was born on October 18, 1790, in Fauquier County, Virginia, died on November 9, 1824, in Coshocton County, Ohio, and was buried in the Croy/McGee Cemetery, Virginia Township, Coshocton County, Ohio, that Jane (Hartford) Wright was born on September 13, 1792, in Pennsylvania or Canada, died on November 5, 1874, in Coshocton County, Ohio, and was buried in Milfork Cemetery, Coshocton County, Ohio, and that Joseph Wright and Elizabeth (McCoy) Wright had the following children:

- 1) Nancy Wright, born on December 29, 1804, in Fauquier County, Virginia,
- 2) Willis Wright, born in 1806,
- 3) William Wright, born in October 1808,
- 4) Joseph Wright, Jr., born in 1810,
- 5) Milley Wright, born in November 1811,
- 6) Henry Wright, born in 1817,
- 7) Lloyd Wright, born in 1819,
- 8) Susan Wright, born on November 17, 1821,
- 9) Daniel Wright, born on April 18, 1824, and
- 10) _____ Wright, a daughter, and that Joseph Wright and Jane (Hartford) Wright had the following children:

- 1) James Hartford Wright,

- 2) Charles Wright,
- 3) George W. Wright,
- 4) Daniel Wright, born in 1830,
- 5) Thomas J. Wright, and
- 6) Fernando C. Wright.

Joseph Washington McCoy 1766-1840 of Coshocton County, Ohio, His Descendants and Related Families, by B. Isabel Lockard, stated that Daniel Wright was a son of Joseph Wright and Elizabeth (McCoy) Wright, was born on April 18, 1824, died on May 23, 1824, and was buried in the McGee Cemetery, Virginia Township, Coshocton County, Ohio. However, the image of the gravestone of Daniel Wright in McGee Cemetery lists his parents as Joseph and Jane Wright and his death on May 23, 1834, not 1824.

In addition, Joseph Washington McCoy 1766-1840 of Coshocton County, Ohio, His Descendants and Related Families, by B. Isabel Lockard, stated that ____ Wright was a daughter of Joseph Wright and Elizabeth (McCoy) Wright, died as an infant, and was buried in the McGee Cemetery, Virginia Township, Coshocton County, Ohio. However, the image of the gravestone of Infant Wright is largely unreadable and further research will be required to confirm or deny this identification.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1866 Joseph Wright and Elizabeth (McCoy) Wright were the following:

- 1) Nancy (Wright) Graves, born on December 29, 1804, or in about 1805 in Fauquier County, Virginia,
- 2) Willis Wright, born on August 25, 1806, and before December 24, 1806, in Virginia,
- 3) William Wright, born in October 1808 or on May 9, 1810,
- 4) Joseph Wright, Jr., born in about 1809 or 1810 or on June 10, 1810, in Ohio,
- 5) Milley Wright, born in November 1811,
- 6) Henry Wright, born on October 24, 1817, in Coshocton County, Ohio,
- 7) Lloyd Wright, born in about 1818 or on September 10, 1819, or on October 18, 1819 or in about 1820, in Coshocton County, Ohio,
- 8) Susan Wright, born on November 17, 1821,

- 9) Possibly John Wright, born in about 1822 or 1823 in Ohio, and
- 10) Wesley Wright, born on October 26, 1824, or in about 1825 in Coshocton County, Ohio, and the children of 1866 Joseph Wright and Jane (Hartford) Wright were the following:

- 1) James Hartford Wright, born in about 1825 or 1826 in Ohio,
- 2) Possibly but probably not Charles Wright,
- 3) Possibly George W. Wright, born in about 1828 or 1829 in Ohio,
- 4) Thomas J. Wright, born on June 17, 1832, in Coshocton County, Ohio,
- 5) Daniel Wright, born on April 18, 1834, and
- 6) Fernando Corten Wright, born on December 24, 1835, or in about 1836 or 1837 in Coshocton County, Ohio.

(I) Nancy (Wright) Graves, Her Husband Wesley Graves, And Her Descendants

Nancy (Wright) Graves was a daughter of 1866 Joseph Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Elizabeth (McCoy) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1866 Joseph⁵)

The marriage record of Nancy Wright and Westley Graves was dated on November 1, 1822, in Coshocton County, Ohio:

"No 365 Westley Graves To Nancy Wright

I do certify that I did marry Westley Graves and Nancy Wright on the 1st day of November 1822. Given under my hand and seal this 9th day of November.

The will of Joseph Wright dated on October 26, 1859, and probated on April 26, 1866, at Coshocton County, Virginia, Probate File 571, listed Wesley Graves as one of his executors:

I hereby nominate and appoint my sons Willis Wright, Thomas J. Wright and James H. Wright and also Wesley Graves to be the Executors of this my last will and testament

The 1860 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Westley Graves with the following household on June 13, 1860:

This record indicates that Nancy (Wright) Graves was born in about 1805 and that Wesley Graves was born in about 1803.

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Nancy Wright Graves in Little Flock Cemetery, Shelburn, Sullivan County, Indiana:

"Nancy Wright Graves

Birth	29 Dec 1804 Fauquier County, Virginia, USA
Death	3 Oct 1862 (aged 57) Coshocton County, Ohio, USA
Memorial ID	103615518"

However, no photograph of the gravestone was provided. In addition, as set forth below, the 1870 Census listed Wesley Graves in Coshocton County, Ohio, and it would seem unlikely that if Nancy (Wright) Graves died in 1862 in Coshocton County and her husband Wesley Graves still resided in 1870 in Coshocton County that Nancy would have been buried in Sullivan County, Indiana. As also set forth below, Wesley Graves was buried in Sullivan County, Indiana, and the poster of the grave of Nancy was simply assuming that they were buried together in Sullivan County.

The 1870 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Wesley Graves with the following household on June 11, 1870:

This record indicates that Wesley Graves was born in about 1803.

The 1880 Census for Wabash County, Indiana, listed Wesley Graves in the Robert Stewart household on June 18, 1880, his relationship as father in law, his age as 77 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1803, and his marital status as widowed.

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Wesley Graves in Little Flock Cemetery, Shelburn, Sullivan County, Indiana, and his death on November 18, 1890:

"Wesley Graves
Died
Nov. 18, 1890
Aged
88 Yrs. 12 Ds."

This record indicates that Wesley Graves was born on November 6, 1802.

The Story of Wesley Graves: 1802-1890 And His Descendants, by Stewart Lincoln MacDonald Who Is A Grandson, prepared and published by Stewart Lincoln MacDonald in 1966, stated the following:

"Grandfather Wesley Graves

This history has been motivated by a desire to perpetuate the memory of my mother's father, Wesley Graves. He was brought into the Ohio country at age 12, after a childhood along the Shenandoah in Virginia. When I was born, Grandfather was past seventy and my grandmother Graves had died. So we were living with grandfather in his Ohio home. He sold this home when I was about seven years old, and we all moved to Indiana and lived together until Grandfather died.

Death came in 1890, when Grandfather was 88 and I was 17. Through those seventeen years we lived our work-a-day lives, uneventful and commonplace.

Sometime in his early childhood a severe sickness left Wesley with a weakened leg. This required him to lean heavily on a cane throughout his days.

Grandfather told me of the broadcloth that went into his wedding coat. It cost three dollars a yard and he had earned the money for it by working at thirty cents a day as a laborer. And he would say too that Nancy could fashion a fine own out of six yards of dress goods.

And now the story of the winter ahead--as the wedding had been on November 7. It was told over and over by Grandfather until the story is still clear in my mind. There is something almost divine about it. A Bible had come into Wesley's hands, possibly as a wedding gift. And a new loom was in the accumulation of distaff equipment bestowed on the newlyweds. So in the evenings, through that winter, Wesley would read the Bible aloud while Nancy plied her loom.

When spring came the Bible had been read through and a sizable stack of homespuns rewarded the diligence and nimble fingers of the 18-year-old bride. Although the story remained vivid to Wesley to the end of his days, he never seemed to attach unusual importance to it.

Grandfather sold his place in Ohio and gave possession on March 1, 1880. Father bought us a farm in Indiana to which we moved in the same year. Grandfather spent most of that year visiting his sons and daughters: Aunt Elizabeth Stewart in northern Indiana, and four sons in Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas. Then he came to live with us in the spring of 1881.

Wesley Graves died November 18, 1890, at the age of 88 years and twelve days. A modest column marks his last resting place close on the west side of Highway 41, where it can be readily observed by travelers between Chicago and the Southland.

Wesley and Nancy Graves were the parents of 12 children. Eight of them raised families with a total of 69 children. Altogether in 1965 we have records of near 700 descendants. The Family:

Wesley Graves, b Nov 6, 1802, died Nov 18, 1890, married Nov 7 1822, to Nancy Wright, b Dec 29, 1804, died Oct 3, 1862. The children were all born in Ohio. They were:

Joseph Washington McCoy 1766-1840 of Coshocton County, Ohio, His Descendants and Related Families, by B. Isabel Lockard and published in 2002, stated that Nancy Wright was a daughter of Joseph Wright and Elizabeth (McCoy) Wright, was born on December 29, 1804, in Fauquier County, Virginia, married Wesley Graves on November 1, 1822, in Coshocton County, Ohio, and died on October or November 3, 1862, in Coshocton County, Ohio, that Wesley Graves was born in November 1802 in Frederick County, Virginia, was a farmer and justice of the peace, resided in 1880 in Sullivan County, Indiana, died on November 18, 1890, in Sullivan County, Indiana, and was buried in Little Flock Cemetery, and that Nancy (Wright) Graves and William Graves had the following children:

- 1) Nathaniel Graves, born in 1823 in Coshocton County, Ohio,
- 2) Elizaphan Graves, born on June 19, 1825, in Coshocton County, Ohio,
- 3) Elizabeth Graves, born in 1826 in Coshocton County, Ohio,
- 4) Nancy Graves, born on November 26, 1828, in Coshocton County, Ohio,
- 5) Willis Graves, born on August 27, 1830, in Coshocton County, Ohio,
- 6) Mary Jane Graves, born in 1832 in Coshocton County, Ohio,
- 7) Joseph Graves, born in 1834 in Coshocton County, Ohio,

- 9) Albert Graves, born in 1838 in Coshocton County, Ohio,
- 10) James Graves, born on January 14, 1841, in Coshocton County, Ohio,
- 11) Margaret Graves, born in 1843 in Coshocton County, Ohio, and
- 12) Amelia Graves, born in 1845 in Coshocton County, Ohio.

In her WorldConnect Posting dated June 5, 2008, Janet Lockard stated that Nancy Wright was born on December 29, 1804, in Fauquier County, Virginia, married Wesley Graves on November 1, 1822, in Coshocton County, Ohio, died on October 3, 1862, in Coshocton County, Ohio, and was buried in Little Flock Cemetery, Shelburn, Sullivan County, Indiana, that Wesley Graves was born on November 6, 1802 in Virginia, died on November 18, 1890, in Sullivan County, Indiana, and was buried in Little Flock Cemetery, Shelburn, Sullivan County, Indiana, and that Nancy (Wright) Graves and William Graves had the following children:

- 1) Nathaniel Graves, born on September 29, 1823, in Coshocton County, Ohio,
- 2) Elizaphan Graves, born on June 19, 1825, in Coshocton County, Ohio,
- 3) Elizabeth Graves, born on December 12, 1826, in Coshocton County, Ohio,
- 4) Nancy Graves, born on November 26, 1828, in Coshocton County, Ohio,
- 5) Willis Graves, born on August 27, 1830, in Coshocton County, Ohio,
- 6) Mary Jane Graves, born on July 21, 1832, in Coshocton County, Ohio,
- 7) Joseph Graves, born on August 31, 1834, in Coshocton County, Ohio,
- 8) John Wesley Graves, born on September 4, 1836, in Coshocton County, Ohio,
- 9) Albert Graves, born on June 30, 1838, in Coshocton County, Ohio,

- 10) James Graves, born on January 14, 1841, in Coshocton County, Ohio,
 - 11) Margaret Graves, born on February 19, 1843, in Coshocton County, Ohio,
- and
- 12) Amelia Graves, born on April 6, 1845, in Coshocton County, Ohio.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Nancy (Wright) Graves and William Graves were the following:

- 1) Nathaniel Graves, born on September 29, 1823, or in about 1824 or in September 1827 in Coshocton County, Ohio,
- 2) Elizaphan Graves, born on June 19, 1825, in Coshocton County, Ohio,
- 3) Elizabeth (Graves) Steward, born on December 12, 1826, or in about 1827 in Coshocton County, Ohio,
- 4) Nancy Graves, born on November 26, 1828, in Coshocton County, Ohio,
- 5) Willis Graves, born on August 27, 1830, in Coshocton County, Ohio,

The Story of Wesley Graves: 1802-1890 And His Descendants, by Stewart Lincoln MacDonald Who Is A Grandson, prepared and published by Stewart Lincoln MacDonald in 1966, stated that:

". . . .

Wesley and Nancy Graves were the parents of 12 children. . . . The Family:

". . . .

The children were all born in Ohio. They were:

1. Nathaniel, b Sep 29, 1823, d July 26, 1905, m Jan 25, 1849 to Mary Jane Walraven (1823-1899).

I. T H E N A T H A N I E L G R A V E S F A M I L Y

By Berenice Morse Andrew

Mary Jane Walraven, who became the wife of Nathaniel was of Italian extraction, the daughter of Mary (Roe) and William Walraven, he being a music teacher and musician. Mary Jane was born at North mountain, Virginia, one of a large family that included Mary Jane, Louisa, Sue, Elias, Sam, John and William. The father died, the mother remarried (to Samuel Brown) and the family became scattered. Mary Jane was bound out to a Quaker family--I think the name was Dunn.

When Mary Jane's contract expired, she married Nathaniel, and they lived at Roscoe, Ohio. It was there that the two oldest children were born: Mary Elizabeth and Lucretia Alexina (Ella). After four years, Howard was born at Clinton, Iowa; Charles Wesley, Jessie Fremont, and Bertie Clyde were born in Ohio, then Harry Walraven and Cora may were born in Kansas. By then, Elizabeth, the oldest, was 23 years old.

Here is the explanation of the moves, and the spread of years among the children: Soon after the second child was born, Nathaniel, together with two brothers, joined the gold rush to California. They took the steamer at Zanesville, followed the river route to Kansas, City, from where they outfitted with ox teams and wagons for the long journey to the gold fields. After many hardships they reached the "diggin's" in north central California. There is no evidence that the boys became rich; but I have a small copper box containing about two tablespoonsful of gold dust, which proves that they were there.

My own memories began in the late 1880s. My parents, Jessie Graves and Alonzo Norse were married June 18, 1884; I was born June 25, 1885. Aunt Ella (Lucretia) died in 1886. My memory of my grandparents, Nathaniel and Mary Jane, is vivid. They were always kind to me and my brothers, but we stood in awe of them, possibly because of my grandfather's long white beard and my grandmother's concise, pithy style of speaking.

Grandmother's death occurred in 1899, and the farm was sold after having been in the family for about twenty years; Grandfather Nathaniel died at Nodaway, Iowa, in 1905.

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary of Robert Stewart dated on January 8, 1906, in The Indianapolis Star, Indianapolis, Indiana:

"Robert Stewart Expires.

[By Star Special Service.]

LaFontaine, Ind., Jan. 7. - Robert Stewart, aged 82, one of the wealthiest residents of Wabash County, died at his home here this morning. He was one of the early settlers of the county, having lived in Liberty Township for fifty-three years. He was a lifelong Republican, coming from the old Whig party, and held public office for fourteen years. He reared a large family of children, seven of whom, with the widow, survive. He was the father of Drs. F. C. W. B. and William B. Stewart of Indianapolis."

Newspapers.com also listed the following obituary of Robert Stewart dated on January 9, 1906, in The Huntington Herald, Huntington, Indiana:

"Father Of Four Indiana Physicians.

One of the oldest and best known citizens of Lafontaine, Robert Stewart, died Sunday morning at 3 o'clock at his home after a short illness of kidney trouble. Mr. Stewart was over eighty-one years old and had lived in Liberty township, Wabash county, since 1853. For eight years he was a commissioner of Wabash county and for six years was township trustee. His first wife died about sixteen years ago and he married again and leaves to mourn his loss, besides his wife, seven children by his first wife. Six of the children are boys, J. W., Dr. F. C., Dr. W. B., and Dr. W. R. of Indianapolis, Dr. J. W. C. of Wabash and C. E. who was at one time sheriff of the county. The daughter is Mrs. Ellis Bloomer, who lives at Lafontaine.

The funeral will take place Wednesday at 11 o'clock from the home in Lafontaine and will be conducted by the pastor of the Christian church, of which he had been a life long member."

Wesley and Nancy Graves were the parents of 12 children. . . . The Family:

The children were all born in Ohio. They were:

3. Elizabeth, b Dec 12, 1826, d Dec 3, 1885, m 1846 to Robert Stewart (1824-1905).

II. THE ELIZABETH GRAVES STEWART FAMILY

Elizabeth Graves, oldest daughter of Wesley and Nancy, was married to Robert Stewart in 1846. The Stewarts were of Irish ancestry.

The Robert Stewarts lived for six years in a small house on land belonging to Wesley Graves. It was located just over the hill to the southeast on the road leading to the Graves schoolhouse and only a scant half-mile from the Graves home. Robert had learned the cooper's trade as a young man and upon his marriage he built a cooper's shop near the Stewart house. The shop was still standing some sixty years later when my brother and I visited the old home community.

Why the trip to Indiana? Most likely it was to scout for land, for soon Uncle Robert went back to Indiana, this time by canal to Lake Erie, steamer to Maumee

Canal, off at Lagro, and afoot eight miles south, where he bought 80 acres of land. Back home, he borrowed $100 and set out with his family in a covered wagon for the new place in Wabash County about four miles east of LaFontaine. This was in September, 1853.

The Stewarts were the parents of six sons and seven daughters; however, the descendants are of the families of the six sons and one daughter: James Wesley, Frank Corwin, Willie Benton, Julia Ann, John Wade, Charles Edward, and William Robert.

At 87, Dr Sam took a good while to figure out that I was the son of Margaret Graves, but once his head cleared, his mind was flooded with memories of the Graves family in Ohio and the playmates among mother's older brothers; he was especially struck with the memory of Willis Graves and his great physical strength. He had to take time to tell how Willie could get down on all fours and as many as could would stack on top of him and try to hold him down, but Willis Graves would always shuffle them off and come up smiling. Which calls to mind the stories I heard, and I take too much time in the telling, but Willie was the "strong man" of the Coshocton neighborhood at 22 years of age when he left, never to return to that neighborhood again. And it was said of him in the sluice mining in California that he won bets in achieving feats of superior strength.

Joe was undersized--the smallest of the Graves sons--but small in body only, mighty in energy and action. His small stature is in sharp contrast to that of Willis "the strong one." We have a picture of these two brothers, shown on another page. The brothers met after a separation of 36 years. We find Willis entering our narrative several times. His picture is on a later page, along with his sister (my mother) Margaret. And his prowess as a strong man has been mentioned in other places. But in another ten years Willis--still single--went back to Denver where he died ten years later (it was in 1898). His death certificate contained the words, "no known relatives" and they buried his remains in a pauper's grave. Later the error was rectified, and Uncle Willis was reburied in a respectable manner."

6. Mary Jane, b June 21, 1832, d Dec 18, 1871, m 1854 to Robert Franklin Lockard (1834-1883).

The marriage of Mary Jane Graves and Robert Franklin Lockard had an optimistic outlook 'til Robert went away to war and died of typhoid fever. In the short seven or eight years of their marriage, they had bought and improved a small farm, and had become the parents of four sons and a daughter.

It was only natural that with five children, they should feel hampered for lack of room; so they traded their well-improved little farm for a larger but unimproved place in Stark County, Indiana. Mary Jane refused to be crushed by her bereavement, and with courage found a way to take her family to the Hoosier farm. The farm proved to be a mosquito-infested swamp where the terrible scourge of malaria never lifted. Words fail us to picture this widowed mother struggling to hold her loved ones together against the cruel, impossible odds for four long years. The poor woman held out until she was stricken with tuberculosis. Then her only refuge was the home of her father, where her passing was made doubly tragic by having to leave her children destitute and scattered.

This record indicates that Sophia (Loder) Graves was born in December 1838.

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Sophia Graves ated on July 20, 1906, in the Webster County Argus, Red Cloud, Nebraska, and her death on July 14, 1906:

"Sophia Graves.

Mrs. Sophia Graves, who died at Martinsburg, Mo., Saturday morning, was brought to this city for burial Monday morning, and the funeral rites were duly observed Tuesday afternoon, under the auspices of the Christian church, the Rev. Davis preaching the sermon. Mrs. Graves was born in Coshocton, Ohio, December 8, 1837. She was married to Joseph Graves, December 31st, 1863, and removed with her husband and family to this county in 1880. Until 1885 the home of the family was near Bladen. Since that year the home has been in this city. She and her husband were earnest members of the Christian church. Fifteen children were born, of whom nine were living at the time of her death. Although she has been in declining health for a number of years, there was no thought of her possible death at the time of its occurrence. She had been visiting relatives in Ohio, Illinois and Missouri, and her return in better health and spirits was expected, when her children and friends were shocked to receive the news of her sudden death. Heart failure, to which she was liable, brought a quick release from the ills of flesh and the trials of spirit. Her husband had preceded her to the tomb several years ago. The children who remain to mourn her departure are: Leslie, Emma and Earnest, of this city; Charles W. Graves, of McCook; J. W. Graves of Atlantic, Iowa; Mrs. Charles Rawlson, Martinsburg, Mo; Joseph E. Graves, Merna, Nebraska; Frank Graves, Randolph, Iowa."

Newspapers.com also listed the following obituary for Sophia Loder Graves on July 20, 1906, in the Red Cloud Chief, Red Cloud, Nebraska:

"Mrs. Sophia Graves.

The many friends of Mrs. Sophia Graves were pained to learn of her sudden death which occurred at Martinsburg, Missouri, on Saturday last. While she had been in ill health for some time past no one expected her sickness to result fatally, and she was visiting her daughter in Missouri, expecting by rest and change of scene to regain her usual strength. Death came quickly, she having arisen in the morning and eaten a hearty breakfast, after which she had planned work to be done during the day. About 3 a. m. she became suddenly ill and before assistance could be obtained she had passed away. The body was brought to Red Cloud by her son-in-law, Chas. Rollison and the funeral was held from the Christian church on Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Davis in charge.

Mrs. Sophia Loder Graves was 68 years of age at the time of her death, having been born near Coshocton, Ohio, December 8, 1837. She was married to Joseph Graves, December 31, 1854, and after living near the old home for some years they removed to Mahaska county, Iowa, in 1867 and again to Webster county, Nebraska, in 1880, where they resided on a farm near Bladen. In 1885 they removed to Red Cloud where she has since lived. Her husband died in this city seven years ago.

Fifteen children were the result of this union, nine of whom are still living. Six of these were present to follow the mortal remains of the mother to their last resting place in the cemetery. Those present were J. W. Graves, of Atlantic, Iowa; Mrs. Alice Riggins, of Bladen; C. W. Graves, of McCook, and Leslie, Ernest and Emma, of this city. The deceased was an earnest Christian woman, having been a member of the church of her choice since she was 21 years of age, and she will be greatly missed by a large circle of friends in that body as well as throughout the entire community."

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Sophia Graves in Red Cloud Cemetery, Red Cloud, Webster County, Nebraska, and her death on July 14, 1906:

IV. The Joseph Graves Family

A few reminiscences intrude as I recall the Joe Graves family. Joe was undersized--the smallest of the Graves sons--but small in body only, mighty in energy and action. His small stature is in sharp contrast to that of Willis "the strong one." We have a picture of these two brothers, shown on another page.

Although Joe Graves was slight in build, those who crossed his path or raised his ire found themselves confronted by a mad hornet. This was Joe Graves for as long as he lived. Even his brothers learned to respect his fiery attacks and give him a wide berth in the inevitable squabbles among brothers (as in the famous Joe Kennedy family of our day).

I once heard Aunt Sophia say that when Uncle Joe was away at the war, she carried on by herself, facing the elements in all kinds of weather, raising and harvesting crops. And I am quite sure that the pair found themselves at about the end of their rope, for the war had left them empty-handed. But with a loan from the Stewarts who had prospered in Indiana, Joe and Soph were able to move to Iowa and get started farming. He first joined Albert in Mahaska County, Iowa, but they were not together very long. And in the next few years Joseph moved several times. It was not until sometime in the seventies that they found a permanent home at Red Cloud, Nebraska.

Here again, Joe Graves proved that there was nothing small about his activities. He turned his attention to wheat farming, and the letters he wrote to Grandfather about his activities would make good chapters for Gulliver's Travels. His wheat acreage would stagger the imagination. It was about 1878 that Joe and Sophia visited us in Ohio, with the twins, Ed and Charley. I was too small to understand that their purpose must have been to make an impression on the old home neighborhood. They could not have appeared more prosperous.

Joseph was the seventh of the Wesley Graves family, but the fifth to reach maturity. He was one of the four brothers who saw service in the Civil War — a member of the 69th Regiment; a corporal of Co C. He was married to Sophia Loder, daughter of a prominent Pennsylvania family: Isaac and Rebecca Loder.

....

The Joseph Graves family had the tragic experience of losing four children to the scourge of diphtheria, two in 1863 and two in 1867.

The History Of The Early Settlement Of Norton County, Kansas, by Francis

Marion Lockard, published in 1894, included the following biographical sketch of J. W. Graves:

"J. W. Graves was born in Coshocton county, Ohio, September 4, 1836 ; raised on a farm had but a limited education. He volunteered September 1, 1861 in company D. 57 Ohio volunteer infantry, served but one year when taken sick he was discharged. In the latter part of 1863 he helped to organize a militia company which was called out May, 1864; was out with them 120 days, and was again discharged. He was in no engagements in either of his enlistments though with his company continuously. He was married to Mary A. Hastings September 1869. Had the misfortune to lose his wife by accident, she being burned to death in December, 1871. Was again married September, 1873 to Mary Buchanan. She was born in Holmes county, Ohio, April 14, 1845. They moved to Waubunsee county, Kansas in March 1878, and September of same year moved to Norton county and homesteaded the farm on which they still live. By his first marriage there was one child William W. Graves, born July 9, 1870; he attended the Norton school and taught his first term the spring after he was 18, taught two winter terms in Noble township of this county. In 1893 he purchased the jewelry stock of Mac Reeves and went into partnership with Hobert Kelley in that business. They afterward divided the stock; he is now running part of it in Oberlin, Kansas. By his second marriage J. W. Graves has six children, the eldest. Clifford Stanley, born August 16, 1884; Edna Lee born January 2 , 1876 ; Robert Burchard born October 12, 1877; Lulu Merle September 7, 1882; Gertrude Nellie September 22, 1884; and Mildred Irene April 2, 1890. He with Albert Graves, his brother, entered the hardware trade at Norton, Kansas, the spring of 1879. J. W Graves served as postmaster of Norton from March, 1883 to October 1885; was in the real estate and loan business for two years, again in the hardware one year, then on the farm one year, and again appointed postmaster December, 1890 and is now filling that position. He was a delegate from this county to congressional convention held at Stockton in 1886 and supported Lewis Handback. He takes an active part in temperance and charitable work; is an active member of the Christian church."

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for J. W. Graves dated on March 9, 1914, in the Daily Telegram, Norton, Kansas, and his death on March 8, 1914:

"J. W. Graves. Passed Away

Pioneer Of Norton Dies At Home In Norton Sunday Morning

Funeral Held Tuesday

Old Resident and Business Man Former Postmaster of Norton A Pioneer Farmer.

J. W. Graves, an old citizen of Norton died at his home in this city, Sunday morning after an illness of several years.

Mr. Graves has been identified with Norton in many ways for the past 30 years. He was a pioneer merchant, former postmaster and a prominent farmer here for years. His farm when sold, just east of this city in the Prairie Dog valley, was the highest priced land sale a few years ago ever known in the county. Mr. Graves received more than $100 an acre for the entire quarter section.

The funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30.

In Lockards' history of Norton, we find the following biography of him:

[biographical sketch not repeated here except for this revised portion]

He has one son by his first marriage, William W. Graves, born July 9, 1870. By his second marriage, he had six children: the eldest, Clifford Stanley born August, 1874; Edna Lee, Jan. 1876 now wife of G. G. Guthrie. Robert Buchard born Oct. 12, 1877; Lulu Merle wife of J. S. Kuntz of Oklahoma Sept., 1882; Gertrude, wife of T. M. Heaton Sept. 1884; Mildred Irene April, 1890, wife of Alvin Taylor of Tecumseh, Neb.

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Mary (Buchanan) Graves dated on April 1, 1920, in The Champion, Norton, Kansas, and her death on March 19, 1920:

"Obituary.

Mrs. Mary Graves died at her home in Norton on Friday, March 19, 1920, of cancer, after an illness of five months.

She was born in Holmes county, Ohio, April 14, 1845.

Mary Buchanan was married to J. Wesley Graves, at her home in Ohio on September 24, 1873. They came to Kansas in 1877 and to Norton in 1878, and have resided here continuously ever since that time. The husband and one infant son preceded her to the great beyond. Six children and a step-son, W. W. Graves, of Oklahoma City, survive her; Stanley M. Graves of Judith Gap, Montana; Edna L. Guthrie of Norton; R. B. Graves of Norton; Lulu Kuntz of Lawton, Oklahoma; Gertrude Heaton of Norton, and Mildred Taylor of Tecumseh Nebraska.

Two sisters, Mrs. Minerva Grey, of Lawton Mo., and Mrs. Sadie V. Lore of Denver, Colo., also survive her.

The funeral at the home on Wednesday at 10 a. m. was conducted by A. L. Drummond of the Christian church of which the deceased was a member.

Stanley M. and Lulu were unable to be present; the other members of the immediate family and several nephews and nieces and other relatives attended the funeral.

She was interred by the side of her husband in the Norton cemetery.

Mrs. Graves kept well informed on current events and took a keen interest in public affairs, but owing to her infirmities had been confined to her home for many years.

She was devoted to her family and employed herself in making her home a pleasant and enjoyable retreat for her children and grand-children."

V. The John Wesley Graves Family

"Uncle John Wesley Graves, my father's brother, one of whom I never heard an unkind word spoken. A prince among men." So reads the tribute written by a niece on the back of the photograph of John Wesley Graves. I echo these sentiments, and I am glad, while still in the flesh, to add a mite of praise to the good name of John Wesley Graves.

The six Graves brothers were all "very different." Willis was the strong and cheerful one; Elizaphan the sickly and melancholy. Joseph was a buzz saw of energy and action; Albert the one to control large operations from a swivel chair.

Nathaniel was the Nomad (how many times did he move before settling down?)
And what of John Wesley?

Let us take a second look at Uncle Wes. He lived at home with his parents until he was 33 years old. Then he induced his father to let him have his legacy, which he took in land. Then he settled down within a stone's throw of the old folks. If he had one quality that would specially characterize him, it would be tolerance -- agreeableness and even temper. I believe he could have gotten along as a partner with any of his brothers -- and that is more than could be said of any of the others.

Now I think of the interest Uncle Wes had in public debate. He was fond of the pastime and became known as an outstanding debater. It was one of his diversions in the long years before his marriage. As I have noted elsewhere, the public school was a sort of forum. When I was told that Wes was particularly good at this activity, my admiration for him went up a notch or two.

In the way of conducting debates, the opening speech would be a prepared, formal address. The person following would come unprepared -- not even knowing what the topic was. But he must listen to the first speech, supposedly taking notes. Then the reply would be from these notes or from memory, strictly extemporaneous. Thus the debate may be a fine discipline. After hearing an argument, to be able to stand before an audience and refute the argument point by point is one of the Finest acquisitions of mind.

And I think of his ability with tools. When Grandfather's house was completely destroyed by fire -- only a short time after the insurance had expired -- Uncle Wes came to the rescue by putting up a new house on the ashes of the old. He performed most of the labor himself, and took land in payment. In this way, Grandfather got by without financial embarrassment. Much later, when I visited in Kansas, Uncle Wes had a more attractive home than Uncle Ab. I had expected just the opposite, but I imagine the knack with tools made the difference.

John Wesley was the eighth of the Wesley Graves children, born in Coshocton County, Ohio, in 1836. He served in the Civil War one year in Co D, 57th Ohio Volunteer Infantry in 1861; then he helped organize a militia company in 1863 that was called to active service in 1864. He was married to Mary Alfreda Hastings in 1869; she met death accidentally (in a fire) in 1871. The second wife was Mary Buchanan to whom he was married in 1873.

John Wesley moved to Kansas in 1878; first to Waubunsee County, then in a few months he went on to Norton, settling on a homestead just east of the town of Norton. Here, of course, were the Lockard children and brother Albert Graves -- they had come out in 1874. J W was active in the hardware business for seven years, real estate and loans for two years, and postmaster for ten years.

His church life meant much to him; he was long active in the Christian Church at Norton. His religion was a way of life, even more than an expression of faith. His devotion to home and family was most admirable. His wife was practically an invalid for much of her life, but Uncle Wes never lost patience, and never ceased to maintain that his marriage was the happiest of all the Graveses. He was equally devoted to his aging father. One of Grandfather's chief joys in his last years with us in Indiana was the letters he received from Uncle Wes. Other relatives wrote occasionally, but all of them together did not equal those from Uncle Wes.

This record indicates that Albert Graves and Ethelinda (Durham or Dunham) Graves were born in about 1839.

The History Of The Early Settlement Of Norton County, Kansas, by Francis Marion Lockard, published 1894, included the following biographical sketch of Albert Graves:

"Albert Graves was born June 30, 1843 in Coshocton county, Ohio; was raised on a farm and received a common school education; when twenty-two years old he attended college one year at Haysville, Ashland county. In April, 1861 he went west to Bureau county, Illinois, where he remained until October 29 at which time he was married to Ethelinda S. Dunham, and immediately returned to his old home in Ohio. In August 1862 he volunteered in the 97th Ohio infantry and after a short service of two months was discharged. He then moved to Bureau county, Illinois, where he remained until March 1865 at which time he moved to Mahaska county, Iowa; bought raw prairie land and made a farm where he remained until April 1874. He then moved to Norton county, and located five miles east of Norton on a claim formerly taken by John Price. In January 1875 he made proof on the Price land and moved down the creek and took a homestead. The same land is now owned by George Smith. During the county seat trouble he was active in behalf of Norton. In 1879 he purchased the farms of John and Isiah Williams, five miles east of Norton, where he lived until 1880. He then purchased school land, one mile east of Norton, where he has since resided. The first five years he was in this country he followed farming and stock raising. In 1879 he and his brother John Wesley embarked in the hardware business at Norton, which they continued until 1885 when they sold out to Davis Brothers, retaining their building and book accounts, which were considerable; but on January 2 , 1886 they lost both, without insurance, by the big fire.

Albert was elected to the legislature in 1880, defeating A. S. Burroughs, the democratic nominee. During the session he secured the passage of a bill refunding the county indebtedness at a low amount of interest; he was also an active supporter of the prohibitory law that was enacted in the state for the first time that winter. He was instrumental in instituting the first Masonic lodge in this city and was chosen master.

He was the first president of the Norton Agricultural Association; was in the real estate and loan business from 1885 to 1887. He and J. W. then purchased the hardware stock of E. Kostomlatsky which they run for a year, selling out to Milz and Garrity in 1889. Since that time he has been in the stock business.

Mr. and Mrs Graves raised a family of seven children; John W. was born in Bureau county Illinois, November 14, 1864; Frances B. in Mahaska county, Iowa, August 4, 1866; Willie A. in Mahaska county, Iowa on May 30, 1871; the remaining four, Maggie S., Charlie H., Frederick W. and Harvie E. were born in Norton county.

His eldest son John W. was married to Laura Hatcher May 3, 1887; they reside in Norton and have three children. He is engaged in the stock business with his father.

Frances Isabelle , his eldest daughter, was married to Charles Mathews in March 1882. They now reside in Norton. He is a school teacher by occupation.

William Graves was married in November 1891 to Ollie VanBuren and has one child. They live on a farm near Norton."

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary of Albert Graves dated on June 7, 1906, in The Champion, Norton, Kansas, and his death on June 3, 1906:

"Obituary.

Albert Graves died last Sunday morning at 6 o'clock after an illness of many months; interment in the Norton cemetery on Monday conducted by the Masons. The funeral services at the home were conducted by Rev. A. L. Drummond.

The zinc etching used in this space is one made twelve years ago from a photograph and used in Lockard's History of Norton county, the historian being a nephew of the deceased. In that history is a good narrative of the life and labors of the deceased.

He was born in Ohio 30 June 1843. Was a volunteer in the 97 Ohio infantry. In 1874 he moved to this county, where he engaged at various times in farming, the hardware business, the land business, and was almost a banker - having traded for Heaton's bank, but Morgan rued bargain.

He was the first master of the Masonic lodge here, the first president of the old Agricultural association.

In 1861 he was married to Ethelinda S. Dunham in Illinois. To them were born seven children, five sons and two daughters, all of them at the funeral and residents of the county.

If we had been asked the man most supreme physically and morally in the county a few years ago, we should have named Albert Graves, a handsome man with perfect habits to the death.

He was such a man as to be admired and respected by the whole community, a man of distinguished lineage and noble instincts."

This record indicates that Ethelinda (Durham or Dunham) Graves was born in about 1839.

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary of Ethelinda S. (Durham) Graves dated on June 21, 1917, in the Norton County News, Norton, Kansas:

"Obituary.

Ethelinda S. Durham was born in Hamilton county, Missouri, March 5, 1839. The family moved to Iowa and then to Bureau county, Illinois. Her she united in marriage to Albert Groves, October 31, 1861. The home was in Bureau county, Illinois, until 1865 when they moved west, first settling in Makaska [Mahaska] county, Iowa, remaining there until April 1874, when they came to Norton county, Kansas, settling on a homestead six miles northeast of Norton.

To this union were born ten children: five boys and five girls. Five of these have preceded the mother, some in infancy and others along with the father in more recent years. Those who remain are John W. Graves of Norton, Mrs. Frances Belle Matthews of Norton, Mrs. Maggie S. Wright of Norton, Charles H. Graves of Denver, Colorado, and Frederick W. Graves of Norton. With this group of sons and daughters there are eleven grandchildren, four great grand children, many other relatives by marriage and a host of intimate acquaintances and friends whose hearts deeply mourn the departure of our sister.

In her early years she gave her life to the Christ uniting with the Christian church. She with her husband became charter members of the Christian church at Norton which was first organized at Neighborville as Calvert was then called. Every member of the church mourns the loss of this kind loving saint from our midst. We are poorer but Heaven is richer. After days of suffering, despite all the loving children and friends could do she parted from this life Wednesday evening, June 13, 1917. Aged 78 years, 2 months and 28 days.

'Servant of God, well done!
Thy glorious warfare's past,
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last.' "

This record indicates that Ethelinda S. (Durham or Dunham) Graves was born on March 15, 1839.

VI. The Albert Graves Family

Somewhere in these pages I have quoted mother as saying that her brother Albert was not as industrious as her other brothers, but that he had a better head for business than any of them. That statement came to me in full force as I got a glimpse of Uncle Ab's life and his way of doing things. And I confess to a high degree of admiration for a man who can sit in a swivel chair and direct the movement of several thousand head of cattle in herds on the hoof in western pastures, through the several steps until they become carcasses labeled "corn fed" and swinging by the thousands from the ceiling of a great cooling room of a packing company in Chicago. (And, brother, if you insist on following through that cooling room, permit me to suggest that you put on your winter overcoat.)

It was in 1897 that I took a trip west. I was at Uncle Ab's for a two-three day look-in on the family and its life. Albert had purchased several thousand head of cattle, and placed them on grazing land in southwest Kansas. Two of his older sons were on the job looking after the herds. When conditions were right, Uncle Ab would give the signal to have the cattle entrained for feedlots, maybe to St Joe or Omaha. Then after some weeks and again if conditions were favorable, they would be put on the market and bring top prices as cornfed animals.

But the cattle narrative gets me ahead of my story. Albert was the ninth of the Wesley Graves family, born in 1838. He attended college at Haysville, Ashland County, Ohio, for a term. He was enlisted in the 97th Ohio Infantry in the Civil War period. Albert and Ethelinda Durham were married in 1862. According to my mother, the Durhams of Bureau County, Illinois, had the reputation of being an "up and coming" family. Maybe it was the energetic Durhams that caused Albert and Ethelinda to pull away and homestead a prairie farm in Mahaska County, Iowa.

Then in 1874 the Albert Graves Family, now with five children, left Iowa and went on to Norton Kansas -- about the western limits for the homesteader. Two of the Lockard boys, living with the Graves in Iowa at the time, went on to Norton also, and tethered their horses at Norton in April, 1897. So, within a few years this hamlet on the Prairie Dog was the home of three of the eight families of the Wesley Graves line: Albert, John Wesley, and the Lockard children.

Altogether, Uncle Ab farmed for some fifteen years. He was in the hardware business with his brother. He was active in community affairs: the first president of the Norton Agricultural Association, and once a member of the State Legislature. But it was as a cattleman that Ab Graves was unique.

VII. The Margaret Graves McDonald Family

Margaret Graves and James William McDonald were married September 29, 1870, with a popular local minister, Andrew Hanger, solemnizing the vows. James had attended Granville (later Dennison) College, earned a teacher's certificate, and taught several terms of district school. The Graves district hired him for one term, during which he lived in the home of Squire Graves; that is how they came to know each other.

My parents began housekeeping on a poorly-improved farm of 80 ,acres, about two miles northwest, but in a few months it seemed better for my parents to move in with Grandfather Wesley Graves. This proved to be a very happy arrangement, lasting about 20 years. My parents had nine children, of whom two sons and four daughters lived to adulthood. Again I should mention that my brother and I adopted the spelling MacDonald for our surname.

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Abraham B. Akeroyd dated on September 20, 1919, in The Coshocton Tribune, Coshocton, Ohio:

"A. B. Akeroyd Dies In West

A. B. Akeroyd, a former resident of Virginia-tp, better known as "Batty" Akeroyd, died at his home at Ossawattomie, Kansas, Friday morning from senility, according to a telegram received by a sister-in-law, Mrs. Henry Akeroyd, 313 south Third-st. Mr. Akeroyd was 81 years of age.

Mr. Akeroyd moved to Kansas 30 years ago and for several years was superintendent of the Kansas state hospital. He retired several years ago. During his residence in Coshcoton-co he was a farmer.

He is survived by the widow, who was formerly Miss Lucy Kitchen, of Coshocton-co. Six children, all living in Kansas, survive. He was the last member of his parents' family. May friends and distant relatives live in Coshocton-co.

The message received here contained no details concerning the funeral arrangements, but he will be buried there."

Newspapers.com also listed the following obituary for Abraham B. Akeroyd dated on September 25, 1919, in the Osawatomie Graphic, Osawatomie, Kansas:

"Death Claims Pioneer.

Aged Civil War Veteran and Kansas Pioneer Dies; Burial Took Place Monday.

Abraham B. Akeroyd, 81 years old, a Civil war veteran and a resident of Kansas for nearly a half century, died at his home, 1129 West Walnut street, Friday, Sept. 19. Funeral services were conducted at 2:30 Monday at the home by Rev. Joel A. Barker, of the Methodist church, followed by burial in Elmdale cemetery,

Mr. Akeroyd's age at the time of his death was 80 years, 11 months and 26 days. He was born in Yorkshire, England but moved to Ohio at an early age and enlisted and served with the Union army throughout the war of the rebellion as a volunteer from that state. In 1876 he removed to Topeka and was in business in that city for about 20 years. He removed to Osawatomie in 1869. He has taken an active part in the religious movements of this city and all movements tending to develop a better citizenship and a more influential community. He was a prominent member of the local G. A. R. post and his burial was conducted under the direction of that organization. Pallbearers were selected from the post membership and were J. W. Anderson, T. H. Hunt, G. W. Lessenden, Orri Hoag, A. J. Foster and M. A. Bishop. He is survived by his wife and six children. The children are as follows: Mrs. Laura Hartzell, Topeka; Mrs. Wynona Dunlap, Little Rock, Ark.; Mrs. Bessie Spaulding, Osawatomie; Mrs. Jennie Huntley, Wichita; Mrs. Mary Fuller, Holsington; and George Akeroyd, Osawatomie."

Findagrave.com listed the joint gravestone of Abraham B. Akeroyd and Lucy Akeroyd in Elmdale Cemetery, Osawatomie, Miami County, Kansas:

The Story of Wesley Graves: 1802-1890 And His Descendants, by Stewart Lincoln MacDonald Who Is A Grandson, prepared and published by Stewart Lincoln MacDonald in 1966, stated that:

Wesley and Nancy Graves were the parents of 12 children. . . . The Family:

. . . .

The children were all born in Ohio. They were:

. . . .

12. Amelia, b Sep 8, 1846, d Feb 14, 1880, m Oct 4, 1872 to Abraham Batty Akeroyd (1839-1918).

Amelia, youngest of the Graves children was the victim of the "white plague" and lived only to age 35. She left two small children; only one -- Nancy Laura had a family of her own. An old newspaper clipping gives the obituary of this young mother:

"AKEROID, Amelia D. Graves, was born in Coshocton County, Ohio, April 6, 1845. She took upon herself the obligation of a Christian life according to her conviction of duty, in the fifteenth year of her life, and ever after until her death, sought to lead a consistent Christian life. She was united in marriage with A. B. Akeroyd Oct. 24, 1872 and died at her home on the morning of Feb. 4, 1880. A bereaved husband and two children mourn the loss of this dear wife and mother. May the Master bless and keep them."

VIII. The Amelia Graves Akeoryd Family

Amelia, born April 6, 1845, was the youngest of the children of Wesley Graves. She was married in 1872 to Abraham Batty Akeroyd, who was born in England and came with his family to Roscoe as a young man. The Akeroyds would have been spoken of in England as an "upper middle-class" family. Abraham and Amelia began their married life some two or three miles out in a small community known as Coal Hollow. Their home was not pretentious, but comfortable and adequate. To all appearances, the young family was off to a good start toward a long and happy life. Three girls came to add their prattle to the connubial joys. Then suddenly, heaven claimed the oldest child, the mother fell victim to the "white plague" and the young widower was left with two helpless children.

The Akeroyd family came to the rescue and provided a home for the little ones. Then a few years later Abraham Batty found a new wife and a mother for his children. The wife, Lucy Kitchen, is said to have been all that one could wish for. They moved to Topeka, Kansas, and we lost sight of them. Both girls married: Wynona to John Dunlap, no children; and Laura to Joseph Hartzell. The Hartzells had nine children.

History Of Coschocton County, Its Past And Present, 1740-1881, compiled by N. N. Hill and published in 1881, stated that Willis Wright was a son of Joseph Wright of Virginia Township:

"Joseph Wright and Joseph McCoy came together into the township December 24, 1806. Mr. McCoy settled upon the southwest quarter of section twenty-five - where he lived until he died. Joseph Wright was his son-in-law, and had one child, Willis, when he came to the county, who is now a resident of Coshocton. Both were from Virginia. Mr. Wright lived with his father-in-law one year, then moved further up the creek to lot 3, where he lived during the remainder of his life. Probably no one in the township was more prominent than he. He died April 1, 1867, at the age of eighty-seven years."

Died July 27, 1891
Aged 84 Yrs. 11 Mo. 2 Ds.

Dorothy M.
Wife Of
Willis Wright.
Died Aug. 21, 1894
Aged 77 Y. 1 M. 12 D."

The will of Willis Wright was dated on June 28, 1887, probated on August 19, 1891, at Coshocton County, Ohio, W.B. 5/405, and provided as follows:

"Willis Wright, Deceased,)	August 10th. 1891.
Will of.)	Will filed.

This day an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of Willis Wright, late of Tuscarawas Township, in this county, deceased, was produced in open court for probate, and it is now ordered that the said will be filed in this court, and that due notice thereof and of the application to admit the same to probate and record be given to Dorothy M. Wright, Sarah A. Dawson,

Mary A. Webb, Phoebe J. Bell, Willis Larr, Orville Larr, Elizabeth Markley, Jane Barclay, Moses Larr, Dora Clark and James Larr, next of kin of the testator, resident of the State of Ohio, nine days prior thereto, that said application will be for hearing before this court, on the 19th day of August 1891, at 2 o'clock, P.M.

Wm. R. Gault,
Probate Judge.

And afterwards, to-wit: on said 19th day of August 1891, the findings and orders of this court relative to the last will and testament of Willis Wright, deceased, were entered on the Journal in words and figures following, to wit:

Willis Wright, Deceased,	)	August 19th. 1891.
Will of.	)	Admitted to Probate.

Be it remembered, that, heretofore, to-wit: on the 10th day of August, 1891, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of Willis Wright, late of Tuscarawas Township, in this county, deceased, was produced in open court and offered for probate and was then filed. And it now being shown to the satisfaction of the court, that due notice of the filing of said will and of the application to admit the same to probate and record in this court, has been given to the next of kin of the testator, resident of the state of Ohio, pursuant to a former order of this court; thereupon on this day came J. M. Compton, William H. Robinson, Sr. and W. A. Himebaugh, the subscribing witnesses to said will, who being duly sworn, testified to the due execution and attestation of said will, which testimony was reduced to writing, by them respectively subscribed, and filed with said will.

Whereupon the court finds that the aforesaid instrument of writing is the last will and testament of said Willis Wright, deceased; that the same was duly executed and attested, and that the said testator, at the time of making, signing and sealing the same, was of full age, of sound mind and memory, and not under any restraint. It is therefore, by the court ordered, that the said will be admitted to probate, and that the same, together with the testimony of the witnesses above named, be entered of record in this court.

Wm. R. Gault
Probate Judge.

The Will.

In the name of the Benevolent Father of All: I, Willis Wright of Coshocton, Ohio, do make and publish this my last will and testament.

Item 1st. It is my will that after my decease all my just debts be first paid including last sickness.

Item 2nd. I will and bequeath to my daughter Mary E. Webb the sum of three hundred dollars.

Item 3rd. I will and bequeath to my children including my son-in-law Daniel Larr any money they may owe me at my decease and I authorize my wife to deliver to them the notes I may hold against them.

Item 4th. I will bequeath and devise to my beloved wife Dorothy M. Wright all the residue of my property both real and personal to be hers absolutely to dispose of as she may wish by sale will or gift.

Item 5th. I hereby revoke all former wills by me made.

Item 6th. It is my will and wish that no inventory or appraisement of my estate be made after my decease and the court is directed to have the same omitted. I name my wife as my executor of my will, and desire that the court do not require her to give a bond as such executrix.

In testimony hereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 28" day of June, A. D. 1887.

Willis Wright

Signed sealed and acknowledged by said Willis Wright as his last will and testament in our presence and signed by us in his presence.

J. M. Clompton.
William H. Robinson, Sr.
W. A. Himebaugh.

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Dorothy M. Wright dated on Friday, August 24, 1894, in The Democratic Standard, Coshocton, Ohio, and her death on August 21, 1894:

"An Old Lady Resident Dies.

Mrs. Dorothy M. Wright, relict of Willis Wright, died at her home in this city, corner of Eight and Chestnut street, Tuesday last, of general bodily ailments, resulting from an attack of flux. Her age was a little more than seventy-seven years, and she was well and favorably known to many of our citizens, having long been a resident of Coshocton. The remains were taken to the vicinity of Willow Brook, on Wednesday, where funeral services, conducted by Rev. C. M. Hagans, were held at Christian Chapel, following which interment was made in the burial ground adjoining the church."

As set forth above, Findagrave.com listed the joint gravestone of Dorothy M. Wright and Willis Wright in Christian Chapel Cemetery, Coshocton County, Ohio.

The death record of Sarah A. Dawson dated on September 4, 1913, in Coshocton, Coshocton County, Ohio, listed her parents as Willis Wright and Elizabeth McCoy and her birth on March 23, 1836, in Ohio.

Joseph Washington McCoy 1766-1840 of Coshocton County, Ohio, His Descendants and Related Families, by B. Isabel Lockard, stated that Willis Wright was a son of Joseph Wright and Elizabeth (McCoy) Wright, was born in 1806, and died in 1891.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1891 Willis Wright and Elizabeth (McCoy) Wright were the following:

- 1) Phebe Jane (Wright) Bell, born in August 1831 or on November 3, 1831, or on August 24, 1832, or in about 1833 in Ohio,
- 2) Mary Ellen (Wright) (Ismail) Webb, born in about 1834 or 1835 in Ohio,
- 3) Amelia Ann (Wright) Larr, born in about 1835 or on February 16, 1836, in Ohio,
- 4) Sarah A. (Wright) Dawson, born on March 23, 1836, or on July 23, 1836, or in July 1837 or in about 1838 in Ohio,

5) Elizabeth Wright, possibly Elizabeth (Wright) Burt, born in about 1840 in Ohio, and

6) Nancy E. or Almira Wright, born in about 1843 in Ohio.

"Daniel Larr Dies At Pleasant Valley Home

A stroke of paralysis which he suffered one month ago proved fatal Friday to Daniel Larr, aged 83. Mr. Larr was born near Tunnel Hill and the greater part of his life was spent in Virginia tp., Coshocton county with the exception of the brief period of time spent in the ninety days service during the Civil War. The last two years of his life were spent in Pleasant Valley where he made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Wm. Markley. One month ago he was stricken by paralysis and as a result of this attack he passed away yesterday at the home the daughter in Pleasant Valley.

Mr. Larr was a farmer by occupation. He was from his early youth a member of the Willow Brook Christian church. He was a man who was respected and esteemed by all who knew him.

The wife preceded him to the grave 28 years ago. Two daughters, Mrs. Markley of Pleasant Valley, Mrs. John Clark of Coshocton, Moses Larr of Conesville and James Larr of Tyrone, survive.

Funeral services will be from the Markley home in Pleasant Valley Sunday morning at 9 o'clock Rev. W. A. Leonard of the Seventh street Christian church officiating and interment will take place in South Lawn cemetery."

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Moses Dawson dated on October 19, 1903, in the Coshocton Daily Age, Coshocton, Ohio, and his death on October 19, 1903:

"Moses Dawson Passes Away

Prominent Citizen of County Passes to The Great Beyond.

Moses Dawson, one of Coshocton county's best loved citizens, passed to his eternal reward just as the sun rose above the eastern hills, Monday morning. The end was peaceful, as had been his long and useful life.

The funeral will take place at the residence in this city Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, the services to be in charge of a former pastor of the deceased, Rev. C. M. Hagans, now of Mt. Sterling. Burial will be in South Lawn cemetery.

Mr. Dawson was born in Jackson township the ninth day of November 1834, just a week after his parents had migrated to the new west from their home in old Virginia. During his useful life, he was one of the county's most progressive farmers, and passed the major portion of his days in Virginia township, where by his industry he accumulated many broad acres and other wealth that now passes down to his descendants. A year ago he and his wife came to this city to pass the remainder of their days in rest after their many years of toil. The owned a comfortable home on South Third street.

Forty-nine years ago next January, Moses Dawson was married to Sarah A. Wright, who survives him. To them were born five children, one of whom, Joseph, has preceded the father to the distant shore. The surviving children are: Former County Treasurer S. F. Dawson, Mrs. Sadie Teener, of Guernsey county; W. B. Dawson of franklin township; and S. B. Dawson of this city. The bereaved family has the sympathy of a large circle of warm friends.

Moses Dawson was throughout his life a conscientious christian man, just and kindly in all his dealings with his fellowmen, and one who always carried with him the love and esteem of his neighbors. He early in life became a member of the Virginia Christian church, and has remained firm in the faith.

His death marks the passing of one of the sterling citizens that have always stood for the right in Coshocton county."

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Sarah Wright Dawson dated on Friday, September 5, 1913, in The Coshocton Tribune, Coshocton, Ohio:

"Mrs. Sarah Dawson Called to Reward

Mrs. Sarah Wright Dawson, widow of the late Moses Dawson, died at her home on Mulberry St. Thursday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock after a several weeks' illness of organic heart trouble.

Mrs. Dawson was the daughter of Willis and Elizabeth Wright, pioneer settlers of Virginia township. She was born July 23, 1836 and the seventy-seven years of her life were spent in this county. In January, 1855, Sarah Wright was united in marriage with Moses Dawson, whose people were also among the pioneer settlers of the county. Mr. and Mrs. Dawson lived for a number of years on a farm in Virginia township later moving to Franklin township where they resided until 1902 when they moved to Coshocton. Mr. Dawson died in 1903 and Mrs. Dawson following his death, lived alone in the home on Mulberry St.

For the past two years, Mrs. Dawson had been in failing health but her condition had not been alarming until recently. For several weeks past she had been quite ill but at times rallied and hopes for her recovery were entertained. A few days ago she began to fail rapidly and the end to her long and useful life came Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Dawson was from girlhood a faithful and devoted member of the Willow Brook Christian chapel. She was always loyal to her Christian faith and firm in its defense. During the years of her activity, her hospitable home was always open to the ministers who served the Christian congregation. Even in her later years when her health was much less robust, Mrs. Dawson insisted on keeping her own home where she could extend her hospitality to her friends and relatives. The death of Mrs. Dawson marks the passing of another of Coshocton's pioneer families. She was the last surviving member of a family of six girls. Mrs. Dawson could talk entertainingly of the early days when Coshocton county people knew what real hardship was - she had 'grown up with the county' and she knew hereof she spoke.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses Dawson had four sons and one daughter. One son Joseph, died 22 years ago. The surviving children are Stephen F. Dawson of Franklin township, formerly county treasurer, Mrs. Sarah Teener of Cumberland, Ohio, W. B. Dawson and S. B. Dawson of Coshocton. Twelve grandchildren and three great grandchildren also survive. The great-grandchildren are Helen Dawson, Francis Mowrey and William Ehrich, jr.

Funeral services will be held from the home on Mulberry street Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Rev. W. A. Leonard of the Christian church officiating and burial will take place in South Lawn cemetery."

As set forth above, Findagrave.com listed the joint gravestone of Sarah A. Dawson and Moses Dawson in South Lawn Cemetery, Coshocton, Coshocton County, Ohio.

(E) Elizabeth Wright, Possibly Elizabeth
(Wright) Burt And Her Husband John Burt

Elizabeth Wright, possibly Elizabeth
(1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1866 Joseph⁵, 1891 Willis⁶)

The 1850 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Elizabeth Wright in the Willis Wright household on October 31, 1850, and her age as 10 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1840.

Elizabeth Wright has not as yet been found in the 1860 Census.

There is a marriage record of Elizabeth Wright and John Burt dated on February 25, 1862, in Coshocton County, Ohio.

No direct documentary evidence has as yet been found to identify Elizabeth (Wright) Burt as the daughter of Willis Wright and Elizabeth (McCoy) Wright. However, circumstantial evidence indicates the possibility of that identification.

However, as set forth above, the 1850 Census indicates that Elizabeth Wright, the daughter of Willis Wright and Elizabeth (McCoy) Wright, was born in about 1840 and as set forth below, the 1870 Census indicates that Elizabeth (Wright) Burt was born in about 1840, suggesting that the two Elizabeths might be the same person.

But this evidence is insufficient to raise this identification beyond a mere possibility and further research will be required to confirm or deny that identification.

(F) Nancy E. Or Almira Wright

Nancy E. or Almira Wright was a daughter of 1891 Willis Wright and Elizabeth (McCoy) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1866 Joseph⁵, 1891 Willis⁶)

The 1850 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Nancy E. Wright in the Willis Wright household on October 31, 1850, and her age as 7 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1843.

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Nancy Almi_ Wright in Christian Chapel
Cemetery, Coshocton County, Ohio:

"Nancy Almi_
Daughter

Willis & Eliz_
Wright
Died July ____
Aged 10 Y_

Findagrave.com also listed the following for Nancy Almira Wright:

"Nancy Almira Wright

Birth	Jul 1843
Death	1 Jul 1854 (aged 10–11)
Burial	Christian Chapel Cemetery Virginia Township, Coshocton County, Ohio, USA
Memorial ID	147947129

d/o Willis & Eliz. Wright
Inscription Aged: 10y 11m 20d"

These records indicate that Nancy Almira Wright was born on either July 4 or July 12, 1843.

(III) 1821 William Wright Of Coshocton County,
Ohio

1821 William Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, was a son of 1866 Joseph Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Elizabeth (McCoy) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1866 Joseph⁵)

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of William Wright, son of Joseph and Elizabeth Wright, in McGee Cemetery, Coshocton County, Ohio:

"William
Joseph & Elizabeth
Wright
Died
Nov. 9(?), 1821
Aged 11 yrs
6 mo"

This record indicates that William Wright was born on May 9, 1810.

Joseph Washington McCoy 1766-1840 of Coshocton County, Ohio, His Descendants and Related Families, by B. Isabel Lockard, stated that William Wright was a son of Joseph Wright and Elizabeth (McCoy) Wright, was born in October 1808, died on November 9, 1821, and was buried in the McGee Cemetery, Virginia Township, Coshocton County, Ohio.

(IV) 1893 Joseph Wright, Jr., Of Coshocton
County, Ohio, His Wife Rebecca (Wickersham)
Wright, And His Descendants

1893 Joseph Wright, Jr. of Coshocton County, Ohio, was a son of 1866 Joseph Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Elizabeth (McCoy) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1866 Joseph⁵)

The 1830 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed two Joseph Wrights, one of whom was 1866 Joseph Wright of Coshocton County and the second of whom had the following household:

Aged 83 Y. 4 M. 27 D."

This record indicates that Joseph Wright was born on June 10, 1810.

Findagrave.com also listed the gravestone of Joseph Wright, Jr., in McGee Cemetery, Coshocton County, Ohio:

"Joseph Wright Jr
Died Nov. 7, 1893
Aged 83 Y. 4 M. 27 D."

Joseph Washington McCoy 1766-1840 of Coshocton County, Ohio, His Descendants and Related Families, by B. Isabel Lockard, stated that Joseph Wright, Jr., was a son of Joseph Wright and Elizabeth (McCoy) Wright, was born in 1810, and died in 1893.

From the evidence set forth above, the children of 1893 Joseph Wright and Rebecca (Wickersham) Wright were the following:

- 1) George Wright, born in about 1836 in Ohio, and
- 2) Mary Ann Wright, possibly but probably not Mary Ann (Wright) Shanks, born in about 1840 in Ohio.

(A) George Wright

George Wright was a son of 1893 Joseph Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Rebecca (Wickersham) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1866 Joseph⁵, 1893 Joseph⁶)

The 1850 Census for Morgan County, Ohio, listed George Wright in the Joseph Wright household on August 28, 1850, and his age as 14 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1836.

(B) Mary Ann Wright, Possibly But Probably Not Mary Ann (Wright) Shanks, Her Husband William Shanks, And Her
Descendants

Mary Ann Wright was a daughter of 1893 Joseph Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Rebecca (Wickersham) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1866 Joseph⁵, 1893 Joseph⁶)

The 1850 Census for Morgan County, Ohio, listed Mary Ann Wright in the Joseph Wright household on August 28, 1850, and her age as 10 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1840.

This daughter Mary Ann Wright was possibly, but probably not, Mary Ann (Wright) Shanks. As set forth below, a Mary Ann Wright married William Shanks in 1859 in Morgan County, Ohio, which would be an appropriate time and place for the marriage of Joseph Wright's daughter Mary Ann. That Mary Ann (Wright) Shanks died in 1912 in Morgan County, Ohio, but her death record listed her parents as Perry Wright and ____ Cranahan, which places in doubt her identification as the daughter of Joseph Wright and Rebecca (Wickersham) Wright. In addition, there is a marriage record of Arthur Perry Wright and Catharine McClanahan dated on December 7, 1836, in Morgan County, Ohio, the 1850 Census for Hocking County, Ohio, listed Perry and Catherine Wright with a daughter Mary, born in 1840 in Ohio, and the 1860 Census for Morgan County, Ohio, listed Perry and Catharine Wright with no daughter Mary in their household. These last pieces of evidence support the identification of Mary Ann (Wright) Shanks as the daughter of Arthur Perry Wright and Catherine (McClanahan) Wright and not of Joseph Wright and Rebecca (Wickersham) Wright.

Nevertheless, for convenience of reference, the information found about Mary Ann (Wright) Shanks and her husband William Shanks is set forth below.

The marriage record of Mary A. Wright and William Swank was dated on June 12, 1859, in Morgan County, Ohio:

"The State of Ohio, Morgan County ss.

I Do Hereby Certify That on the 12th day of June A. D. 1859, Wm Swank & Mary A. Wright were, by me, legally united in the Bonds of Matrimony.

It is unclear why Joseph D. Smith was listed as Richard Smith in this record, but the listing of his first three children makes clear that this was the same household as that of

J. B. Smith in the 1870 Census. The listing of 35 year old Lucy as his daughter also indicates that the census taker confused the listings in this household.

The death record of J. D. Smith was dated on June 27, 1881, in Coshocton County, Ohio:

"Mrs. Lucy Smith Dies Early Tues. From Infirmities

Mrs. Lucy Smith, age 79, died at her home, 332 Locust st., this morning at 5 o'clock from kidney trouble and infirmities of age. She had been confined to her bed for the past six weeks.

Mrs. Smith's maiden name was Lucy Wright. She was born in the vicinity of Milfork on September 8, 1844. Mis Wright was married to Joseph D. Smith in 1864. Her husband preceded her to the grave 43 years ago.

To this union were born six children, all of whom survive. They are: George L.

Smith, of New Moscow; W. S. Smith, Springfield, O.; H. D. Smith, Coshocton; Mrs. A. H. Price of Lankershim, Calif.; Mrs. J. D. Cooper and Miss Zora Smith, of the late home. There are also surviving one sister, Mrs. Katherine Waddell, of south Ninth st. and sixteen grandchildren.

She had been a faithful member of the First Baptist church.

Funeral services will be conducted at the local Baptist church at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon with the Rev. W. M. Hart in charge. Burial will be made in South Lawn cemetery."

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for S. S. Waddell dated on February 2, 1906, in The Democratic Standard, Coshocton, Ohio:

"S. S. Waddell Passes Away Wednesday Night

S. S. Waddell, a well-known and highly respected citizen passed away at his home on South Sixth street at 9:45 Wednesday evening. His last illness has been of not more than two weeks duration and consisted of heart and kidney complications. He was not considered seriously ill, however, until Tuesday from when he sank rapidly to his death. Late last night, the physicians held a post mortem examination and learned that paralysis of the bowels had been the immediate cause of his decease.

Mr. Waddell was born Sept. 26, 1843 in Coshocton county and has always lived in this vicinity. For the past fifteen years he has been a resident of this city, where he followed the occupation of carpenter. He was a member of the local Carpenters Union and of the Grand Army. From almost childhood, he was identified with the Baptist church. After his reaching this city, his membership was transferred to the Methodist church, a short time ago.

In 1865 he married Catherine Wright, who still survives him. They had eight children - Henry Waddell, Spokane, Wash., Chas. Waddell, Frank Waddell, James Waddell, of Coshocton; Mrs. Loos of Cambridge Springs, Pa., Mrs. Jones of Muncie, Ind., and Misses Jessie and Lottie Waddell of Coshocton, all living. There are also three sisters - Mrs. George Hill and Mrs. Elsworth LeRetilley, both of Roscoe and Mrs. Lon English, Coshocton, also six grandchildren.

The funeral exercises will take place at the residence on South Sixth Street at two o'clock Friday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Clark, under the auspices of the Grand Army. Interment at South Lawn."

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Benjamin Franklin Wright dated on Tuesday, May 17, 1921, in The Coshocton Tribune, Coshocton, Ohio:

"B. F. Wright Dies Tuesd'y Following Extended Illness

Death following a three years' illness from uremic poisoning claimed Benjamin Franklin Wright, age 70, __3 south Third st and a well known Jackson tp farmer at his home Tuesday morning at 12:20 o'clock. Mr. Wright has been in serious condition for the past 10 days suffering from this ailment.

B. F. Wright was born July 23, 1851 on a farm in Virginia tp. He grew to manhood on this farm. He loved the farm and the greater part of his life was spent in the country.

When a young man, Mr. Wright was married to Miss Marcia McCoy. Mr. and Mrs. Wright would have been married 50 years this November 9 had he lived.

To this marriage nine children were born. Seven of them are living, and two died in infancy.

Mr. Wright and Mrs. Wright moved to Coshocton last October, having lived on the farm near the Pleasant Hill church west of Roscoe for forty years. Mr. Wright had been a consistent member of the Pleasant Hill Baptist church practically all his life.

B. F. Wright was a highly respected man who won the good will of every man he knew thru his courtesies and kind and gentle disposition.

The widow and the following children survive: Dr. E. M. Wright, south Sixth st; Earl Wright, Rochelle, Ill; Harry Wright, Chicago, Ill; Daniel Wright, of the late home; Mrs. Lavilla Senter, south Third st; Mrs. Howard Parrish, Coshocton; and Miss Myrtle Wright of the late home.

The brothers and sisters are W. O. Wright, south Seventh st; Mrs. Catherine Waddell, Cambridge st and Mrs. Lucy Smith, Locust st.

Short funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at the late home on Third st at 1 o'clock and the regular services will be held at the Pleasant Hill church at 2 o'clock in charge of Rev. W. M. Hart, pastor of the Pleasant Hill and Coshocton Baptist churches. Burial will be made at the Pleasant Hill cemetery.

Mr. Wright was a member of the Masonic lodge and the Masons will have charge of his burial."

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Martha Wright dated on August 29, 1940, in The Coshocton Tribune, Coshocton, Ohio:

"Pneumonia Proves Fatal Wednesday to Aged Local Woman\

Mrs. Martha Wright died at 9:15 p. m. Wednesday at her home, 601 Orange st., after three weeks' illness with terminal pneumonia which developed from a fractured right hip. She was 84.

She was born in Coshocton county on Feb. 27, 1856, the daughter of William and Catherine McCoy, and was married on Nov. 9, 1871, to B. F. Wright. He died in 1921.

Mrs. Wright was educated in Coshocton county schools, and spent her entire life in this vicinity. She was a member of the Baptist church.

Surviving are four sons, Dr. Edward M. Wright, this city, Earl L. of Rochelle, Ill., Harry G. of Chicago, and Benjamin of Coshocton Route 5; three daughters, Miss Myrtle of the home, and Mrs. Lovilla Mobley and Mrs. Kathryn Parrish, this city; 22 grandchildren; 14 great grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. Clara Marshall, Route 5. A son, Paul, died at the age of 4, and a daughter died in infancy.

The body may be viewed at the home until Friday noon, when it will be taken to Pleasant Hill church, where services will be held at 2:30 p. m. Friday in charge of the Rev. W. M. Hart and the Rev. J. O. White. Burial will be made in Pleasant Hill cemetery.

Pallbearers are Mrs. Wright's grandchildre, Dale Wright, Robert Parrish, Harry Parrish, Karl Senter, Bert Wright and Frank Wright. Honorary pallbearers, also grandchildren, are Edward Parrish, Paul Stipes, Max Wright, Roy Faber and Kenneth Wright."

As set forth above, Findagrave.com listed the joint gravestone of Martha Wright and B. F. Wright in Pleasant Hill Baptist Cemetery, Coshocton, Coshocton County, Ohio, and her death in 1940.

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for William O. Wright dated on July 25, 1921, in The Coshocton Tribune, Coshocton, Ohio:

"William O. Wright Dies Suddenly At Home Here Monday

William O. Wright died suddenly at 3 o'clock Monday morning at his home, 722 South Seventh st. He had not been in good health for some time, having suffered from neuralgia, tho he had not considered his ailment as being of so serious a nature. He was apparently well Sunday, occupying his accustomed place in the services of his church and assisted in taking the morning offering.

About an hour before his death he was awakened by intense suffering. A physician was summoned but his skill was of no avail, neuralgia of the heart doing its fatal work in a few minutes.

He was born in Virginia tp. May 22, 1853. Practically all his life had been spent in Coshocton co. He was married to Mrs. Mary E. Robson May 8, 1912. His wife, two sisters, Mrs. Lucy Smith, Locust st. and Mrs. Kate Waddell, Ninth st. this city; four sons and one granddaughter, by a former marriage, survive him.

Mr. Wright was a faithful member of the First Baptist church, always concerned about the interests of God's Kingdom, rendering what service was within his power.

Funeral services will be held in the First Baptist church Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial will be in South Lawn Cemetery."

Findagrave.com listed the joint gravestone of William O. Wright and Mary E. Wright in South Lawn Cemetery, Coshocton, Coshocton County, Ohio:

GenealogyBank.com listed the following joint obituary for Henry Wright and his wife dated on March 19, 1923, in the Kalamazoo Gazette, Kalamazoo, Michigan:

"Dead Heat Race Run With Death

Kalamzaoo Woman Arrives as Father Dies; Mother, Too, Passes Away.

Called to Kalkaska, Mich., by the critical illness of her mother, Mrs. D. L. Goodrich, of 922 West Lovell street, Kalamazoo, arrived at her old home just as death claimed her father, Henry Wright, and two days later took from this life the mother.

Although Mr. and Mrs. Wright, who were pioneers of Kalkaska county, had been ill for several days, their death was unexpected. The mother had been more critically ill than the aged father and greater fear was felt for her life. Mr. Wright, bowed by 81 years and worn and worried over the illness of his helpmate, became severely ill a week ago Saturday and succumbed Sunday afternoon.

The shock of her husband's death and her own critical condition, hastened the mother's death and on Tuesday afternoon she passed away, at the age of 77 years. The Wrights traveled to Kalkaska by overland route in 1880 and had been prominent in the development of Kalkaska county. Besides Mrs. Goodrich, the Wrights left two sons, George Wright, of Flint, and Lorenzo Wright, of Bates.

A double funeral was held last Thursday and the couple were laid to rest in Evergreen cemetery, Kalkaska."

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Jesse Shaw dated on October 14, 1917, in The Coshocton Tribune, Coshocton, Ohio:

"Jesse Shaw Is Summoned

Funeral services for Jesse Shaw, aged 77, who died at his home on South Seventh street, Saturday morning, will be held from the home Monday afternoon at one o'clock and burial made in South Lawn Cemetery. Rev. A. M. Hainer of the Seventh Street Christian Church will have charge of the services.

Jesse Shaw was born in Coshocton county in 1830, and spent most of his life engaged in farming. Several years ago he retired and the past three years he has been in failing health. Death resulting from a complication of diseases. Mr. Shaw was a devout Christian and a faithful attendant at church services. He was honest and upright in his business dealings and leaves many friends who will mourn his death.

His wife preceded him to the grave 12 years ago. The following children survive him: Mrs. Delia McFarland, a daughter, whose home is in Montana; John L. Shaw, who lives on the Brown farm, south of Coshocton; W. C. Shaw, South Sixth street, city; Ed. Shaw, South Seventh street, city; and Ella and Charles Shaw, of the home."

As set forth above, Findagrave.com listed the joint gravestone of Jesse Shaw and Mary Shaw and others of their family in South Lawn Cemetery, Coshocton, Coshocton County, Ohio.

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Charlotte Wright dated on June 21, 1924, in The Coshocton Tribune, Coshocton, Ohio:

"Auto Victim Dies Friday At Hospital

Remarkable Vitality

Mrs. Charlotte Wright, 76, who was badly injured when she was struck by an automobile near her home on south Ninth st just seven weeks ago Saturday, died at the City Hospital Friday evening at 10 o'clock. Both her legs were broken when she was struck by an automobile driven by James Croy Jr.

Because of the seriousness of her injuries and her advance age, little hope has been entertained at any time for her recovery. Only a remarkable vitality prolonged her life, it is said.

Ms. Wright's maiden name was Charlotte Cox. She was born in Bethlehem tp. January 15, 1848. Her parents were Solomon Vale Cox and Elizabeth J. Cox. She was one of a family of 12 children, seven boys and five girls. Four brothers survive her.

Charlotte Cox was married to W.G. Haise in 1877. He died in 1902. In 1904 she married W. J. Wright. His death occurred in 1915. Since that time Mrs. Wright has made her home with her brother, B. F. Cox on south Ninth st.

From early childhood she has been a constant and faithful member of the Methodist Episcopal church. She held membership in the Coshocton Grace M. E. church at the time of her death. She was a strong character, and greatly beloved by all who knew her.

The four surviving brothers are B. F. Cox, Charles H. Cox and Orlando Cox, all of Coshocton and Albert S Cox of Tyndall.

Funeral services will be at the B. F. Cox home, 376 south ninth st. Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Dr. W. B. Winters of Grace M. E. Church, assisted by Rev. W. Cornell of West Lafayette will be in charge. Burial will be in South Lawn cemetery."

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Charlotte Cox Wright in South Lawn Cemetery, Coshocton, Coshocton County, Ohio:

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for John H. English dated on Wednesday, November 8, 1916, in The Coshocton Tribune, Coshocton, Ohio:

"J. E. English Long III, Dies

John H. English died at his home at 651 Elm street, Tuesday morning, at four thirty o'clock, after an illness of nearly two years, which developed into gangrenous diabetes.

Mr. English was born near West Bedford, June 27, 1848, where he lived until thirty-four years ago, when he moved to this city. His integrity of character won for him the love and respect of a large circle of friends.

He was twice married. His first wife was Malissa Wright, and to this union were born four children. The second wife was Rebecca Crown, and to this union one child was born, who, with the widow survive. The children are: Mrs. R. C. Houston, Andrew L. English, Bert English, of this city; Mrs. Fred A. Glass and Mrs. G. C. Glass, of Columbus. He is also survived by seven grand-children and the following brothers: Alonzo English and Isaiah English, of this city; one sister, Mrs. Salina Brenneman, of Cooperdale.

For many years Mr. English was a member of the M. E. church, later becoming a member of the Christian church of which he was a devout and faithful member. He was a charter member of the Jr. O. F. A. M.

Funeral services will be held at the late home Thursday afternoon at one thirty o'clock, with the Rev. Charles English, of Delaware, O., in charge. The pallbearers are: William Roberts, George Hines, Perry Pigman, John Baughman, Lewis Glass, and B. A. McGinnis. Interment will be made in South Lawn cemetery."

(VIII) Susan Wright

Susan Wright was a daughter of 1866 Joseph Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Elizabeth (McCoy) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1866 Joseph⁵)

Joseph Washington McCoy 1766-1840 of Coshocton County, Ohio, His Descendants and Related Families, by B. Isabel Lockard, stated that Susan Wright was a daughter of Joseph Wright and Elizabeth (McCoy) Wright, was born on November 17, 1821, died on June 22, 1822, and was buried in the McGee Cemetery, Virginia Township, Coshocton County, Ohio.

(IX) Possibly 1884 John Wright Of Coshocton
County, Ohio, His Wife Salenah L. E.
(Slaughter) Wright, And His Descendants

1884 John Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, was possibly a son of 1866 Joseph Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Elizabeth (McCoy) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1866 Joseph⁵)

No direct documentary evidence has as yet been found that identifies John Wright as a son of Joseph Wright and Elizabeth (McCoy) Wright. Nevertheless, a number of Ancestry.com family trees list this identification.

The circumstantial evidence for this identification is the following.

First, as set forth below, John Wright's birth was in about 1822 in Ohio, which fits appropriately among the children of 1866 Joseph Wright between Susan Wright and Wesley Wright.

Second, the 1850 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed John Wright immediately adjacent to Wesley Wright, who has been identified as a son of 1866 Joseph Wright.

Third, John Wright named his first child Wesley Wright, who has been identified as a son of 1866 Joseph Wright.

Fourth, John Wright married Salenah L. E. Slaughter and George W. Wright, a possible son of 1866 Joseph Wright by his second wife, married Delilah Slaughter. Salenah and Delilah Slaughter were daughters of Alexander Slaughter. Brothers marrying sisters was a common occurrence at this time and these two marriages suggest that John Wright and George W. Wright were possibly half-brothers.

And fifth, Joseph Wright in 1842 by Coshocton County Deed 16/225 sold to his nephew Highland Wright the North East $\frac{1}{4}$ of Section 13, Township 4, Range 7, and Highland Wright in turn in 1844 by Coshocton County Deed 18/580 sold the East $\frac{1}{2}$ of that same land to John Wright. The sharing of land originally owned by 1866 Joseph Wright suggests a family relationship among the parties and in this case the relationship was possibly cousins.

While suggestive, this circumstantial evidence seems insufficient to identify 1884 John Wright as a son of Joseph Wright and Elizabeth (McCoy) Wright and further research will be required to confirm or deny this identification.

The remainder of this section will set forth the documentation which has been found regarding this couple and their descendants.

On March 4, 1844, at Coshocton County, Ohio, D.B. 18/580, John Wright purchased from Hiland and Mary Wright 79 acres of land in Coshocton County:

"Highland Wright To John Wright Deed

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Mary Jane (Wright) Wright dated on January 14, 1928, in The Coshocton Tribune, Coshocton, Ohio:

"Willow Brook Resident Dies at Age of 82

Mrs. Mary Jane Wright, aged 82, widow of Wesley Wright, died this forenoon at 8:30 o'clock at the home of her son, Manford Wright, who lives on the home farm near Willow Brook. She had been in poor health for some time.

She was born in Jackson tp., and was the daughter of the late John and Julia Ann Wright. Mrs. Wright belonged to the Christian Chapel church near Willow Brook.

Two sons, J. E. and Manford Wright, both of the home farm, one sister, Mrs. Nancy Richissin, of West Lafayette, three brothers, Joseph, of Crete, Neb., Allen Wright, of Roscoe, and John G. Wright, of this city, survive.

Funeral services will be held Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the Christian Chapel church. Burial will be made in that church cemetery."

Newspapers.com also listed the following news article dated February 5, 1928, in The Coshocton Tribune, Coshocton, Ohio, regarding the will of Mary Jane Wright:

"Wright Will Filed

The will of Mary Jane Wright, late of Virginia tp., leaves $300 to a grandson, Lyman Hobart Wright; $200 to a son, Hobart, to deposit in a bank and use the income in maintaining the Blooming Grove cemetery in Jackson tp.; a fourth Liberty Loan bond of $1,000 to the children of John E. Wright, and another bond to the children of Manford E. Wright.

All the remainder was bequeathed to two sons, John E. and Manford E. Wright, in equal shares.

Manford E. Wright is named executor. The will is dated June 2, 1925."

Newspapers.com also listed the following news article dated June 29, 1929, in The Coshocton Tribune, Coshocton, Ohio, regarding the verdict in a probate dispute between John E. Wright and Manford E. Wright regarding the estate of Mary Jane (Wright) Wright:

"Judge Refuses to Allow Claim in Wright Estate

On the strength of testimony of medical witnesses, Probate Judge L. N. Staats found that Mary Jane Wright, deceased, was not able to comprehend what she was doing when she signed a bill-of-sale conveying all of her property to her son, Manford E. Wright.

For this reason, the court refused to allow the claim of the son, who is executor of his mother's estate, for $3,385.96.

A hearing on Wright's application was held June 21-22, but the court's decision was not given until about a week later. Witnesses were called by the executor to support his contention that it was his mother's intention to give him all of the property under the bill-of-sale, and by Wright's brother, John E. Wright, who sought to show that his mother for a long time prior to her death, was feeble and the condition of her mind was such that she could easily have been influenced.

Among the latter's witnesses were four physicians, among them Dr. A. P. Magness, Dr. E. U. Marquand and Dr. E. M. Wright. All four had examined Mrs. Wright at various times prior to her death, and gave it as their opinions that she was not competent to transact any business.

Kenneth Haller was attorney for the applicant, while Wheeler & Ely and Lloyd S. Leech were counsel for the executor's brother."

This record indicates that William Henry Wright was born in about 1847 and that Rachel H. (Ganson) Wright was born in about 1846.

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Rachel H. (Ganson) Wright dated on Thursday, October 27, 1910, in the Coshocton Daily Age, Coshocton, Ohio, which listed her death on October 23, 1910:

"Mrs. Wm. H. Wright Dies Sunday from Paralytic Stroke

Mrs. Rachel H. Wright, aged 65, wife of William Henry Wright, died at their home southwest of Willow Brook Sunday morning at 2:25 o'clock. She suffered a stroke of paralysis the Monday morning before her death while her husband was over in the Conesville vicinity delivering milk, and she was found lying near the edge of the porch by the children of her daughter, Mrs. Rhoda Askrens, living nearby. Mrs. Wright partially recovered from the first stroke but it was followed by two more, the last one, which occurred Saturday morning, rendering her completely unconscious and she remained in a comatose condition until the death angel came.

Rachel H. Ganson was born Jan 20, 1845. She was married to William Henry Wright Sept. 24, 1868. To this union six children were born, five of whom with their father, are living, as follows: Harvey J., residing east of the Chalfants church; Mrs. Rhoda Askrens, near the home place; Mrs. Margaret Webb, of Canton, Mrs. Martha Kreiss and Wherman Wright, near Wills Creek. Melvin Wright died in infancy.

Mrs. Wright is also survived by three sisters: Mrs. Rev. E. B. Senter, near Milfork church; Mrs. Josephine Lapp, near Wills Creek and Mrs. Melvin Norris, of Postboy, O.

Mrs. Wright's life was characterized by purity and Christian simplicity. She was a good wife and mother in the highest sense of the work and not only commanded the love and respect of the members of her immediate household but was liked by her neighbors and in fact everyone who came in contact with her. Her husband is one of the prominent citizens of that section of the county and sympathy is extended to him and the bereaved children

The funeral services will be conducted by Rev. Bridge of Coshocton, Tuesday morning. Leaving he house at 10:30 o'clock sun time, the services will be conducted at the Milfork church at 11 o'clock and interment at the Milfork cemetery."

Ohio, Death Records, 1908-1932, 1938-2018, available from Ancestry.com, listed the death of Rachel H. Wright on October 30, 1910, in Coshocton County, Ohio:

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Rachel Wright dated on Tuesday, November 1, 1910, in the Coshocton Daily Times, Coshocton, Ohio, and listed her death on October 30, 1910, probably based on the mistaken date in the death record:

"Rachel Wright, Good Woman, Dies

Mrs. Rachel Wright, wife of W. H. Wright, departed this life Oct. 30 at their home near Conesville. Mrs. Wright was 66 ears, 9 months and 10 days old being born at Otsego, Muskingum county, Jan. 20th, 1844. Her father's name was Johnson. He came to Ohio from Chester county, Pa. with the early settlers first locating at Jacobsport (now Plainfield, O.) where he married his first wife who soon died. He again married again near Adamsville, his second wife was the mother of the late departed. Shortly after her marriage to Mr. Wright they moved to the present home where they have lived for 42 pleasant and happy years of mutual confidence and trust in each other, giving the best of their life in securing the comforts of life and providing for old age that was soon to come and for the success of their children; this they have attained but with it has come death. All the children are married and have moved away and now the husband and father finds himself surrounded with an abundance of this world's goods but alone.

Mrs. Rachel Wright united with the Millfork Baptist church in early life. she was the mother of six children, three sons and three daughters, one son dying in infancy: the sons Harvey Wright of of Wakatomka Sherman Wright of near Adams Mills Mrs. Margaret Webb of Canton, wife of one of the police force of that place Rhoda Askrens of Conesville, Mrs. Martha Kriss. She leaves a faithful and devoted husband and five kind devoted children and five grandchildren to mourn the loss of one whose place would be hard to fill and one whom they never can forget.

Sorry we are to say "good bye till we meet again."

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Wm. Bridge of Coshocton at 10 o'clock Tuesday: interment was made at the Millfork cemetery at 10:30 o'clock."

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for William Henry Wright dated on Wednesday, August 19, 1914, in The Coshocton Tribune, Coshocton, Ohio:

"W. H. Wright Is Paralysis Victim

The death of William Henry Wright, aged 67 years 4 months 6 days, occurred at his home three miles west of Conesville Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock, as the result of a stroke of paralysis which he suffered Saturday evening. He was conscious until Sunday evening, but from that time little hope was entertained for his recovery.

Mr. Wright was born on what is known as the Asa Meek farm in Virginia township, and when he was eight years old the family moved to the farm near Willow Brook now owned by Wesley Wright. In 1868 he was married to Rachel Ganson, since which time he had been living at the home near Conesville. Mr. Wright was a farmer, and was very well known throughout the county.

Mrs. Wright preceded her husband to the grave by four years, and died of the same disease as her husband. The following relatives survive: five children, Harvey and Sherman of near Dresden Mrs. Samuel Askrim of Conesville, Mrs. Margaret Webb of the home and Mrs. Martha Kreiff of near Adamsville; two brothers, Wesley of near Willow Brook and Elsworth of Dresden; and seven grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at the Millfork church Friday morning. The cortege will leave the house at ten o'clock."

"Found in September 23, 1908, issue of the Clark County Herald.

Sarah Gilbert was born in Coshocton County, Ohio, February 10, 1827 and departed this life at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Pryor Beabout, September 17, 1908, aged 81 years, 7 months and 7 days. She was married to Wesley Wright on the second day of March, 1846 and came to this country in 1851. This union was blessed with nine children, seven boys and two girls all but three having gone across the river of death. The surviving children of this union are Mrs. Pryor Beabout, Mrs. Tilman Linton and Joseph Wright. Wesley Wright died in 1864. She was united in marriage to Samuel Norris in October, 1865. To this union, one child, a son was born, Edgar Norris, who is still living. The father died in November, 1902. She was converted in early life and became a charter member of Bethel Baptist Church in the year 1852 remaining a faithful member until a few years ago having moved to Martinsville, she moved her membership to the Martinsville church of which she remained a faithful member until death. She had been in feeble health for some time but bore her affliction with patience. She leaves a number of friends and relatives to mourn her departure. Funeral services were held at Bethel Baptist church at 10:30 AM September 19. The remains were laid to rest in Auburn Cemetery."

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Sarah Ann Newland dated on November 4, 1948, in the Lawrence County News, Lawrenceville, Illinois:

"Mrs. Sarah Newland Dies Early Tuesday

Mrs. Sarah Ann Newland, 90, died at her home at 504 Seventh street, early Tuesday morning. She had been seriously ill about a month.

She was born in Lawrenceville on December 25, 1857, a daughter of William C. and Maria Wilhelm Gilbert, and was perhaps the oldest native-born person in the city at the time of her death, and had resided in the city all of her life.

She was married twice, to William H. Wright and Elmer Newland, both of whom predicted her in death. Two children by the first marriage, Mrs. Dora Wright Weyer and William Wesley Wright, also preceded her in death.

She is survived by three children, Fred Newland and Mrs. Roy Dixon, both of Lawrenceville, and Miss Lillian Newland of Indianapolis. There are 19 grandchildren, 33 great-grandchildren, and five great great grandchildren.

She also leaves one brother and two sisters. They are Noan Gilbert, Mrs. C. F. Stoll, and Mrs. Lee Dunlap, all of Lawrenceville.

Mrs. Newland was a member of the First Christian Church of Lawrenceville, where she was in regular attendance until age and ill health interfered.

The funeral service will be held at the First Christian Church on Thursday at 2 p.m. with the Rev. William Askew in charge. Burial will be in the Lawrenceville cemetery."

(McCoy) Wright, And His Descendants

James Hartford Wright was a son of 1866
Joseph Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Jane (Hartford) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1866 Joseph⁵)

The marriage record of James H. Wright and Sarah Ann McCoy was dated on December 4, 1845, in Coshocton County, Ohio:

"2376. James H. Wright And Sarah Ann McCoy

The State of Ohio, Coshocton County, SS.

I hereby certify, that on the 4th day of Dec. eighteen hundred and 45 I joined together in marriage, James H. Wright & Sarah Ann McCoy

Filed Feb. 20th 1846. Lamel L. Root M.G."

Marriages, Coshocton County, Ohio, 1811-1930, by Miriam C. Hunter, also listed the marriage of James H. Wright and Sarah Ann McCoy on December 4, 1845, in Coshocton County, Ohio.

The 1850 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed James H. Wright with the following household on November 1, 1850:

Name	Age	Sex	Color	Occupation	Value of Real Estate

This record indicates that James Hartford Wright was born in about 1825 and that Sarah Ann (McCoy) Wright was born in about 1829. Although the census indicates by ditto marks that all of the persons in this household were born in Pennsylvania, that appears to be an error and the ditto marks were intended to reflect births in Ohio.

The will of Joseph Wright dated on October 26, 1859, and probated on April 26, 1866, at Coshocton County, Virginia, Probate File 571, listed James H. Wright as one of his children:

I hereby nominate and appoint my sons Willis Wright, Thomas J. Wright and James H. Wright and also Wesley Graves to be the Executors of this my last will and testament
. . . ."

The 1860 Census for Knox County, Ohio, listed James Wright with the following household on June 22, 1860:

Name	Age	Sex	Color	Occupation	Value of Real Estate
James Wright	34	M		Farmer	3,500

This appears to be the same family as the 1850 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, although the dates of birth of the first two children seem to be a few years later, but further research will be required to confirm this identification. If this is the same family, then this record indicates that James Wright was born in about 1826 and that Sarah Ann (McCoy) Wright was born in about 1830.

U. S., Civil War Draft Registration Records, 1863-1865, available from Ancestry.com, listed James H. Wright in Jackson Township, Coshocton County, Ohio, in June 1863:

"Schedule II. - Consolidated List of all persons of Class II, subject to do military duty in the Thirteenth Congressional District, consisting of the Counties of Knox Licking Coshocton and Muskingum State of Ohio, enumerated during the month of June 1863, under direction of Captain John A Sennet, Provost Marshall.

This record indicates that James Hartford Wright was born in about 1825 and that Sarah Ann (McCoy) Wright was born in about 1830.

The death record of F. C. Wright dated on November 1, 1931, in College Mound, Macon County, Missouri, listed his parents as James H. Wright and Sarah N. McCoy and his birth on October 31, 1857, in Ohio.

The death record of William M. Wright dated on August 8, 1932, in Terre Haute, Vigo County, Indiana, listed his parents as James Wright and Sarah McCoy and his birth on March 14, 1859, in Ohio.

Joseph Washington McCoy 1766-1840 of Coshocton County, Ohio, His Descendants and Related Families, by B. Isabel Lockard, stated that James Hartford Wright was a son of Joseph Wright and Jane (Hartford) Wright and married Sarah Ann McCoy.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of James Hartford Wright and Sarah Ann (McCoy) Wright were the following:

- 1) Joseph Wright, born in July 1847 or in about 1850 in Ohio,
- 2) Sarah Ann Wright, born in about 1849 or 1852 in Ohio,
- 3) Reuben Wright, born in about 1854 in Ohio,
- 4) Oliver Wright, born in about 1854 or 1856 in Ohio or Indiana,
- 5) Fernando C. "Barney" Wright, born in about 1855 or on October 31, 1857, or in about 1858 in Coshocton County, Ohio,
- 6) William M. Wright, born on March 14, 1859, or in about 1860 in Ohio,
- 7) Isadore Wright, born in about 1862 in Ohio,
- 8) Martha Wright, born in about 1864 in Ohio,
- 9) Florence Emma Wright, born in about 1865 or 1867 in Ohio, and
- 10) Louisa Wright, born in January 1870 in Nebraska.

(A) 1900/02 Joseph Wright, His Wife Margaret Latillia (Trask) Wright, And His Descendants

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for F. C. Wright dated on November 3, 1931, in the Macon Chronicle Herald, Macon, Missouri:

"F. C. Wright Funeral.

F. C. Wright, better known as Barney Wright, was born in Coshockton county, Ohio, in the year of 1857, and departed this life Nov. 1, 1931, at the age of 74 years and one day.

He was married to Christena Green, April 4, 1878. No children were born to this union.

He united with the Antioch Christian church in the year of 1896 and has always been a faithful and devoted Christian. Mr. Wright was highly respected and loved because of his straightforward, honest Christian life. He leaves a fine example of what is meant to be a Christian.

He is survived by his wife and a host of friends.

Mr. Wright was a brother-in-law of Finis Green, who lives in Macon.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. O. L. Angel at Antioch Christian church Monday afternoon, Nov. 2. Interment in Antioch cemetery."

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Christena (Green) Wright dated on Thursday, February 12, 1948, in the Macon Chronicle-Herald, Macon, Missouri:

"Funeral Tomorrow For Mrs. Christena Wright

Funeral services for Mrs. Christena Wright, who died at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the home of her brother-in-law William R. Blankenship, 418 Missouri street, will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Edwards Funeral Home in Bevier conducted by the Rev. Martin Cross.

Burial will be in the Antioch Cemetery south of Bevier.

The late Mrs. Wright was born April 3, 1864, the daughter of George and Angeline Green, near College Mound. She was married to F. C. Wright in 1878 at her home near College Mound.

She united with the Antioch Church when a young girl where she remained a member until her death. She had spent her entire life, except for two years spent in Kansas, in Macon County.

Mrs. Wright was 83 years, 10 months and eight days of age at the time of her death. Her husband preceded her in death in 1932.

She is survived by one brother, Finis Green of Macon, her brother-in-law, W. R. Blankenship in whose home she died and a number of other relatives and friends."

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of William Wright in Highland Lawn Cemetery, Terre Haute, Vigo County, Indiana:

"Father
William Wright
1859 - 1932"

(G) Isadore Wright

Isadore Wright was a daughter of James Hartford Wright and Sarah Ann (McCoy) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1866 Joseph⁵, James Hartford⁶)

The 1870 Census for Saline County, Nebraska, listed Isadore Wright in the James H. Wright household on September 5, 1870, and her age as 8 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1862.

(H) Martha Wright

Martha Wright was a daughter of James Hartford Wright and Sarah Ann (McCoy) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1866 Joseph⁵, James Hartford⁶)

The 1870 Census for Saline County, Nebraska, listed Martha Wright in the James H. Wright household on September 5, 1870, and her age as 6 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1864.

(I) Florence E. Wright

Florence E. Wright was a daughter of James Hartford Wright and Sarah Ann (McCoy) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1866 Joseph⁵, James Hartford⁶)

The 1870 Census for Saline County, Nebraska, listed Florence E. Wright in the James H. Wright household on September 5, 1870, and her age as 3 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1867.

(J) Louisa Wright

Louisa Wright was a daughter of James Hartford Wright and Sarah Ann (McCoy) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1866 Joseph⁵, James Hartford⁶)

The 1870 Census for Saline County, Nebraska, listed Louisa Wright in the James H. Wright household on September 5, 1870, and her birth in January 1870 in Nebraska.

(XII) Possibly But Probably Not Charles Wright

Charles Wright was possibly but probably not a son of 1866 Joseph Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Jane (Hartford) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1866 Joseph⁵)

Joseph Washington McCoy 1766-1840 of Coshocton County, Ohio, His Descendants and Related Families, by B. Isabel Lockard, stated that Charles Wright was the second son of Joseph Wright and Jane (Hartford) Wright and married Sarah Jane Masten.

However, as set forth below, the Charles H. Wright who married Sarah Jane Masten was 1918 Henry Charles Wright of Washington County, Kansas, the son of 1892 Highland Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Mary (Wright) Wright. That Henry Charles Wright was born on October 27, 1843. Given his date of birth, if he were a son of 1866 Joseph Wright, he would have appeared in the 1850 Census in the Joseph Wright household, but no Charles or Henry Wright was listed in that household. The 1850 Census did list a Henry C. Wright, born in about 1843, in the Highland Wright household (mislisted as Hillard Wright), the 1860 Census listed a Henry Wright, born in about 1844, in the Highland Wright household (mislisted as Hilliard Wright), and the 1870 Census did not list a Henry or Charles Wright in the Highland Wright household, consistent with the marriage of Henry Charles Wright and Sarah Masten in 1864..

In addition, no other evidence has as yet been found identifying a Charles Wright as the son of 1866 Joseph Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Jane (Hartford) Wright.

The result is that this is probably a mistaken identification.

(XIII) Possibly 1864 George W. Wright Of Coshocton County, Ohio, His Wife Delilah
(Slaughter) (Wright) Hall, And His Descendants

1864 George W. Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, was possibly son of 1866 Joseph Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Jane (Hartford) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1866 Joseph⁵)

A number of family trees posted on Ancestry.com list George W. Wright as a son of Joseph Wright and Jane (Hartford) Wright. However, no primary documentation has as yet been found to confirm that identification and it remains only a possible identification. The remainder of this section will set forth the documentation that has been found for George W. Wright.

The marriage record of George W. Wright and Delila Slaughter was dated on March 18, 1849, in Coshocton County, Ohio:

"No. 4220
Filed 22nd March 1849
G. W. Wright
and
D. Slaughter

The State of Ohio, Coshocton county, ss.

I hereby certify, that on the 18th day of March eighteen hundred and 49, I joined together in marriage, George W. Wright and Delila Slaughter

B. A. Waggoner J.P."

Marriages, Coshocton County, Ohio, 1811-1930, by Miriam C. Hunter, also listed the marriage of George W. Wright and Delila Slaughter on March 18, 1849, in Coshocton County, Ohio.

The 1850 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed George Wright with the following household on November 1, 1850:

Name	Age	Sex	Color	Occupation	Value of Real Estate

This record indicates that George Wright was born in about 1828 and that Delilah (Slaughter) (Wright) Hall was born in about 1832. Although the census indicates by ditto marks that all of the persons in this household were born in Pennsylvania, that appears to be an error and the ditto marks were intended to reflect births in Ohio.

The 1860 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed George Wright with the following household on June 21, 1860:

Name	Age	Sex	Color	Occupation	Value of Real Estate	Value of Personal Property

The death record of Joseph L. Wright dated on July 16, 1943, in Dresden, Muskingum County, Ohio, listed his parents as George Wright and Delilah Slaughter and his birth on August 9, 1860, in Ohio.

The death record of Charles Wesley Hall dated on November 1, 1943, in Seattle, King County, Washington, listed his parents as Christofer Hall and Delilah Slaughter, born in Coshocton County, Ohio, and Christopher's birth on July 25, 1873, in Coshocton County, Ohio.

Joseph Washington McCoy 1766-1840 of Coshocton County, Ohio, His Descendants and Related Families, by B. Isabel Lockard, stated that George W. Hartford Wright was a son of Joseph Wright and Jane (Hartford) Wright and married Delilah Slaughter.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1864 George W. Wright and Delilah (Slaughter) (Wright) Hall were the following:

- 1) Benjamin Frank Wright, born on June 5, 1850, in Coshocton County, Ohio,
- 2) Mary Jane (Wright) (Wolford) Fortune, born in May 1852 or in about 1853 in Ohio, and
- 3) Joseph L. Wright, born on August 9, 1860, or in about 1861 in Coshocton County, Ohio.

(A) 1916 Benjamin Frank Wright Of Coshocton County, Ohio, His Wives Nancy E. (Finnell) Wright And Mary J. (McDonald) (Reed) Wright, And His Descendants

1916 Benjamin Frank Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, was a son of 1864 George W. Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Delilah (Slaughter) (Wright) Hall. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1866 Joseph⁵, 1864 George W.⁶)

The 1850 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Henry F. Wright in the George Wright household on November 1, 1850, and his age as 6/12 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1850.

The 1860 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Benjamin Wright in the George Wright household on June 21, 1860, and his age as 10 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1850. The absence of Henry F. Wright from the 1860 Census and the similarity in age and the identical middle initial indicate that Henry F. Wright of the 1850 Census was the same person as the Benjamin F. Wright of the 1860

Census and the census taker may have misread his notes for the household listing "Benj" Wright as "Henry" Wright in 1850 and so copied the name in the completed version.

The 1870 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed B. F. Wright in the Delila Wright household on June 11, 1870, and his age as 19 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1851, and his occupation as farmer.

The marriage record of Benjamin F. Wright and her first wife Nancy E. Finnell was dated on October 1, 1871, in Coshocton County, Ohio:

As set forth above, Findagrave.com listed the joint gravestone of Nancy E. Wright and Benjamin F. Wright in Warner Methodist Cemetery, Conesville, Coshocton County, Ohio.

(B) Mary Jane (Wright) (Wolford) Fortune,
Her Husbands Allen M. Wolford And
Jeremiah W. Fortune, And Her
Descendants

Mary Jane (Wright) (Wolford) Fortune was a daughter of 1864 George W. Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Delilah (Slaughter) (Wright) Hall. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1866 Joseph⁵, 1864 George W.⁶)

The 1860 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Mary Wright in the George Wright household on June 21, 1860, and her age as 8 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1852.

The 1870 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Mary J. Wright in the Delila Wright household on June 11, 1870, and her age as 18 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1852.

There were two Mary Jane Wrights listed in the 1870 Census for Coshcoton County, Ohio, who were both born in 1852 in Ohio. One was the daughter of George W. Wright and Delilah (Slaughter) (Wright) Hall discussed in this section and whose obituary set forth below identifies her as the wife of first Allen M. Wolford and second Jeremiah Fortune. The other Mary Jane Wright was the daughter of John Wright and Salina (Slaughter) Wright who married Benjamin F. "Squire" Dawson in 1875 and died in 1877 and is discussed in Section XXIII.A.2.k.ix.(II)(I) below.

The 1870 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Allen Wolford in the Absalom Wolford household on June 13, 1870, and his age as 18 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1852. As set forth below, Allen M. Wolford was the first husband of Mary Jane (Wright) (Wolford) Fortune.

The 1870 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Jeremiah Fortune in the Isaac Fortune household on June 9, 1870, his age as 23 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1847, and his occupation as farmer.

The marriage record of Mary Jane Wright and Allen Wolford was dated on June 16, 1872, in Coshocton County, Ohio:

This record indicates that Joseph L. Wright was born in August 1860 and that Esther (Shearer or Shearn) Wright was born in August 1863.

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Esther Wright dated on Tuesday, June 26, 1900, in The Coshocton Tribune, Coshocton, Ohio, and her death on June 26, 1900:

"Only Five Minutes

After Being Seized With Hemorrhage Mrs. Wright Died

Death Entirely Unexpected

She Had Walked Up Street the day Before and Retired at Night in Her Usual Health. Funeral Sunday Afternoon.

That "in the midst of life we are in death," was never more forcibly and shockingly illustrated than in the sudden death of Mrs. Esther Wright, wife of Joseph Wright, which occurred at their home at 339 South Fifth street shortly after four o'clock this morning.

Mrs. Wright had been afflicted with consumption but her condition was regarded as by no means critical. Thursday she walked up street and retired at night feeling no worse for the exertion. About four o'clock in the morning she was seized with a violent hemorrhage, and died in five minutes. She roused her husband and Dr. Hennel was sent for, but before he arrived Mrs Wright was dead.

On the evening before her death Mr. Wright and their three children furnished the music for the banquet of the stationary engineers at the Empire hotel.

The sudden death of Mrs. Wright is a terrible shock to her family and friends. She was a woman of many excellent qualities. Her age was 36 years.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Dr. Toland, after which the remains were interred in South Lawn cemetery."

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Esther (Shearn) Wright in South Lawn Cemetery, Coshocton, Coshocton County, Ohio:

(XII) 1911 Thomas Jefferson Wright Of Licking
County, Ohio, His Wives Sarah E. (Norris)
Wright And Susan (Cleary) (Daniel) Wright,
And His Descendants

1911 Thomas Jefferson Wright of Licking County, Ohio, was a son of 1866 Joseph Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Jane (Hartford) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1866 Joseph⁵)

The 1850 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Thomas J. Wright in the Joseph Wright household on October 31, 1850, and his age as 18 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1832, and his occupation as farmer.

The marriage record of Thomas J. Wright and Sarah E. Norris was dated on December 27, 1857, in Coshocton County, Ohio:

Marriages, Coshocton County, Ohio, 1811-1930, by Miriam C. Hunter, listed the marriage of Thomas S. Wright and Sarah E. Norris on December 27, 1857, in Coshocton County, Ohio.

The will of Joseph Wright dated on October 26, 1859, and probated on April 26, 1866, at Coshocton County, Virginia, Probate File 571, listed Thomas J. Wright as one of his children:

I hereby nominate and appoint my sons Willis Wright, Thomas J. Wright and James H. Wright and also Wesley Graves to be the Executors of this my last will and testament
. . . ."

The 1860 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Thomas Wright with the following household on June 21, 1860:

Ohio, County Marriage Records, 1774-1993, available from Ancestry.com, listed the marriage of Susan Cleary and Edward C. F. Daniel on December 25, 1878, in Guernsey County, Ohio:

"Name	Susan Cleary
Gender	Female
Marriage Date	25 Dec 1878
Marriage Place	Guernsey, Ohio, USA
Spouse	Edward C. F. Daniel
Film Number	000894938"

As set forth below, Susan (Cleary) (Daniel) Wright was the second wife of Thomas Jefferson Wright.

The 1880 Census for Granville, Licking County, Ohio, is missing page 18; page 17 ends with Dwelling No. 182 for Jonathan Jones and page 19 begins with Dwelling No. 193 for Warren B. Hitt. In between those two households is listed Sarah ____ with the following household on June 6, 1880:

Because of the missing page, the Sarah E. (Norris) Wright of this record was mis-indexed as Sarah Jones. However, the information listed for Sarah and the first three children is consistent with the 1870 Census for the Thomas J. Wright household. And as set forth above, Thomas Jefferson Wright and Sarah E. (Norris) Wright resided on June 13, 1876, in Granville, Licking County, Ohio. This evidence confirms that Thomas Jefferson Wright would have been listed at the end of page 18 of this census record and the listing of Sarah and the children would be for the Thomas Jefferson Wright household.

The 1880 Census for Guernsey County, Ohio, listed Susan Daniel in the Edward Daniel household on June 14, 1880, her relationship as wife, and her age as 26 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1854.

The 1900 Census for Granville, Licking County, Ohio, listed Thomas J. Wright with the following household on June 9, 1900:

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Thomas J. Wright dated on June 25, 1911, in The Coshocton Tribune, Coshocton, Ohio:

"Thomas J. Wright Dies at Granville

The many Coshocton County friends of Thomas J. Wright of Granville, O., will be saddened to hear of his death which occurred yesterday morning at his home. He had been a sufferer from heart trouble for some time and it was this together with his advanced age, 80 years, that caused his death.

Mr. Wright was a native of Virginia township Coshocton county and lived here until thirty five years ago; since that time he had lived in the vicinity of Granville. Seven years ago his first wife, Sarah Norris, died and two sons and one daughter born to this union survive; Mrs. Irenus Jones of Granville and Edward and George Wright also of Granville. Five years ago Mr. Wright was married to Mrs. Susan Daniels who also survives him.

Mr. Wright was a staunch and loyal member of the Baptist church and a man whose influence for good knew no bounds: at the time of his death and for years preceding, he was a deacon in the Baptist church.

The funeral will be held from the late home in Granville at 3 p. m. Monday and the burial will take place in the Granville cemetery."

As set forth above, Findagrave.com listed the joint gravestone of Thomas J. Wright, Sarah E. (Norris) Wright, and Oliver P. Wright in Maple Grove Cemetery, Granville, Licking County, Ohio.

Newspaper.com listed the following obituary for Ireanus P. Jones dated on June 6, 1938, in The Newark Advocate, Newark, Ohio:

"Granville Man Dies At Home

Ireanus P. Jones Succumbs Following Illness Since February.

Granville, June 6. - Ireanus P. Jones, 74, died at his home on East College street Sunday at 6 p. m. He suffered a severe stroke of paralysis in February and he had been bedfast since that time. Last Tuesday pneumonia set in. He was born on Nov. 24, 1864, the son of Thomas D. and Hannah Evans Jones of Granville, who at that time lived on what is now the corner of East Maple and South Pearl street. His entire life was spent on a farm on the Lancaster road, Licking township, until three years ago when he sold it and moved into the village. He was a member of the Presbyterian church. Surviving him are his wife, Nettie Wright Jones; two daughters, Mrs. Hugh Jones of the Columbus road and Mrs. Fay Tipton of Newark; two sons, Leland W. Jones and Raymond C. Jones of Newark; and five grandchildren. The body was moved to the John D. Evans funeral home and will be returned to the residence on East Maple street Tuesday morning where funeral services will be held on Wednesday at 2 p. m., Rev. R. D. Wingert of Nanking officiating. Burial will be made in Maple Grove cemetery."

"Happily Mated.

Marriage Of Mr. A. M. Legge And Miss Effie Wright

Near Granville Last Evening at 6 O'clock. - A Very Delightful and Happy Union.

The marriage of Mr. A. M. Legge and Miss Effie, the beautiful and estimable daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Wright, was quietly celebrated at the home of the bride's parents near Granville, last evening at 6 o'clock. None but the immediate families of the contracting parties witnessed the ceremony and heard the solemn obligations taken.

Rev. F. C. Wright an uncle of the bride joined the happy pair and said the words that made them man and wife.

After the solemn services were ended and congratulations were showered upon the bride and groom, an elegant wedding feast was partaken of by friends present.

The newly-wedded pair have the best wishes of a host of friends and acquaintances for a pleasant and prosperous future, as they merit."

"Mrs. Wright, 77, Dies; Last Rites To Be On Monday

Mrs. Daisy F. Wright, 77, 217 S. Cherry St., Granville died at 6:20 a. m. Friday in Newark Hospital. She had been a resident of the Granville vicinity 60 years.

Born in Maxville in Perry County, May 18, 1880, she was the daughter of James

K.. and Elizabeth (Heidlebaugh) Marlow. She was married to George H.. Wright in Thurston, April 10, 1906, who preceded her in death July 18, 1940.

Mrs. Wright was a member of the First Baptist Church of Granville.

Surviving are a son, Howard M. Wright, Dearborn, Mich.; daughters, Mrs. Parker Pheneger, Mrs. Robert Carlisle and Mrs. Arthur Shumway all of Granville; a broth, Stanley D. Marlow, Vidor, Tex.; 12 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Monday in the Morrow-Crouse Funeral Home with the Rev. James B. Ashbrook officiating. Burial will be in Maple Grove Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home after 7 p. m. Saturday."

As set forth above, Findagrave.com listed the joint gravestone of George H. Wright and Daisy F. Wright in Maple Grove Cemetery, Granville, Licking County, Ohio.

(XIV) 1834 Daniel Wright Of Coshocton County,
Ohio

1834 Daniel Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, was a son of 1866 Joseph Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio, and Jane (Hartford) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1866 Joseph⁵)

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Daniel Wright in McGee Cemetery, Coshocton County, Ohio:

"Daniel
son of
Joseph & Jane
Wright
Died
Aged 1 Mo &
5 Days"

This record indicates that Daniel Wright was born on April 18, 1834.

Joseph Washington McCoy 1766-1840 of Coshocton County, Ohio, His Descendants and Related Families, by B. Isabel Lockard, stated that Daniel Wright was a son of Joseph Wright and Jane (Hartford) Wright, was born in 1830, and died in 1831. However, this is incorrect. As set forth above, the gravestone listed the death of Daniel Wright, the son of Joseph and Jane Wright, in 1834.

(XV) 1913 Fernando Corten Wright Of Licking
County, Ohio, His Wives Margaret Judith
"Maggie" (McClaren) Wright And Emma P.

(Hartford) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1866 Joseph⁵)

The 1850 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Frenander Wright in the Joseph Wright household on October 31, 1850, and his age as 15 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1835, and his occupation as farmer.

The 1860 Census for Coshocton County, Ohio, listed Fernando Wright in the Joseph Wright household on October 31, 1850, and his age as 24 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1836, and his occupation as student.

In his email dated April 25, 2004, Don Cathey enclosed an excerpt from an unidentified printed source which stated as follows with regard to the Wright School and Fernando C. Wright:

"Wright School
District #2, Virginia Township

Levan Cocksey, 13 November 1843, conveyed to Directors Highland Wright and Jacob Ramer of District #2, Virginia Township, part of lot 1, 2d quarter, Township 4, Range 7, beginning at the southwest corner of the lot as a site for a schoolhouse, including the privilege of using the spring. (18-368)

There was undoubtedly a log schoolhouse here much earlier than this deed, and the enumeration of this district was nearing a hundred by 1840.

"Mrs. Elizabeth W. Jones

Kissimmee - Mrs. Elizabeth W. Jones, 85, a resident of Kissimmee since 1910, died at her home Saturday after several weeks illness.

A native of Icking County, Ohio, she was a daughter of the late Rev. and Mrs. Ferdinand Corten Wright and the widow of the late W. H. Jones. She moved to Kissimmee from Mount Vernon, Ohio.

She is survived by two brothers Frank Wright, Cleveland, Ohio and Hartford Wright, Detroit, Mich.; two sisters, Miss Jessie Wright, and Mrs. Margaret W. Simms, both of Cleveland;

...."

Newspapers.com listed an obituary of Charles Judson Wright dated on February 12, 1947, in The Newark Advocate, Newark, Ohio, which listed his parents as Rev. F. C. Wright and Margaret Judith (McClaren) Wright:

"Death Takes C. J. Wright At Granville

Granville, Feb. 12. - Charles Judson Wright, 78, died at 5 p. m. Tuesday in his home in East Granville.

The son of the Rev. F. C. and Margaret Judith McClaren Wright, he was born in the village of Granville Dec. 17, 1868 and had spent his entire life in this community.

He is survived by his widow and one daughter Miss Eva Wright of the home; three sisters, Miss Jessie Wright and Mrs. Margaret Simms of Cleveland, Mrs. W. H. Jones of Kissimmee, Fla.; two brothers, Frank R. Wright, Cleveland, and Fred H. Wright of Detroit.

Joseph Washington McCoy 1766-1840 of Coshocton County, Ohio, His Descendants and Related Families, by B. Isabel Lockard, stated that Fernando C. Wright was a son of Joseph Wright and Jane (Hartford) Wright and married Mary E. Drummond.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1913 Fernando Corten Wright and Margaret Judith (McClaren) Wright were the following:

- 1) Jane Elizabeth (Wright) Jones, born in November 1865 or in about 1866 in Licking County, Ohio,
- 2) Charles Judson Wright, born on December 17, 1868, or in about 1869 in Granville, Licking County, Ohio,
- 3) Margaret E. "Madge" (Wright) Simms, born in about 1870 or 1871 or 1872 or 1875 in Rochester, Monroe County, New York,
- 4) Fred B. Wright,
- 5) Jessie May Wright, born on October 23, 1874, or in about 1876 or 1877 in Ashtabula County, Ohio,
- 6) Frank Armastead Ready Wright, born in about 1878 or on July 5, 1879, or in about 1880 in Mount Vernon, Knox County, Ohio, and
- 7) Fernando Hartford "Ferd" Wright, born in about 1881 or on October 28, 1882, or in about 1883 or on October 28, 1884, or in about 1885 in Granville, Licking County, Ohio.

(A) Jane Elizabeth "Jennie" (Wright) Jones,
Her Husband William Henry Jones, And Her Descendants

Jane Elizabeth "Jennie" (Wright) Jones was a daughter of 1913 Fernando Corten Wright of Licking County, Ohio, and Margaret Judith (McClaren) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, 1866 Joseph⁵, 1913 Fernando Corten⁶)

The 1870 Census for Monroe County, New York, listed Jennie Wright in the Fernando Wright household on June 28, 1870, and her age as 4 and born in Ohio, indicating a date of birth in about 1866.

Jane Elizabeth Wright has not as yet been found in the 1880 Census.

The marriage record of J. Elizabeth Wright and William H. Jones was dated on January 1, 1890, in Licking County, Ohio:

"Death Takes C. J. Wright At Granville

Granville, Feb. 12. - Charles Judson Wright, 78, died at 5 p. m. Tuesday in his home in East Granville. Mr. Wright had been enjoying his usual good health and death was entirely unexpected, the result of an attack of coronary thrombosis.

The son of the Rev. F. C. and Margaret Judith McClaren Wright, he was born in the village of Granville Dec. 17, 1868 and had spent his entire life in this community.

He is survived by his widow and one daughter Miss Eva Wright of the home; three sisters, Miss Jessie Wright and Mrs. Margaret Simms of Cleveland, Mrs. W. H. Jones of Kissimmee, Fla.; two brothers, Frank R. Wright, Cleveland, and Fred H. Wright of Detroit.

Mr. Wright was engaged in the grocery business in Granville for 28 years and later was associated with the John J. Carroll department store in Newark for 26 years. The deceased was very active in church work of the Granville Baptist church of which he was a member. He was a past master of Center Star Masonic lodge, member of the Shrine and the Kiwanis clubs and was a 32nd degree Mason.

The body was received at the Evans funeral home and will be returned to the home in East Granville where friends may call after 4:30 o'clock this afternoon. Masonic services will be held in the home Thursday at 7:30 p. m.

Funeral services will be held in the Baptist church Friday at 2 p. m. with the Rev. Kenneth L. Maxwell, pastor, officiating. Burial will be made in Maple Grove cemetery, John D. Evans, funeral director. The body will be taken to the church one hour before the services Friday."

vii. Joshua Wright (Barbour County, Virginia), His Wife
Susanna (Carroll) Wright, And His Descendants

Joshua Wright (Barbour County, Virginia) was a son of 1805 William Wright of Fauquier County and Elizabeth (Lloyd) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴)

The 1803 Personal Property Tax List for Fauquier County, Virginia, listed Joshua Wright in the William Wright, Sr., household in May 1803:

Date of Receiving Lists from Individuals	Persons names chargeable with the Tax	Names of Free Tithables	Number of Free Tithes	Negroes over 16	Negroes over 12 & under 16

The listing of Joshua Wright in the William Wright household indicates that he was a son of William Wright and that he was born before about May 1787.

This relationship was confirmed by Y-DNA sequencing through Family Tree DNA. William Robert Wright is a descendant of Joshua Wright through the following line of descent:

- 1st generation: Joshua Wright (Barbour County, Virginia)
- 2nd generation: 1889 Harrison W. Wright of Ritchie County, West Virginia
- 3rd generation: 1915 Zachariah Wright of Ritchie County, West Virginia
- 4th generation: 1949 Abel Wright of Ritchie County, West Virginia
- 5th generation: 1976 Asa Harold Wright of Greenbrier County, West Virginia
- 6th generation: William Jennings Wright
- 7th generation: William Robert Wright.

William Robert Wright has participated in the Wright DNA Project and his Kit number is 173095. As set forth at the Wright DNA Project at:

<http://www.wright-dna.org/assets/css/R1b1Results.html>,

William Robert Wright matches the Y-DNA sequences of other descendants of 1752 John Wright of York County in 36 of 37 markers, indicating a common ancestor in 1752 John Wright of York County.

The marriage record of Joshua Wright and Susanna Carrell or Carroll was dated on March 14, 1808, in Fauquier County, Virginia:

"Know all men by these presents that we Joshua Wright and Wm Carrell are held and firmly bound unto Wm H Cabell Govenor of Virginia in the just and full sum of $150 to which payment well and truly to be made to said Govenor or his successors we bind ourselves our and each of our heirs Extrs & Admts jointly and severally firmly by these presents Sealed with our seals and dated this 14 day of March 1808

The Condition of the above obligation is such that whereas there is a marriage shortly intended to be solemnized between the above bound Joshua Wright & Susanna Carrell now if there be no lawfull cause to obstruct the said intended marriage then the above obligation to be void else to remain in full force

Joshua Wright has not as yet been located in the 1810 Census

As set forth below, the 1850 through 1880 Census records inconsistently list Joshua Wright's son Thompson J. Wright as born in about 1811 in Virginia once, 1811 in Ohio twice, and 1812 in Virginia and inconsistently list his son James Wright as born in about 1813 in Virginia once, 1813 in Ohio once, and 1814 in Ohio twice. In addition, the third marriage record for James Wright listed his place of birth as Ohio. While there is some inconsistency in these records, the six listings of Ohio as the place of birth of these two sons between 1811 and 1814 indicates that Joshua Wright probably resided in Ohio from about 1811 through about 1814. This would be consistent with the move of his older brother Joseph Wright to Coshocton County, Ohio, in late 1806.

The 1820 Census for Harrison County, Virginia (now West Virginia), listed Joshua Right with the following household:

This record indicates that Joshua Wright and Susanna (Carroll) Wright were born between about 1775 and 1794.

On March 31, 1829, at Harrison County, Virginia, D.B. 19/287, Joshua Wright purchased from Benjamin Wilson, Jr., as attorney in fact for Joshua Gibson, a tract of 165 acres of land on Simpson Creek:

This record indicates that Joshua Wright was born between 1780 and 1790.

Joshua Wright was the only Wright listed in 1830 in Harrison County, Virginia. In the 1840 Census there were listed immediately adjacent to Joshua Wright four other Wrights:

- 1) Willis Wright, born between 1800 and 1810,
- 2) Thompson Wright, born between 1810 and 1820,
- 3) James Wright, born between 1810 and 1820, and
- 4) Harrison Wright, born between 1810 and 1820.

The 1830 Census listed Joshua Wright with five younger males of various ages in his household and the 1840 Census listed Joshua Wright with one younger male in his household. As set forth below, Willis Wright, Thompson Wright, and Harrison Wright all married in the 1830's. The 1830 and 1840 Censuses appear to reflect the normal transition of sons from their father's household to their own households. As set forth below, the marriage record of Willis Wright identified his parents as J. and S. Wright, the third marriage record of James Wright identified his parents as Joshua and Susanna Wright, the History of Ritchie County identified James Wright and Harrison Wright as children of Joshua Wright, the death record of Thompson Wright identified his father as Joshua Wright, and Y-DNA sequencing identified Harrison Wright as a descendant of 1805 William Wright of Coshocton County, Ohio.

On March 3, 1843, Barbour County, Virginia, was formed from the eastern part of Harrison County, Virginia.

On September 12, 1847, at Barbour County, Virginia, D.B. 2/132, Joshua Wright sold to Elizabeth Wright his then residence of 165 acres and his stock and household and kitchen furnishings:

"This Indenture, Made this 12th day of September, Eight Hundred and Forty Seven, between Joseph Wright of the County of Barbour and State of Virginia of the one part and Elizabeth Wright of said County of Barbour and State aforesaid of the other part. Witnesseth: That the said Joshua Wright for and in consideration of the sum of Twelve Hundred Dollars lawful money of Virginia, to him in hand paid, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged hath granted bargained, sold, aliened, enfeoffed, released and confirmed, and by these presents, doth grant bargain, sell, alien, enfeoff, release and confirm unto the said Elizabeth Wright, her heirs and assigns forever, a certain tract of land with its appurtenances lying and being in the County of Barbour & State aforesaid and bounded as follows, Beginning at a Black Oak and running thence N. 70 West 28_ poles to a large rock, thence N. 44 E. 94 to a stake, S. 77 E. 246 poles to a stake near a marked Hickory, S. 18 W. 119 poles to the beginning, it being the same tract of land the said Joshua Wright now lives on, containing One Hundred & Sixty Five acres. Also one Horse beast, six head of cattle, fifteen head of sheep and eleven head of hogs, together with all the household and kitchen furniture and farming utensils. To have and to hold the above described 160 acres of land. Also all the above described property with the appurtenances, to the said Elizabeth Wright, her heirs and assigns forever to and for the only proper use and behoof of the said Elizabeth Wright and her heirs and assigns forever. And the said Joshua Wright for himself and for his heirs &c do hereby covenant to and with the said Elizabeth Wright, her heirs and assigns forever, that he will forever warrant and defend the above described tracts of land together the above named property to the said Elizabeth Wright her heirs and assigns forever, against all persons laying claim thereto. In Testimony Whereof the aforesaid Joshua Wright hath hereunto set his hand and seal the day and year first above written.

The within Deed was this day presented in said Office and acknowledged by John Wright and admitted to record.

Although the grantor was once mis-listed as Joseph and once as John, the text and signature line identify the grantor as Joshua Wright. And the metes and bounds makes clear that this is the same land as that purchased in 1829 by Joshua Wright by Harrison County, Virginia, Deed 19/287 set forth above. This sale indicates that Joshua Wright was settling his estate on his daughter Elizabeth Wright, but for the price of $1200, in a manner similar to a will but completed during his lifetime.

The 1850 Census for Barbour County, Virginia (now West Virginia), listed Joshua Wright with the following household on September 26, 1850:

Name	Age	Sex	Color	Occupation	Value of Real Estate

This record indicates that Joshua Wright was born in about 1782.

The History of Ritchie County, by Minnie Kendall Lowther and published in 1911, stated that:

"The Wright Brothers. - the next settlers in this section were James and Harrison Wright, two brothers, who came from Barbour county, in 1842, and found permanent homes, and final resting places here.

James Wright took up his residence near one mile below the little hamlet of Lawford, on the farm that is now owned by his sons, Joshua and James, and Robert Pride - the latter being the occupant of the old home. Here he passed away in 1884, and in the old Spruce creek burying-ground on the M.L. Law farm he is sleeping. He first married Miss Mary Wiant, and Joshua was the son of this union; three others having died in childhood. His second wife was Miss Elizabeth Calhoun, daughter of Allen Calhoun, and she was the mother of the Rev. Allen Wright, of Parkersburg; James, of Spruce creek; and Columbus, who died in the asylum at Weston. His last wife was Ruth, the daughter of Daniel Mitchell. He was a blacksmith by trade and one of the earliest in this section.

He had wielded the hammer on the Doddridge county side, for a short time, before coming to Spruce creek.

Dr. Harrison Wright made his settlement, near one mile above Lawford, on the farm that is now owned by his grandson, Addison Wright. He also owned the Samuel Davidson farm - now the property of M. L. Law.

He was born on Simpson's creek, in what is now Barbour county, on June 14, 1815, and died on January 17, 1889, and in the Mt. Ollive churchyard - the Progressive Brethren - on Spruce creek, he lies buried. He married Miss Elizabeth Cleavenger, daughter of Edman Cleavenger, of Barbour county, who was born in 1820, and was laid by his side in 1902. She was of Dutch descent and was a distant relative of George Washington.

Their children: Zachariah, Lloyd, Alexander, Mrs. Mary Ann Rollins, Harrison Wright, junior, Mrs. Adaline Weaver, Mrs. Clarinda Weaver, all reside on the waters of Spruce creek; Mrs. Elizabeth Bright lives in Greenbrier county; David died in the Rock Island prison during the late Civil war; Ali, near Lawford; Mrs. Moriah Gragg, in Gilmer county; and Edgar, in childhood.

The Wrights are of Scotch-Irish descent. The grandfather of James and Harrison Wright crossed the sea, near 1745, and married a Virginia girl by the name of Porter, and settled in this colony. He served as a Revolutionary soldier; and from his son Joshua, who was born in the "Old Dominion," in 1770, the Ritchie county families come.

Besides James and Harrison - of this county - Joshua Wright's other children were, the late Mrs. Wm. Adams (Lucinda) of Doddridge county - grandmother of Lawyer Homer Adams, of Harrisville; the late Mrs. David Cleavenger (Jemima), of Gilmer county; Mrs. Sylvester Monroe (Elizabeth), sleeps in Harrison county; Willis, and Thompson, in Barbour county; and Joshua Wright was a citizen of Seattle, Washington, the last account, he being the only survivor of the family."

This record identifies the children of Joshua Wright as follows:

- 1) James Wright,
- 2) Harrison Wright, born on June 14, 1815, in Harrison County, Virginia, (now Barbour County, West Virginia),
- 3) Lucinda (Wright) Adams,
- 4) Jemima (Wright) Cleavenger,
- 5) Elizabeth (Wright) Monroe,
- 6) Willis Wright,
- 7) Thompson Wright, and
- 8) Joshua Wright.

In his article "Some Descendants Of Richard Wright, Gentleman, Of London, England, And Northumberland, Virginia, 1655" in Tyler's Quarterly Magazine, Volume I, page 127, 1919, Charles Arthur Hoppin named Joshua Wright as a son of 1805 William Wright of Fauquier County:

" . . . (6) - his son William Wright whose will, proved at Warrenton, April 28, 1806 [original will filed in the 1806 bundle in Fauquier count clerk's office], names wife Elizabeth, son William Wright, Jr., and refers to his other children without naming them; but on page 372 of Fauquier will book No. 8 is the entry of the division of the estate showing, to wit: "£974:18:4½ - the sum to be divided between the fourteen children of the said Wm. Wright which will make each legatees part £69-12-8-3/4." Lack of space forbids the present citation of evidence upon these fourteen children, some of whom may be recognized in the following: Sarah, who had married the administrator of William Wright's estate, John Evans; Jane, who married Lain Smith; Mary, who married Joshua Lemert; David, who married Nancy Martin; Elijah, who married Polly Brannin; Joshua, who married Susan Carroll; Joseph, who married Elizabeth McCoy; Edward, who married Elizabeth Kay. [These marriage are recorded at Warrenton, Virginia.]"

Mr. Hoppin offered no evidence beyond the marriage record that Joshua Wright was a son of 1805 William Wright of Fauquier County and, as set forth above, there is nothing in that marriage record that identifies Joshua Wright with 1805 William Wright of Fauquier County.

In 1932 Mr. Hoppin included a summary of information on 1805 William Wright in his work The Washington Ancestry and Records of The McClain, Johnson, and Forty Other Colonial American Families:

This William Wright, Sr.'s will, proved April 28, 1806, names his (second) wife, Elizabeth, son William, Jr., (who married Elizabeth [____] and had eight children in the census of 1810), and refers to his other thirteen without giving their names or stating by which wife they were born; but on page 372 of Fauquier Will Book No. 8 is an entry of the division of his estate to wit: "£974:18:4½ - the sum to be divided between the fourteen children of the said Wm Wright." Some of them may be recognized from the marriage licenses and marriage returns recorded in the county clerk's office at Warrenton, among which are Sarah, licensed May 5, 1796, to marry John Evans, who became administrator of her father's estate; Jane, licensed December 25, 1785, to marry Lain (or Lane) Smith; Mary, licensed February 6, 1798, to marry Joshua Lemert (entered as "Jemert" on the record of the marriage "return"); David, licensed January 28, 1790, to marry Ann Mason; Susanna, licensed January 24, 1806, to marry Wm. McDowell, named in the administrator's account."

Between the 1919 article and the 1932 book, Mr. Hoppin had apparently concluded that there was insufficient evidence that Joshua Wright was a son of 1805 William Wright of Fauquier County and dropped him from the list of children. Nevertheless, the 1803 Personal Property Tax List set forth above indicates that Joshua Wright was a son of 1805 William Wright of Fauquier County.

In his email dated March 26, 2010, Daniel McCartney stated that Joshua Wright married ____ Carroll and resided in 1850 in Barbour County, Virginia, and that Joshua Wright and ____ (Carroll) Wright had the following child:

- 1) Sarah "Sally" (Wright) Wyckoff, born on June 6, 1821, in Barbour County, Virginia (now West Virginia).

In his GenForum for Wright Posting No. 22684 dated February 4, 2010, Robert Wright stated that Willis Wright and Lloyd Wright were sons of Joshua Wright.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Joshua Wright and Susanna (Carroll) Wright were the following:

- 1) Willis Wright, born in about 1808 or 1809 or 1810 in Virginia,
- 2) Lucinda (Wright) Adams, born in about 1809 in Virginia,
- 3) Thompson J. Wright, born in about 1811 or on February 17, 1812, in Virginia or Ohio,
- 4) James W. Wright, born in about 1813 or 1814 in Virginia or Ohio,
- 5) Jemima (Wright) Clevenger, born in about 1813 or on August 2, 1814, or in about 1819 in Virginia,
- 6) Harrison W. Wright, born in about 1814 or on June 14, 1815, or in about 1816 on Simpson Creek, Harrison County (now Barbour County), Virginia,
- 7) Elizabeth (Wright) Monroe, born in about 1817 or 1818 in Virginia,
- 8) Sarah (Wright) Wyckoff, born in about 1820 or on June 6, 1821, in Virginia, and
- 9) Joshua Wright, Jr., born on June 29, 1824, or in about 1825 or in June 1829 in Virginia.

(I) 1893 Willis Wright Of Barbour County, West Virginia, His Wives Edith (Crislip) Wright And Mary Jane (Calhoun) Wright, And His Descendants

1893 Willis Wright of Barbour County, West Virginia, was a son of Joshua Wright (Barbour County, Virginia) and Susanna (Carroll) Wright. (1657 Edward¹, 1695 John², 1752 John³, 1805 William⁴, Joshua⁵)

The marriage record of Willis Wright and Edith Crislip was dated on August 30, 1834, in Harrison County, Virginia (now West Virginia):

"Book 5, Page 269

Know all men by these presents, that we Willis Wright and Geoge Crislipp are held and firmly bound unto Littleton W. Taswell Esquire, Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia, for the time being, and his successors, for the use of said Commonwealth, in the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, to which payment well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this 30th day of August 1834

Whereas, a marriage is suddenly intended to be had and solemnized between the above bound Willis Wright and Edith Crislipp

The will of Willis Wright was dated on July 10, 1891, probated on June 5, 1893, at Barbour County, West Virginia, W.B. 2/68, and provided as follows:

"In the name of God Amen, I, Willis Wright of Barbour county West Virginia, being in old age, but of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make this to be my last Will and Testament, as follows: that is to say, I desire that my body be decently burried after my death, and that my debts together with burial expenses be paid out of my personal estate herein bequeathed, First: I will and bequeath to my beloved wife, Mary J. Wright, out of both my real and personal estate, all and the same precise interest therein, that is provided for her by the Law regulating the inheritance and distribution of property in this state, Second: I will and bequeath to my son Samuel S. Wright, that part of my real estate on which he and my self, reside at this time, to have and hold the same in fee simple. This land, so devised, is to be that part of my land lying towards the waters of Simpson Creek, from the top of the ridge and is supposed to embrace 120 acres more or less. This land also in the hands of my son Samuel S. is charged with the support and maintenance of my invalid daughter, Emily Wright, who is to have a comfortable home and support with and from him during natural life with decent burial at her decease with which the land so devised is to be chargeable. Third: the rest and residue of my land, supposed also to be 120 acres, more or less, and which adjoins that devised to Samuel S. on the other side of the dividing ridge, I bequeath and devise to my two daughters, Rhoda A. Cook, wife of Sylvanus Cook, and Harriett Wright, to have and to hold in fee simple, and to share equally therein, share and share alike, both as to quantity and quality. Fourth: I will, devise, and bequeath that my personal estate and effects subject to payment of my debts, and my said wife's distributive share, and made exempt by law for her use, shall as to the residue thereof, be equally divided and distributed among the said three devisees hereinbefore named, Samuel S Wright, Rhoda A. Cook, and Harriett Wright, to be paid by my personal representative, upon a final settlement and distribution of my estate, as is herein provided for, I have other living children than these herein provided for, besides grandchildren from children deceased, whom I have not forgotten, and would gladly provide for, were I able to do so; but in my extreme old age, I am under peculiar obligation to those herein named as my legatees for indispensable services and can last to the full extent of my small estate; and in thus disposing of it, I have been governed accordingly. And lastly: It is my further wish and will that in the event of the death of my said son, Samuel S. Wright, without children or issue born of him, that the land herein devised to him shall descend and be held in fee by his brothers and sisters, and their issue surviving him, as my heirs at law. Having no debts to provide for, and not wishing to subject my estate to unnecessary expense, I have constituted no executor leaving my beloved wife and devisees the privilege to administer hereupon, or to procure it done as they may prefer and as the law provides for in such instances. In witness whereof to this my last will and testament I have set my hand and seal on this the 10th day of July in the year 1891.

Willis Wright

Signed, cealed, published and declared by the Testator, Willis Wright, as and for his last will and Testament in the presence of us who in his presence, at his request, and in the presence of each other have subscribed hereunto our names as witnesses.
